Preface.

THERE is little need, in this the second volume of a series of Tudor Inquisitions, to emphasise the supreme importance of these Records to the genealogist, the historian and topographer, for that has already been done, with conspicuous success, in the Introduction to the previous volume, edited in 1896 by Mr. G. S. Fry. It is only necessary to refer, therefore, by way of Preface, to certain noteworthy features to be found within the following pages.

The present volume contains complete abstracts of Inquisitiones post mortem for the City of London during the years 4 to 19 of the reign of Queen Elizabeth, the entire period so far covered in the series being that from 1485 to 1577. A considerable portion of the remaining twenty-six years will appear in the "Index Library" during 1902, and the usual thorough Indexes, Nominum et Locorum, will be published as soon as the last Inquisitiones of the Tudor Period issue from the press. This is believed to be the better course to follow, for it has the advantage not only of hastening forward the completion of work now well in hand, thus preventing the annoyance of a prolonged pause (due no less to publication than to preparation of the periodic index), but also of avoiding an undue multiplicity of indexes.

The abstracts of Inquisitiones post mortem here printed are taken from the Chancery Series for the reign of Elizabeth preserved at the Public Record Office; and since the original documents are in Latin—their decipherment, on account of age and condition, being at times a source of perplexity even to the practised eye of the expert—the great advantage of these readable English abstracts will neither be denied by the critic nor fail to meet with very general approval. They supply, moreover, all the information contained in the originals, and for all practical purposes are the Inquisitiones themselves, shorn of their provoking verbiage. Where necessary, they have been collated with the transcripts returned either into the Court of Exchequer or the Court of Wards and Liveries. For this and other good work much praise is due to Miss Walford.

Inquisitiones post mortem to the number of 175 are here recorded, an average for each year of eleven. In six cases the jury made an insufficient or inaccurate return, causing the writ ad melius inquirendum to be directed to the escheator for the holding of a second inquest to ascertain omitted facts. Although the jurors were usually summoned to meet the Mayor, as escheator, at the Guildhall, on one occasion (17th Jan., 1571) they appeared before two commissioners at "the inn called the Castell without the bars of Westsmithefeild in St. John's Street near the City of London"; and twice in the year 1573 the inquests were held before the Auditor-General of the Court of Wards and Liveries. The various references to the "Statute of Uses"; the numerous Wills (which are in English), Charters, Deeds, Indentures and Fines; the account of "Crosby's Hall" in 1576 (page 199); the long list of City Craft-Gilds, and the curious place-names constantly occurring—are all of the highest interest and value. The Inquisition of Samuel Cox, gent., belongs to those known as proofs of age, probatio etatis, and records amongst other things his baptism on March 4th, 1549, at the church of "the Blessed Mary of Bow Arcubus" in the City of London. There are four enquiries concerning the property of lunatics and idiots, two of them relating to a single family (Julius and Alexander Augustine, 1565 and 1574).

Among the Inquisitiones post mortem occur the names of two Earls of Wiltshire (1572 and 1577), four Knights (Cholmeley, Hewett, Throkmorton, and White), two Merchants (Nicholas de Nale and Jn. Jakes), as many Clerks (Sir Jn. Deane and Thos. Allen), a Writer of Courthand (Jn. Lee), and five Aldermen (Sir Thos. White, 1568; Robert Hardinge, 1569; Hy. Becher, 1571; Hy. Milles, 1574, and Wm. Bonde, 1576). Richard Langham (1567) is the first of the thirty-seven citizens recorded. In addition to these it is worthy of mention that the list includes twenty-three "Gentlemen," twelve "Esquires," eight widows, seven clothworkers, four grocers and butchers, three mercers, two merchant-tailors, haberdashers and girdlers, and a single cutler, cook, innholder, goldsmith, brewer, skinner, saddler, salter, baker, tallow-chandler, broiderer, pewterer, dyer, blacksmith, bowyer, and leather-seller.

OF THE
Inquisitiones Post Mortem

RELATING TO THE
CITY OF LONDON,
RETURNED INTO THE COURT OF CHANCERY.

INQUISITIONS OF THE REIGN OF QUEEN ELIZABETH.

George Armerer.

Inquisition taken at the Guildhall, 14th August, 4 Eliz. [1562], before William Harper, knight, mayor and escheator, after the death of George Armerer, citizen and brewer of London, by the oath of Thomas Lytton, William Gybbons, Henry Sutton, John Keyle, Richard Henman, John Wytton, Henry Calyce, William Mosyer, Thomas Dewxell, Robert Dunkyns, William Hardinge, Michael Smyth, William Smyth, George Cabell, Robert Lee, Robert Davye, Stephen Walden, Robert Langwith and William Swaynson, who say that Long before the death of the said George Armerer, Rowland Tweddell, citizen and sadler of London, was seised of 1 messuage, wherein he then dwelt, situate in Smythfeld, in the parish of St. Sepulchre, in the suburbs of London, between the tenement called the George on the west and the highway in Smythfeld on the south and east, and the tenement belonging to the Church of St. Sepulchre on the north.

So seised, the said Rowland by deed dated 14th April, 7 Edw. VI [1553], granted the said messuage to the said George Armerer and his heirs for ever after the death of the said Rowland Tweddell and Alice his wife, on condition that he and his heirs pay to them yearly 40s. Before the death of the said George Armerer, Edward Ryche of Hornden on the Hill in co. Essex, gent., and Joan his wife, daughter and heir of Edward Saunders, citizen and leatherseller of London, deceased, were seised of the stable with the loft built over it, late in the tenure of John Shelley, situate in Longlane in the parish of St. Sepulchre without Newgate, in the suburbs of London.

So seised, the said Edward and Joan by charter dated 27th August, 2 and 3 Philip and Mary [1555], for the sum of £15 to them in hand paid, granted the said stable and loft to the said George Armerer and his heirs for ever.

The said George Armerer afterwards built a mansion house wherein Richard Spencer, joiner, now lives.

The said King Philip and Queen Mary by Letters Patent dated 6th May, in the 2nd and 3rd years of their reigns, recited inter alia that the said George Armerer had bought the said stable and loft which were held of the said King and Queen in chief, without obtaining their licence, but that upon payment of 26s. 8d. into the hanaper they had pardoned his said trespass.

Afterwards, to wit, on the 29th day of November, 1561, the said George Armerer made his will as follows [part given in English]: I will that Kateryne my wife shall have the use of my messuage in Longlane until my son William shall attain the age of 21 years, at which time the same shall descend to him and his heirs for ever; for default, the same to come to all my daughters, to be divided equally amongst them; to hold to them and their heirs for ever; for default, the same to remain to my heirs for ever. Further, I bequeath to the said William my messuage in West Smithfield, sometime in the tenure of Rowland Tweddell, and now in that of Cutberte Maye, to hold to him and to the heirs of his body begotten for ever, with remainders, for default, as above.

The said premises are held of the Queen in chief by the service of the 40th part of a knight's fee, and are worth per annum, clear 40s.

George Armerer died on the vigil of the feast of the Epiphany, being the 5th day of January, 4 Eliz. [1562], in the parish of St. Sepulchre; William Armerer is his son and next heir, and was then aged 9 years and 7 weeks.

The said Katherine late the wife of the said George still survives.

The said Alice Tweddell has taken the profits of the said tenement bought of the said Rowland Tweddell up to the present time.

Chan. Inq. p. m., 4 Eliz., No. 66.

Magdalene Pryce.

Inquisition taken at the Guildhall, 14th August, 4 Eliz. [1562], before William Harper, knight, mayor and escheator, after the death of Magdalene Pryce, late the wife of Thomas Collye, deceased, by the oath of Thomas Lytton, William Gybbons, Henry Sutton, John Keyle, Richard Henman, John Wytton, Henry Callyce, William Mosyer, Thomas Dewxell, Robert Dunkyns, William Hardyng, Michael Smyth, William Smyth, George Cabell, Robert Lee, Robert Davye, Stephen Walden, Robert Langwith and William Swayneson, who say that

Long before the death of the said Magdalene Pryce, one Thomas Collye, now deceased, was seised of 1 messuage, 1 yard and 1 parcel of waste land, and 1 house and garden to the said messuage adjoining, late in the tenure of George Kyng, citizen and woodcarver of London, situate in the street commonly called Sylverstrete, sometime belonging to the late Priory of Christ Church, London.

So seised, the said Thomas built on the said piece of waste land a small tenement wherein he dwelt, and 9 stables.

The said Thomas Collye was likewise seised of 2 messuages and tenements lying in the parish of St. Olave, commonly called Seynte Towles parish in Sylverstrete, sometime belonging to the late Monastery or Priory of Holy Trinity, commonly called Christ Church, London, and late in the several tenures of William Raynham and Owen Graner, which said premises the said Thomas Collye lately purchased to him and his heirs for ever of the gift of John Aylyff of London, esq., as in his deed made to the said Thomas, dated 2nd March, 37 Hen. VIII [1546], more fully appears.

The said Thomas Collye was likewise seised of 1 tenement with shops, cellars, solars, etc., etc., thereto belonging, lying in the said parish of St. Olave in Sylverstrete, late in the tenure of William Northeriche, which the said Thomas purchased to him and his heirs for ever of the gift of William Austeyn citizen and clothworker of London, as appears by the charter of the said William made to the said Thomas, dated 21st July, 4 Edw. VI [1550].

Afterwards, to wit, on the 5th August, 4 and 5 Philip and Mary [1557], the said Thomas Collye made his will [part thereof here given in English] as follows: I give to my wife the house I live in, with the stables and tenements lying in Silverstrete, during her life, and after her death the same to remain to my daughter Alyce Collye. I also give to my said wife my house and land at Woodgrene in the parish of Cheston in co. Hertford, to enjoy the same during her widowhood, but if she marry again, the same to go at once to my said daughter and to the heirs of her body for ever; if she die without heirs, she may dispose of the said premises as she will.

The said messuage, yard, waste ground, house and garden, are held of the Queen in chief by the service of the 20th part of a knight's fee and the yearly rent of 4s., and are worth per annum, clear, £12 10s. The said premises purchased of John Ayllyffe, esq., are held of the Queen by fealty only in free burgage and not in chief, and are worth per annum, 40s. The said tenement purchased of William Austeyn is held of the Queen in free burgage and not in chief, and is worth per annum, clear, 40s.

The said Thomas Collye died 6th August, 4 and 5 Philip and Mary [1557].

Magdalen Price died 3rd May, 4 Eliz. [1562]; the said Alice Collye now living at Woodgrene and married to John Dudley, one "de le pastrie" of the Queen's household, is the daughter and sole next heir of the said Thomas Collye and Magdalene his wife, sometime the wife of Robert Pryce, and is now aged 18 years and more.

Chan. Inq. p. m., 4 Eliz., No. 67.

John Wylcockes.

Inquisition taken at the Guildhall, 14th August, 4 Eliz. [1562], before William Harper, knight, mayor and escheator, after the death of John Wilcockes, citizen and cook of London, by the oath of Thomas Lytton, William Gybbyns, Henry Sutton, John Keale, Richard Henman, John Wytton, Henry Calyce [William Mosy]er, Thomas Dewxell, Robert Dunkyns, William Harding, Michael Smyth, William Smyth, George Cabell, Robert Lee, Robert Davye, Stephen Walden, Robert Langewith and William Swaynson, who say that

Before the death of the said John Wylcockes, one William Mylton of London, gent., was seised of 16 messuages, large and small, situate in the parish of St. Benedict Fynke, London, in the ward of Brodestrete within the City of London, and so seised, by charter dated 30th June, 5 Edw. VI [1551], sold the said premises with their rights and appurtenances in the said parish and in that of St. Bartholomew the Less to the said John Wilcockes and his heirs for ever: which said premises were of John Baxter, pewterer, and were delivered over by the said William Mylton by indenture dated 6th July, 5 Edw. VI [1551].

Before the death of the said John Wylcocks, one John Gerye of London, pewterer, was seised of 1 messuage in the said parish of St. Benedict, late in the tenure of Thomas Ryssheton, sergeant at law, deceased, and William Molyns, sometime belonging to the late Monastery of Gracys near the City of London, and so seised by charter dated 26th July, 1555, demised the said premises, now in the tenure of Thomas Jackson, carpenter, to the said John Wylcocks and his heirs for ever; which said premises the said John Gerye lately had to him and his heirs of the gift of George Hardley late of London, gent., deceased, as appears by the charter dated 21st October, 1 Edw. VI [1547], made by the said George to the said John.

So seised, the said John Wylcocks made his will 16th January, 1561 [here given in English], as follows: I give all my messuages, lands, tenements and hereditaments in the said parish of St. Bennet Fynke, in the several tenures of William Turner, Courte Rychardson, William Rede, John Dobbys, Thomas Wyse, John Draycote, Pety John, William Culyar, William Baker, Thomas Axton, Thomas Watson and Thomas Jackson, to Richard Wylcocks my son and heir apparent, reserving to Mawdelyne my wife her dwelling in the tenement wherein William Culyar lives for her life, without paying any rent for the same, she to repair the said tenement against wind and weather at her own cost: to hold all the said premises to my said son Richard and the heirs of his body; for default, the remainder thereof to Peter Wylcocks my second son and his heirs; for default, to John Wylcocks my third son and his heirs; and for default, the remainder thereof to Elizabeth Wylcocks, Sara Wylcocks and Mawdelyne Wylcocks my 3 daughters and to the heirs of their bodies; and if all my said children die without heirs, "as God defende," then all the said premises to remain to my right heirs for ever.

The said premises purchased of the said William Mylton of London, are held of the Queen in free burgage, and are worth per annum, clear, £30. The said premises purchased of the said John Gerye are held of the Queen in free and common socage, to wit, by fealty only, and are worth per annum, clear, £3.

John Wylcocks died in the said parish of St. Bennet Fynke, 29th April, 4 Eliz. [1562]; Richard Wylcocks is his son and next heir, and was then aged 21 years and more.

David Sambrooke.

Inquisition taken at the Guildhall, 14th August, 4 Eliz. [1562], before William Harper, knight, mayor and escheator, after the death of David Sambrooke, by the oath of Thomas Lytton, William Gybbyns, Henry Sutton, John Keyle, Richard Henman, Thomas Wytton, Henry Calyce, William Mosyer, Thomas Dunkyns, Thomas Dewxell, William Harding, Michael Smith, William Smyth, George Cabell, Robert Lee, Robert Davye, Stephen Walden, Robert Langewith and William Swayneson, who say that

David Sambrooke was seised of the capital messuage called the Katheryne Wheale with the shops, cellars, solars, and gardens thereto belonging, and 4 other tenements adjoining the said capital messuage, lying in the parish of St. Botolph without Aldersgate in the ward of Aldersgate, London, between the tenement late of the Abbot and Convent of St. Albans, now in the tenure of the said David, on the north part; the tenement of the eleemosinary (eleemosinarius) of the Cathedral Church of St. Pauls, London, on the south; the great ditch under the walls of London on the east, and the highway called Aldersgate-strete on the west: which said premises one—Alexander Chapman late of London, gent., had of the demise of Thomas Russheton, and which the said David Sambrooke lately purchased to him and his heirs for ever of the gift of John Osborne late of London, gent., and Dionisia his wife, daughter and heir of Thomas Russheton, deceased, late serjeant at law, as appears by a charter dated 10th February, 1 Edward VI [1547], and made by the said John Osborne and Dionisia to the said David Sambrooke.

The said premises are held of the Queen in free burgage, and are worth per annum, clear, £7 6s. 8d.

David Sambrooke died 20th August, 2 and 3 Philip and Mary [1555] without issue; John Danyell of Bedmyster, co. Somerset, husbandman, son and heir of John Danyell and Helen his wife, deceased, late one of the daughters and coheirs of John Pers of the City of Bristol, in the parish of Ratcliffe on the Hill, likewise deceased, "Sebier"; Richard Rogers of the said City of Bristol, cardmaker, son and heir of Thomas Rogers of Bristol, barbor, deceased, son and heir of Thomas Rogers and Margaret his wife, deceased, another of the daughters and coheirs of the said John Pers; and John Hitchen of the City of London, "pulter," son and heir of John Hitchen of Fromselwood, co. Somerset, son and heir of Richard Hitchen late of Porteburie and Alice his wife, the 3rd daughter and heir of the said John Pers, deceased, are the kinsmen and next heirs of the said David Sambrook, as appears by a certificate made under the common seal of the mayor and citizens of Bristol, dated 27 November, 3 Eliz. [1560]. At the death of the said David, the said John Danyell was aged 80 years and more, and still survives at Bedmyster, the said Richard Rogers was then aged 40 years and more, and still survives at Bristol, and the said John Hychen was then aged 22 years and 3 weeks, and still survives in the said parish of St. Botolph without Aldersgate, London.

Anna Sambrooke, late the wife of the said David Sambrooke, now deceased, took the profits of the said premises from the death of the said David until the 24th day of October, 1559, after her death the said Hychen took the same.

Chan. Inq. p. m., 5 Eliz., part 1, No. 62.

Thomas Percy.

Inquisition taken at the Guildhall, 16th June, 5 Eliz. [1563] before Thomas Lodge, knight, mayor and escheator, after the death of Thomas Percy, citizen and skinner (pellearii) of London, by the oath of John Haddon, John Keyle, Richard Henman, John Wytton, Henry Calyce, Robert Crippes, Thomas Dexehall, William Harding, . . . George Cabell, Robert Lee, Stephen Malden, Robert Langwithe, William Sanson and Nicholas Carewe, who say that Thomas Percy was seised of 3 messuages in the several tenures of William Walker, William Willson and Thomas Pyford lying in Woodstrete in the parish of St. Albans in Woodstrete, London, sometime belonging to the late House or Priory of the Blessed Mary without Byshoppegate, London, now dissolved; 1 messuage with shops, cellars, solars, etc., situate in Thamystrete, in the parish of All Saints upon the Cellars in Thamystrete, alias Alhallowes the Lytle, now in the tenure of Andrew Percy: which said messuage lies between the [tenement] of the Mayor, commonalty and citizens of London on the east and north, the tenement belonging to the said Church of Lytle Alhallowes, in the tenure of John Burcer on the west, and the highway there called Thamestrete on the south.

So seised, the said Thomas Percy made his will 29th January, 1561, as follows [here given in English]:

I give my said new messuage in Thamystrete to the said Andrew Percy, my nephew and cousin, for his natural life; and after his decease, to Francis Percy son of the said Andrew and to the heirs of his body begotten; if he die without issue, the said messuage to be sold for the greatest profit possible, and the money therefrom arising to be divided amongst the children of the said Andrew, to wit, Jane Percy, Mary Percy and Margery Percy and to his child yet unborn.

I give the said 3 messuages in Woodstreet to the child unborn of the said Andrew if it be a "man child" and to the heirs of such child; but if he decease without issue or if it be not a man child, then I give the same to the said Francis and his heirs; for default, the said messuages to be sold and the money to be divided amongst the said Jane, Mary and Margery Percy.

The said 3 messuages in Woodstreet are held of the Queen in free socage by fealty only and not in chief, and are worth per annum, clear, £4. The messuage in Thames street is held of the Queen in free burgage, and is worth per annum, clear, 40s.

Joan Tailor was not seised of any messuages, lands or hereditaments in the said City of London which were held of the Queen or others, but she was seised of all that messuages divided into 2 parts, situate in the parish of St. Ellen in the street called Bysshoppesgate Strete within the City of London, late in the tenure of the said Joan, and now in that of . . . Skegges, which said tenement abbutts upon the highway there on the east, the tenement in the tenure of Justinian Cockes on the south, partly on the tenement in the tenure of Thomas Gresham, knight, and partly on the tenement called the Bull there on the west, and the messuage in the tenure of William Agar on the north, also of the reversion of the said premises.

So seised, the said Joan Tailor, licence from the Queen being first obtained by Letters Patent dated 18th May, 4 Eliz. [1562], by charter dated 21st May, in the said year, sold the said premises to Nicholas Clarson and his heirs for ever.

The said Joan Tailor was likewise seised of all that tenement lying in the said parish and street, between the highway there on the east, the tenement late in the occupation of William Daymer and now in that of Folkes Lyngham, ironmonger, on the south, the messuage late in the tenure of Dominic (Dominici) Lomelyn and now in that of Thomas Watton, gent., and the tenement late in the occupation of the said Joan Tailor and Richard Emmes on the north: which said tenement is now in the tenure of Justinian Cockes, merchant-tailor of London, and formerly belonged to the late Priory or Monastery of St. Ellen, within the said City of London, now dissolved.

So seised, the said Joan by charter dated 6th April, 4 and 5 Philip and Mary [1558], sold the said messuage to Richard Emmes, citizen and saddler of London, to hold to him and his heirs for ever, to the use of the said Joan Taylor and Joice Mall sister of the said Joan, for their lives; and after their decease, to the use of the said Richard Emmes and his heirs for ever.

The said Richard Emmes being so seised, made his will 10th August, 1558 [part given here in English], and thereby bequeathed the said messuage in the said parish of St. Ellens to Thomas Burston his uncle and his heirs for ever.

The said Richard Emmes died in the lifetime of the said Joan, and Queen Elizabeth by Letters Patent dated 13th September, in the 4th year of her reign [1562], pardoned the said Thomas Burston the trespass, legacy and alienation made by the said will.

The messuage in the tenure of . . . Skegges is held of the Queen in chief by knight's service and the yearly rent of 5s. 4d., and is worth per annum, clear, 53s. 4d.

The messuage in the tenure of Justinian Cockes is held of the Queen in chief by knight's service and the yearly rent of 2s., and is worth per annum, clear, 20s.

Joan Tailor died 13th September last past; but who is her next heir the jurors know not.

Henry Suckley.

Inquisition taken at the Guildhall, 26th October, 6 Eliz. [1564], before John Whyte, knight, mayor and escheator after the death of Henry Suckley, by the oath of John Haddon, Richard Henman, Henry Sutton, William Hardinge, Stephen Walden, Henry Shawe, William Smyth, Richard Smythe, John Witton, John Noble, Michael Smythe, Robert Dyconson, Robert Crippes, Richard Cowper, John Wilson, Arthur Raynescroftes, Robert Langwithe, and Walter Browne, who say that Henry Suckley was seised of 4 messuages with all the shops, cellars, etc., etc., thereto belonging lying in the parish of St. Sepulchre, London, in a street there called Gyltspurstreate near a place there called the Pye Cornner, in the several tenures of Michael Nottingham, Richard Mathewe, William Erle and William Parrett.

So seised, the said Henry and Agnes his wife by deed dated 5th

April, 4 & 5, Philip and Mary [1558], granted the said premises to William Harper, citizen and merchant-tailor and alderman of London, Thomas Pannell, clerk, William Tucker, citizen and grocer of London, William Chyvall, citizen and draper of London, David Gitton, citizen and vintner of London, William Boxe, citizen and grocer of London, Ambrose Nycholas, citizen and salter of London, Robert Soll, citizen and salter of London, and John Toppe, groom of the chamber of the Lord the King: to hold to them and their heirs for ever to the use of the said Henry and Agnes his wife, for their lives; after their decease, the said premises and the reversion thereof shall wholly remain to the mayor, commonalty and citizens of London, governors of the goods and possessions of the Hospitals of Christs, Bridewell, and St. Thomas the Apostle, and to their successors for ever, to the intents stated in the said deed.

The said Henry Suckley was likewise seised of 3 messuages with shops, cellars, etc., situate in the parish of St. Mary Magdalen in Old Fyshestrete, London, in the several tenures of John Byldersbe, Edward Butler and Christopher Toppinge.

So seised, he and the said Agnes by deed dated 30th March, 4 & 5, Philip and Mary [1558] granted the said premises to the said William Harper, Thomas Pannell, William Toker, William Chyval, David Gytton, William Box, Ambrose Nycholas, Robert Solle and John Toppe, to hold to them and their heirs for ever to the use of the said Henry and Agnes for their lives, with remainder as in the said deed is specified.

The said Henry Suckley was likewise seised of 1 messuage called the Saryzen Heed in Watlingstreate in the parish of All Saints in Breadstreate, London, now in the tenure of the said Agnes Suckley, and so seised by indenture dated 31st December, 4 & 5 Philip and Mary [1557], demised the same to the said John Toppe: to hold immediately after the death of the said Henry and Agnes for 61 years, he paying therefor yearly £6.

Also of 1 other messuage in the said parish of All Saints in Breadstreat in the tenure of William Hitchecoke, citizen and salter of London: which said messuage the said Henry and Agnes by charter dated 5th April, in the said 4th & 5th years of Philip and Mary granted to the said William Harper, Thomas Pannell and the others above mentioned: to hold to them and their heirs for ever, to the use of the said Henry and Agnes for their lives, with remainders thereof to the intent in the said indenture specified.

The said Henry Suckley and Agnes were jointly seised of all that messuage now in the tenure of the said Agnes situate in the said parish of All Saints in Breadstreat in the ward of Cordwaynnerstreate, London, with all the houses, shops, cellars, etc., thereto belonging.

So seised, they by indenture quadripartite dated 24th July, 1564, in performance and confirmation of all the covenants and grants contained in certain indentures made between the said Henry Suckley and Agnes of the one part; John Toppe, citizen and merchant-tailor of London, of the 2nd part; the Dean and Chapter of Lichfield in co. Stafford, of the 3rd part, and the bailiffs and community (comitatem) of the town of Thomworthe (Tamworth) in the counties of Warwick and Stafford of the 4th part, granted to the said John Toppe all that messuage in Wattlingstreate in the said parish of All Saints, Breadstreate, commonly called the sygne of the Rame, and all that capital mansion or messuage with a garden and orchard situate at Corbetstye in the parish of Upmister in co. Essex, and 1 other messuage called Ryseleys in Upmister: to hold to the said John Toppe and his heirs immediately after the death of the said Henry and Agnes, to the intent to perform and keep all the covenants and agreements in the said indentures specified for ever.

After the death of the said Henry Suckley the said Agnes by deed dated 20th October, in the said year, confirmed to the said John Toppe all the said premises.

The said 4 messuages lying in Gyltspurstreate are held of the Queen in free burgage and common socage by fealty only and not in chief, and are worth per annum, clear, £10. The said 3 messuages in the said parish of St. Mary Magdalen and the tenement called the Saryzen Heed are held of the Queen in free burgage, and are worth per annum, clear, £13. The messuage called the Rame is held of the heirs of Augustine Hynde in socage and by the yearly rent of 6s. 8d., and is worth per annum, clear, £5. The messuage in the tenure of William Hychecock is held of the Archbishop of Canterbury in socage and by the yearly rent of 2s., and is worth per annum, clear, £4.

Henry Suckley died 31st July last past; Henry Browne son of Edward Browne late of London, merchant-tailor, is his kiasman and next heir, and is now aged 24 years and more.

The said Agnes Suckley still survives.

Robert Carter.

Inquisition taken at the Guildhall, 17th October, 6 Eliz. [1563], before John White, knight, mayor and escheator, after the death of Robert Carter of London, fishmonger, by the oath of John Hadden,

William Gybbons, Richard Henman, Henry Sutton, Stephen Walden, Henry Calice, William Smythe, Thomas Dewxill, Robert Langwyth, Richard Smythe, John Wytton, John Noble, Michael Smyth, Robert Dyconson, Robert Crippes and John Wilson, who say that

Robert Carter was seised in fee tail to him and the heirs male of his body begotten, the remainder thereof for default to Joan his wife, with remainder to Richard Carter and his heirs male of all that messuage called the Whyte Lyon, late in the tenure of William Hamcottes, and now in that of Joan Carter, lately divided into 3 messuages, and sometime belonging to the late Priory of the Blessed Mary Overy in co. Surrey, now dissolved, situate in the parish of St. Magnus within the City of London near the bridge of the said City, between the gate called Oystergate on the east and another tenement of the said late Priory, wherein Robert Hardington dwells, on the west; all that messuage in the said parish of St. Magnus late in the tenure of Christopher Bussher, and now in that of John Kelynge, fishmonger, also belonging to the said late Priory.

The said Robert Carter being so seised, in the Court of Hustings upon a plea of land held at the Guildhall on Monday next before the feast of St. Dunstan the Bishop, 5 Eliz. [1563], John Marshall and William Tofte, citizens and fishmongers of London, by virtue of a writ de "reċi pateñ" directed to the Mayor of London recovered the said messuage called the White Lyon by the name of 3 messuages and 2 wharfs in the parish of St. Magnus the Martyr: which said recovery was had to the use of the said Robert Carter, and Joan Byrche, daughter of Nicholas Byrche, whom the said Robert afterwards married, for their natural lives; and after their decease, to the use of Thomas Carter, son and heir apparent of the said Robert, and his heirs male; and for default, to the use of the right heirs of the said Robert Carter for ever, as by the deed indented made between the said Robert on the one part and the said John Marshall and William Tofte of the other part, dated 8th January, 5 Eliz. [1563] more fully appears.

The said Robert Carter made his will 8th November, 1563, and thereby bequeathed his said tenements called the White Lion and the Christopher to Joan his wife, out of which said tenements Margaret, now the wife of [piece of document torn right away all down the right hand side]. . . . Levers has a yearly rent of £10 for her life; to wit, £6 from the Whyte Lyon and £4 from the Christopher, to hold the said tenement called the Christopher to the said Joan and her heirs for ever; if she die without heirs, the same to remain to the heirs of William Grene and Elizabeth his wife. And to hold the tenement called the White Lion to the said Joan for her life; after her decease, the same to remain wholly to Richard Carter, son of Walter Carter and his heirs male.

After the death of the said Robert Carter, the Queen by Letters Patent dated at Hertford Castle, 8th March, in the 6th year of her reign, gave licence to the said Joan to hold the said tenement called the Christopher to her and her heirs for ever, and on the 9th March in the said year pardoned the trespass committed by the said Joan by entering the said premises without her Majesty's licence.

All the said premises are held of the Queen in chief by the service of the 40th part of a knight's fee, and by the yearly payment of 12s. for the premises in the tenure of William Hamcottes and 10s. 8d. for those in the tenure of Christopher Bussher, and are worth per annum, clear, 13s. 4d.

Robert Carter died 11th November, 5 Eliz. [1563], Alice Jervys, wife of—Jervys, Joan Barker wife of John Barker, Anne Hodgis wife of Roger Hodgis and Elizabeth Grene, wife of William Grene are his sisters and coheirs; all of whom are aged 22 years and more.

Owen Clune was seised of 20 messuages, 2 tofts and 1 rood of land, in the several tenures of Thomas Grene, Agnes his wife, John Nele, Edward Norreys, John Wilson, Roger Yonge, Anne Towlarge, William Smythe, Robert Maryner, Richard Cooke, George Rychardes, Richard Fancer, John Squier, Angell Mathewe, Roger Medcalffe, William Roberttes, Thomas Lyster, Thomas Kylbye and Elizabeth his wife Henry Rolff alias Roffe, Jasper Rolff alias Roffe, Thomas Ede, Andrew Benbury, Simon Lawlesse, Henry Kyng,—Poulter, Richard Semper and Nicholas Mowyer; situate in the parishes of St. Andrew Hubberte and St. Margaret Patens, in Smyth Lane and Philpott Lane, London.

So seised, the said Owen Clune made his will 22nd August, 1563, as follows: [here given in English]. I give to Agnes my wife all my houses and lands in South Wokingdon, co. Essex, to hold to her and her heirs for ever; also the profits of all other my lands and tenements both free and copy within the City of London or elsewhere for her life, she making all the necessary repairs, on condition that she pay to Margaret Ashlen her mother, yearly, £16. If the said Agnes die before her said mother, then I leave all my said lands to Beatrice my daughter and heir, and to her heirs, she to pay to the said Margaret Ashlen yearly £32. If the said Beatrice die without issue or before the said Agnes and Margaret, then immediately after the death of the said Agnes and Margaret the Master and Wardens of my company [sic] to enter into all my lands and tenements in the parishes of St. Andrew Hubberte, St. Margaret Pattentes and St. Mary at Hill, near little Estchep, and sell the same for the largest amount possible, and the money therefrom arising to be put into the hands of 10 young men of the said company, having most need thereof, who shall enjoy the same for 5 years, after which time other 10 young men shall enjoy it, and so on from time to time for ever. I also will that £5 out of every £100 shall be given to the poorest householders in the said company.

All the said premises in London are held of the Queen in free burgage, and not in chief, and are worth per annum, clear, £50 8s.

The said Beatrice died 18th September, 5 Eliz. [1563].

The said Owen Clune died 2nd September, 5 Eliz. [1563]; Anna Sheperde wife of John Sheperde is his sister and next heir and is now aged 40 years and more.

The said Agnes late the wife of the said Owen and the said Margaret Ashelen still survive.

gardens, etc., situate in the parish of St. Mary Wolchurch-hawe in the City of London, in the several tenures of Humphrey Fayrefax, William Page, Richard Carter, John Dyssell, William Powell, Peter Danes and Peter Forman; 3 parts of one messuage (in 4 parts to be divided) in the street called Temstrete in the parish of St. Michaels in Croked Lane, in the tenure of Robert Wood; 1 other messuage in the parish of St. Christopher, in the tenure of Thomas Basforde; 4 messuages situate in the street called Lumbardes Strete, in the several tenures of Roland Oker, Humphrey Haies, Alexander Perpoynt and Thomas Wattes; 1 messuage in the street or place called Berebynder Lane, in the tenure of Thomas de Federigo and Bartholomew de Federigo; 4 other tenements in the said Berebynder Lane, in the several tenures of John Spenser, Christopher Vaughan, Margaret Lion and William Brice; and 1 other messuage there, extending into another street there called St. Swithens Lane, in the tenure of Thomas Willson.

So seized the said George Basforde made his will 16th October, 6 Eliz. [1564] as follows: [here given in English]

I give to my mother Katherine Case an annuity of £20, issuing out of my houses, lands, etc., in the parishes of St. Mary Wolchurch Hawe and St. Mary Wolnoth.

As touching all my freehold houses, lands, tenements, rents, etc., in cos. Essex and Middlesex, in the City of London or elsewhere, I will that Ursula my wife shall have in full recompense of her dower all that my great mansion house wherein I now dwell with the garden thereunto belonging, lately bought of John Dormer, in the parish of St. Lawrence in the Old Jewry, except the houses thereto adjoining wherein Lawrence Garrat, Ralph Williamone, armorer, and Robert Scarborowe dwell; also my mansion houses, with the orchards, and gardens, lying in Hackney, in co. Middlesex, which I lately bought of Francis Bertye, gent. and his wife: to hold the same for her natural life, she keeping the said houses in good and sufficient repair; and immediately after the decease of the said Ursula I give my said mansion house wherein I now dwell, except as before excepted, to George Basforde my son and his heirs for ever. The said premises in Hackney shall directly after the death of my said wife remain to Rouland Basforde my son and his heirs for ever. I also give to the said Rouland the said three tenements above excepted; also a parcel of meadow ground containing 16 acres, lying in Walthamstowe marsh in the parish of Layton, co. Essex, which I purchased of Mr. Sharington, gent., to hold to him and his heirs for ever.

Whereas my brother Thomas Basforde, grocer, lives in a house in the parish of St. Christopher besides the Stockes, London, belonging to me, as my tenant at will: my will is that the said Thomas shall enjoy the same in "as large manner and forme" as he now does, from the day of my death for the term of 30 years, he paying yearly to my said son George £3 6s. 8d. for the same, and keeping the same in good repair.

All the said premises are held of the Queen in free burgage by fealty only: the premises bequeathed to the said Ursula Basforde, Rouland Basforde and Thomas Basforde are worth per annum, clear, £16, and the residue thereof £74 14s.

George Basforde died 20th January last past; George Basforde is his son and next heir, and was aged 10 years on the 14th day of May last past.

The said Katherine Case, Ursula Basforde, Rouland Basforde and Thomas Basforde still survive in the City of London.

Rowland Shakerley, esquire.

Inquisition taken at the Guildhall, 23rd May, 7 Eliz. [1565], before Richard Malorye, knight, mayor, after the death of Rowland Shakerley, esq., by the oath of John Haddon, William Gibbons, Richard Henman, Henry Sutton, Stephen Walden, Henry Callys, Henry Shawe, William Smythe, John Wytton, John Noble, Michael Smythe, Robert Crippes, Richard Cowper, John Wilson, Arthur Raynescrofter and Walter Browne, who say that,

Rowland Shakerley was seised of the manor of Aynhoo in co. Northampton and divers other messuages, lands, tenements, mills, woods, rents, etc., in Aynhoo.

So seised, the said Rowland by charter dated 10th July, 3 Edward VI. [1549] granted all the said premises to Alan Horde, George Wryght, James Foskyn and Francis Shakerley, gentlemen: to hold to them and their heirs to the use of the said Rowland Shakerley and Anne then his wife, during the life of the said Anne and for her jointure; and after her decease, to the use of the said Rowland and his heirs for ever.

The said Rowland was likewise seised of the manor of Cawver alias Calver in co. Derby, the 4th part of the manor of Sowldron in co. Oxon, 1 tenement in Westchepe in the City of London, commonly called the Vnycorne, now in the several tenures of Thomas Thyckyns and George Allein, and 1 other tenement in St. Pancras parish in the said City of London, in the tenure of Ambrose Nicholas.

So seised, the said Rowland made his will the 9th day of March, 7 Eliz. [1565], in these words: I give to Rowland Shakerley, son and heir of Rauffe Shakerley, my son, and to his heirs male, my manor of Aynhoo. at his age of 21 years; and for default of heirs male, I will that the said manor shall come to Elizabeth Nicholas, Katherine Longe, Cristian Hardinge, Alice Love and Mary Shakerley, my daughters, and to their heirs for ever. If Anne my wife die before the said Rowland shall accomplish his said age of 21, she shall by deed or by her will appoint who shall occupy the said manor until he attain his full age.

I give to the said Anne and her heirs for ever 2 parts of my manor of Calver in co. Derby, 2 parts of my tenement in Westchepe, London, all my house in the parish of St. Pancras, London, and my 4th part of the manor of Souldron in co. Oxford.

The manor of Aynhoo and other the premises there are held of Edward, Earl of Derby as of his hundred of Kingsutton by the yearly rent of 6s. 8d., and are worth per annum, clear, £49. The manor of Calver is held of the Queen in chief by the service of part of a knight's fee and by the yearly rent of 17s. 9½d. in the name of tithe, and is worth per annum, clear, £12 6s. The said tenement of St. Pancras is held of the Queen by fealty only in free burgage, and is worth per annum, clear, £10. The said 4th part of the manor of Souldron is held of the Queen as of her hundred of Pawghley in socage by fealty only and by the yearly rent of 20d., and is worth per annum, clear, £9. The said tenement in Westchepe called the Unicorne is held of the Queen in chief by the service of part of a knight's fee and by the yearly rent of 12s. by the name of tithe, and is worth per annum, clear, £22 6s. 8d.

Rowland Shakerley died 9th March, 7 Eliz. [1565]; Roland Shakerley is his kinsman and next heir, to wit, son of Kalph son of Rowland, and was then aged 1 year, 6 months, 3 weeks and 1 day.

John Lowen.

Inquisition taken at the Guildhall, 27th October, 7 Eliz. [1665], before Richard Malorie, knight, mayor and escheator, after the death of John Lowen, citizen and clothier (pannar), of London, by the oath of Thomas Litton, Richard Henman, Henry Sutton, Stephen Walden, William Smythe, Thomas Dexwill, Robert Langwythe, Richard Smythe, John Witton, John Noble, Michael Smythe, Robert

Dickenson, Robert Cripps, Richard Couper, and John Wilson, who say that

John Lowen was seised of 1 messuage or tenement with all the shops, solars, cellars, etc., situate in the parish of St. Edmund in Lombard Street, London, in the tenure of the said John Lowen; 12 gardens, then in the several tenures of John Bell, John Perenson, Dominic Doriall, John Revell, Philip Warton, James Stevens, John Lane, Richard Lloid, Richard Lord, Richard Burgon, John Noble and John Swanne, lying in Bell Alley in the parish of St. Botolphs, without Bishopsgate, London, 1 messuage called the Key with all the shops, yards, etc., thereto belonging, in the tenure of Thomas Dey and Margaret his wife, lying in Birchinlane in the said parish of St. Edmund; 1 waste or piece of land called the Churchyard of the parish Church of St. Edmund in Lombardstreet, in the said parish of St. Edmund; 1 messuage with shops, rooms, entries alleys, etc., in the tenure of William Arrowsmith, citizen and clothier of London, lying in Birchinlane in the said parish of St. Edmund; 1 house called the Warehouse, in the tenure of the said John Lowen, in Birchinlane in the said parish; also one entry to the said Warehouse, containing in breadth 5 feet 3 inches of assize, and in length 33 feet and 5 inches in Birchinlane; 5 messuages with shops, gardens, etc, in Shoe Alley alias Shoe Lane in the parish of St. Bridget in Fleetstreet in the suburbs of London, then in the several tenures of Thomas Barker, cook, William Smyth, glover, William Skardall, labourer, Margerie Wodam, widow, and John Pierson, clothworker, and afterwards in the tenures of Thomas Lewis, gent., John Rogers, smith, William Wackefield and Robert Robertson; and 1 messuage in the tenure of John Maxefilde situate in the parish of St. Leonards in Estchepe, London, sometime given for the sustentation of a priest yearly celebrating divine service in the said Church of St. Leonard.

So seised, the said John Lowen made his will 10th October, 1557, whereby he bequeathed as follows:

I give to Joan my wife for her life all my tenements and gardens in Shoelane in the said parish of St. Brides, Fleetstreet which I bought of one — Warren.

I give all my lands, tenements and hereditaments in Cheston called St. Johns in co. Hertford, and in Conffley in the parish of Northall in co. Hertford to John Lowen my son and his heirs for ever.

I give my house in Birchinlane, wherein Thomas Dey lives, the Churchyard of St. Edmunds, my house in Birchinlane in the tenure of William Arrowsmith, my warehouse thereto adjoining and all my gardens in Bell Alley to my son Thomas Lowen and to his heirs for ever.

I bequeath my house in Birchinlane which I now occupy, all my houses in Bermundesey street called the Bell Alley, in co. Surrey, and the reversion of all my tenements and gardens in Shoe lane after the death of the said Joan my wife, to my son George Lowen and his heirs for ever.

I will that my said wife have the rents and profits of my said lands and tenements during her widowhood, and no longer, she paying the rents and keeping the same in repair.

All the said premises are held of the Queen in free burgage, and not in chief, and are worth per annum, clear, £34 6s. 8d.

John Lowen died 31st August, 1 Eliz. [1559]; John Lowen citizen and clothier of London is his son and next heir, and is now aged 24 years and more.

The said Joan, late the wife of the said John Lowen, the father, still survives.

Sir John Deane, clerk.

Inquisition taken at the Guildhall, 26 October, 8 Eliz. [1566], before Richard Champion, knight, mayor and escheator, after the death of Sir John Deane, clerk, by the oath of Thomas Lytton, John Hadden, William Gibbons, Richard Henman, Henry Sutton, John Wilton, Stephen Walden, Henry Callys, Henry Shawe, William Smith, Robert Langwith, John Noble, Michael Smith, Robert Dickenson, Richard Cowper, Arthur Reevescroft, Walter Browne, John Harrison, Anthony Garret and William Capper, who say that

Sir John Dean was seised of 1 messuage and 1 stable thereto adjoining, sometime in the tenure of Emery Sheffield situate in the parish of St. Botolph without Aldersgate, London, being late parcel of the possessions of the monastery of St. Bartholomew next West Smithfield, London, now dissolved; 3 messuages in the tenure of William Garter, in the said parish of St. Bartholomew, sometime belonging to the said late monastery: which said premises are now divided into 2 tenements, one whereof is called the Halfmoon, now in the tenure of John Heyward; 2 other messuages, in the tenures of John Redshaw, Richard Maldring and William Hawte situate in Aldersgate street, and late of the said late monastery; and 2 other messuages in the tenure of Richard

Warren in the said parish of St. Botolph, sometime belonging to the late priory of Hundeslowe in co. Middlesex.

So seised, the said John Deane made his will, 6 April, 1563, and thereby bequeathed the said premises as follows:—

Also I give to my tenant Bryan Storke and Alice his wife my tenement called the Halfmoon with the parlour, chambers and shops thereto adjoining in the said parish of St. Botolph: to hold to the said Bryan and Alice and their heirs on condition that they keep and bring up one Gilbert Hobson until he be of the age of 24, and shall then pay to him £23 in discharge of an obligation wherein I stand bound to the said Bryan, and shall also yearly distribute 10s. in coals, wood or money amongst the poor householders in the said parish of St. Bartholomew the Great on Christmas Eve for ever.

I give to my godson John Sudlow, son of Thomas Sudlow, deceased, all that part of the said house which I lately occupied as it is now divided from the other part above* by me devised to the said John Sudlow my cousin, set in the said parish of St. Botolph now in the occupation of Pygott Rouse, Frenchman, together with 5 cottages in Long lane, adjoining the said house: to hold to him and his heirs male.

I bequeath to Richard Lambe son of John Lambe all my tenements called Petywales, set in the said parish of St. Bartholomew the Great, now in the several tenures of me the said John Deane, Augustine Turner, Rowland Belmer, Frenchman, William Anger, Frenchman, Mother Michell, widow, and Thomas Collyns; and the 2 tenements south-west of the said Halfmoon in the said parish of St. Botolph in the tenures of Nicolles and Pulford: to hold to the said Richard Lambe and his heirs; and for default, the remainder to Ellen Okey his sister and to her heirs.

The said messuages in the tenure of John Heyward in the said parish of St. Botolph are held of the Queen in free burgage and not in chief, and are worth per annum, clear, 48s. The said messuages in the tenures of John Redshaw, Richard Malaring and William Hawte are held of the Queen in free burgage and not in chief, and are worth per annum, clear, 20s. The said messuages in the tenure of Richard Warren are held of the Queen in free burgage and not in chief, and are worth per annum, clear, 30s.

John Deane died 13 October, 1563; John Deane is his kinsman and next heir, to wit son of Richard Deane, brother of the said John Deane, and was then aged 21 years and more.

Chan. Inq. p. m., 8 Eliz., part 1, No. 79.

* This part of the will is not recited: the first bequest begins Also.

Ralph Davenant.

Inquisition taken at the Guildhall, 6 March, 1565, before Richard Champion, knight, mayor and escheator, after the death of Ralph Davenant, citizen and merchant-tailor of London, by the oath of Thomas Litton, John Haddon, William Gybbons, Richard Henman, Henry Sutton, Stephen Waldon, Henry Callys, Henry Shaw, Thomas Dewxell, Robert Langwith, Richard Smith, John Wilton, John Noble, Michael Smyth, Robert Dickenson, Robert Cripps, Richard Cowper, John Wilson, Walter Browne, John Harryson and Anthony Garret, who say that Ralph Davenant was seised of 1 messuage called the Signe of the Bell, and 1 garden thereto belonging sometime in the tenure of William Page of London, clothworker, situate in the parish of St. Giles without Cripplegate, London, and lately belonging to the parish Church of All Saints in Brodestreet, London; 2 messuages to the said messuage adjacent, sometime in the tenure of the said William Page, situate in said parish of St. Giles; 4 messuages lately demised to John Richemond and now in the tenure of John Pygott, situate in More Lane in the said parish of St. Giles, late parcel of the possessions of the late Chapel of All Saints, Barking; 1 cottage, and 1 Teynter yard lately demised to Robert Smyth, and now in the tenure of Nicholas Lacye and Walter Porter, situate in More Lane in the said parish of St. Giles, lately belonging to the said Chapel of All Saints, Barking: which said premises King Edward VI by Letters Patent dated at Wansteden, 25 August in the 2nd year of his reign [1548] granted inter alia to Thomas Wylkes of London, haberdasher, merchant of the Staple of the town of Calais and Thomas Athyns of London, gent., and their heirs; 1 messuage called the Pye in the Royall, London, situate in the parish of St. Michael called the Pater Noster Church near the Royall, now or late in the tenure of Ralph Walton, and sometime belonging to the late Priory of Elsing Spittle: which said premises last mentioned King Henry VIII by Letters Patent dated at Eltham 29 September in the 36th year of his reign [1544] granted inter alia to Henry Audle and John Cordall and their heirs for ever.

The messuage called the Signe of the Bell, the 2 messuages thereto adjacent, the 4 messuages in More Lane, and the cottage and Teynter Yard in the said parish of St. Giles without Cripplegate are held of the Queen by fealty only in free burgage and not in chief, and are worth per annum, clear, £7 16s. 8d. The tenement called the Pye in Royall is held of the Queen in free and common socage, and is worth per annum, clear, £4.

Ralph Davenant died 10 December, 1552; John Davenant is his son and next heir, and is now aged 26 years and more.

Chan. Inq. p. m., 8 Eliz., part 1, No. 80.

Richard Goldston, salter.

Inquisition taken at the Guildhall, 7 June, 1566, before Richard Champyon, knight, mayor and escheator, after the death of Richard Goldston of London, salter, by the oath of Thomas Litton, Richard Henman, Henry Sutton, Stephen Walden, Henry Shawe, William Smyth, Thomas Dewxell, John Noble, Michael Smyth, Robert Dickenson, Walter Browne and John Harrison, who say that Richard Goldston was seised of 2 messuages and 1 garden situate in the parish of St. Margaret Paten in the ward of the Tower of London, now in the tenure of James Bacon, citizen of London, and all the shops, cellars, solars, etc., etc., thereto belonging.

So seised, the said Richard made his will 22 February, 1564, and thereby bequeathed as follows: whereas I have 1 messuage with a garden in the parish of St. Margaret Patens of London, now in the tenure of John Broxolme, my brother-in-law, and 1 small tenement thereto adjoining, my "very mind" is that the said premises shall remain to my son Richard Goldston and his heirs at his age of 21, and until that time I will that all the profits from the said premises arising shall remain amongst all my children equally and indifferently. If my said son Richard die without heirs, then the said messuage, etc., shall remain to the eldest of my daughters and her heirs, on condition that she divide the rent thereof equally between herself and her sisters. If all my children die without heirs, I will that the said premises shall remain to the Masters and Governors of St. Thomas's Hospital in Southwark for ever, to the use of the poor people and to the honor of God.

The 2 messuages in the said parish of St. Margaret Patens are held of the Queen by the free service of 1*d.* per annum, and are worth per annum, clear, £5.

Richard Goldston died 22 May, 7 Elizabeth [1565]; Richard Goldston is his son and next heir, and is now aged 6 years and more.

Edward Keacher (or Ketcher), pewterer.

Inquisition taken at the Guildhall, 6 March, 1565, before Richard Champion, knight, mayor and escheator, after the death of Edward Ketcher, late of London, pewterer, by the oath of Thomas Lyttone, John Haddon, William Gybbons, Richard Henman, Henry Sutton, Stephen Waldon, Henry Callys, Henry Shaw, Thomas Dewxell, Robert Langwith, Richard . . ., John Wilton, John Noble, Michael Smithe, Robert Dickenson, Robert Cripps, Richard Cowper, John Wilson, Walter Browne, John Harrison and Anthony Garret who say that Edward Ketcher was seised of 4 messuages in the parish of St. Peter le Poore, London, to wit, [abutting] upon the tenement now in the tenure of Thomas Avey, gent., on the north, the school of St. Anthony there on the south, the highway on the west and upon the yard of the messuage or place of Thomas Leighe on the east, sometime belonging to the late Monastery of St. Albans in co. Hertford, now dissolved, in the several tenures of John Ketcher, Thomas Wyse, Hugh Bendeley and Thomas Cartwright, which said premises the said Edward Keacher purchased of the said Thomas Leighe, and which King Henry VIII by Letters Patent dated 24 September in the 36th year of his reign [1544] granted inter alia to John Wrothe and his heirs, 1 messuage called the Checker late in the tenure of John Ryckford and Margaret his wife, situate in the parish of St. Peter le Poore in the ward of Broade street, London, purchased by the said Edward Keacher of John Fisher of London: which said premises King Henry VIII by Letters Patent dated 26 September in the 36th year of his reign granted inter alia to Thomas Bocher and his heirs.

Edward Keacher made his will dated 1 December, 1562, and thereby bequeathed as follows: Item I give to my sister Agnes Borne a yearly rent of 20s. to be levied out of the said messuages in the said parish of St. Peter le Poore.

I give to the Master and Wardens of the company of the Pewterers of London a yearly rent of 30s. to be levied out of the said 4 messuages:

to hold to them and their successors for ever immediately after the death of the said Agnes, to the intent that they pay yearly for ever to 5 poor men being "free of the said company" 20s.: the other 10s. the said Master and Wardens shall have for ever towards the "keping of their quarter dynners to be made at their comon hall upon their quarter days," on condition that they "call and will" the said 5 poor men to every one of the said quarter dinners.

I "legate" to my son John Ketcher all my lands called Cokes land meade lying within the lordship and manors of Mr: Dodes called Welletes, and my house called Richardes held of the Lord Wyndesore with all the lands thereto belonging lying "togethers" in the parish of South Mynes.

I will that Elizabeth my wife have the third part of the profits of the said lands and tenements during her natural life.

I give my said 4 tenements in the said parish of St. Peters the Poore to the said Elizabeth my wife and John my son: to hold for the natural life of the said Elizabeth; after her decease, I give the same to the said John and his heirs male; for default, the remainder thereof to William Ketcher my second son and his heirs male; for default, to Thomas Ketcher my third son and his heirs male; for default, to Edward Ketcher my fourth son and his heirs male; for default, to Richard Ketcher my sister's son and his heirs male. If all my said sons die without issue male, then the said premises to remain to my right heirs for ever.

So seised, the said Sir Roger made his will [date not given] as follows: whereas all my manors, lands, etc., whereof I am this day seised extend to the clear yearly value of £300, I leave to my heir all my manors, lands, etc., in Walworth and Newington or elsewhere in co. Surrey, all my messuages, lands, etc., lying within the City of London, in the several tenures of Richard Grandige, Robert Hogeson, Edmund Burton, Thomas Daulton and John Maskall; 1 tenement or farm lying at Shottuppe Hill in the parish of Hampstead in co. Middlesex, in the tenure of Robert Worth; my manors of Esthamburnells and Westhamburnells; my manors of Est Westham and Plays in co. Essex; and all my marsh grounds in co. Essex in the tenure of Clement Seysley, esq.: which said premises amount to a full third part of all my said manors, etc.

I give to my daughter Dame Elizabeth Bekwith, late the wife of Sir Leonard Bekwith, knight, deceased, all my lands, tenements and hereditaments at Argeston alias Hurlestor in the parish of St. Leonards, Shoreditch, in co. Middlesex, with all the household stuff there contained in an inventory and "letten" to Paul Pope; all my messuages, lands, etc., called Abrams in the parish of Orsett in co. Essex; and all my messuages, lands, etc., in Estham in co. Essex, in the occupation of John Lacye of London, clothworker: to hold to the said Dame Elizabeth for her natural life if she be not at any time hereafter proved by the ecclesiastical laws of this realm to be the wife of Christopher Kenn, esq.; if it be proved, then I will that all the said premises shall remain in the custody of Sir William Cordell, knight, Master of the Rolls, Sir Edward Saunders, knight, Lord Chief Baron of the Exchequer, Sir William Garrard, knight, Alderman of the City of London and Roger Carewe, esq., whom of special trust I have named to receive the profits thereof and to employ the same to her use during the said marriage. If any of the said profits remain unemployed at the death of my said daughter, the said feoffees shall bestow them upon her children. After her decease I give the said premises to Roger Bekwith, esq., son and heir apparent of my said daughter: to hold to him and his heirs for ever.

I also give to the said Roger and his heirs for ever all my messuages, lands, etc. called the Marrys in co. York, and all other my lands in the said county.

I devise to George Harvie, gent., and Frances his wife all my lands and marsh grounds in Estham and Wolwyche in cos. Essex and Kent, now in the tenure of Robert Pecke, of London, butcher; to hold to them and to the heirs of the said Frances by the said George; and for default, to the use of my right heirs for ever.

I will to my son-in-law Sir Thomas Russell, knight, all my freehold and copyhold lands, tenements and hereditaments in Nether Holloway within the parish of Yseldon in co. Middlesex, in the several tenures of Thomas Hubbot and Clement Rigges; my manor of Holmehall in Stoguy in co. Cambridge, and all other my lands in Stoguy, Dytton, Fendytton, Fulburne or elsewhere in co. Cambridge; all my lands and marshgrounds containing about 32 acres, and all other my lands in the parish of Wolwyche late in the tenure of Robert Crowley, gent., and now in that of Robert Stepnethe, gent.: to hold to the said Sir Thomas for 8 years next after my decease; after the said term has expired, I will that all the said premises shall remain to John Russell, son and heir apparent of the said Sir Thomas by Dame Frances, his wife, deceased, one of my daughters and heirs: to hold to the said John Russell and his heirs for ever.

I give to Sir William Cordell, knight, William Rcooper, Christopher Wraye and John Baryer, esquires, all that my messuage in the parish of Christchurch in Newgate Market, in the tenure of Lawrence Shiryffe, grocer; to hold to them and their heirs for ever towards the purchase of Lincoln's Inn in co. Middlesex, and in the "meane season," towards the repairs of the same; or else I give to them to the "behouffe" of Lincoln's Inn as much money as the said house shall be sold for if I sell the same in my lifetime.

To my servant and clerk Jasper Cholmeley, I give my manor or farm called Renters lying in Hendon in co. Middlesex, in the occupation of Michael Huddell, and also all other my lands, etc., in Hendon aforesaid: to hold to him and his heirs for ever.

The messuage in the parish of St. Martin near Ludgate is held of the Queen in chief by knight's service, to wit, by the 20th part of a knight's fee, and is worth per annum, clear, £4 12s. 0d. Of whom the said messuage in the said parish in the tenure of Robert Hogeson, is held the jurors know not, it is worth per annum, clear, £3 6s. 4d. Of whom the messuage in the parish of St. Martin Orgar is held is not known; it is worth per annum, clear, £5 6s. 4d. The 2 messuages in the parish of St. Peter, Cornhill, are worth per annum, clear, £12: of whom held is not known. The messuage in Newgate Market is worth per annum, clear, £5 6s. 8d., but of whom held the jurors know not.

Sir Roger Cholmeley died 21 June, last past; Dame Elizabeth Bekwyth, sometime the wife of Leonard Bekwyth, knight, deceased, and now the wife of Christopher Kenn, esq., and John Russell, esq., son of Thomas Russell, knight, and of Dame Frances, late his wife are his coheirs; to wit, the said Dame Elizabeth, as daughter and one of the coheirs of the said Sir Roger, and the said John Russell, as the kinsman and other coheir of the said Sir Roger, to wit, son of the said Sir Thomas Russell, knight, and Dame Frances the other daughter of the said Sir Roger. The said Dame Elizabeth is now aged 44 years and more, and the said John Russell 14 years, 2 months and 16 days.

So seised, the said Robert Southwicke made his will the 10th day of March, 1552, and thereby bequeathed as follows:—

I give to Elizabeth my wife the tenement wherein I now dwell lying in litle Eashepp in the said parish of St. Leonards: to hold for her natural life, she keeping the same in good repair; after her decease, I give the same to my daughter Ellen Southwicke and her heirs; for default, to my child or children unborn and the heirs of such child or children; and for default, to my right heirs for ever.

I give my corner tenement wherein Thomas Dane, butcher, lately dwelt, "selt and being" at the corner of the lane called Retherheth Lane alias Podding Lane in the said parish of St. Leonard to my child or children unborn, and to the heirs of such child or children; for default, the same shall come to the said Ellen my daughter and her heirs; for default, to the said [sic] Agnes Prince [the whole will is not given and this Agnes has not been mentioned before], and to her heirs; for default, to my right heirs for ever.

The said 3 messuages are held of the Queen in free burgage and not in chief, and are worth per annum, clear, £14 10s.

Robert Southwicke died 15 March, 7 Edw. VI [1553]; Helen Ketcher now the wife of John Ketcher of London, pewterer, is his daughter and next heir, and is now aged 20 years and more.

Henry Clitheroe.

Inquisition taken at the Guildhall, 11 March, 1566, before Christopher Draper, knight, mayor and escheator, after the death of Henry Clitheroe, by the oath of Thomas Litton, John Haddon, Richard Henman, Henry Sutton, Stephen Waldon, John Wilton, Michael Smith, Henry Callis, Robert Cripps, Henry Shaw, William Smith, John Nobble, Robert Langwith, Arthur Reynscrofte, Robert Dickinson, John Harrison, Anthony Gar . . . who say that

Henry Clitheroe was seised of all that tenement in the parish of St. Christopher, London, now or late in the tenure of Thomas Dade, sometime belonging to the House of the Augustine Friars within the City of London, lately dissolved; the tenement called the Cocke lying in the parish of St. Olave near the Tower of London in the tenure of Thomas Purcivall sometime belonging to the House of the Crutched Friars within the City of London, now dissolved; 2 tenements with a parcel of land called a yarde plotte lying in the parish of St. Dunstan in the East, in the tenure of Anthony Naples; 2 tenements in the tenure of Richard Marten situate in the parish of St. Botolph without Algate; 1 tenement without Ludgate called Skinnersshoppe; 1 tenement there is the tenure of the Master of the Bridge of London (Magistri Pontis London); 1 tenement there in the tenure of the Master of the Hospital of St. Bartholomew next West Smithfelde; 1 tenement there in the tenure of Ralph Simondes, Alderman of London, in the parish of the Blessed Mary Magdalene Moises, London, formerly belonging to the Priory of Horseham in co. Norfolk, now dissolved; 1 tenement with a garden in the parish of St. Anne within the City of London, late of the House of the Friars Preachers of London, then in the tenure of Doctor Heringe; 1 tenement called the Rose in the parish of St. Benedict in the Ward of Barnard Castell, in the tenure of Griffin Lewes sometime belonging to the late Monastery of St. Albans in co. Hertford now dissolved; 1 tenement in the parish of St. Botolph without Aldgate, in the tenure of William Stephens, formerly belonging to the Monastery of Grace next the Tower of London, now dissolved; 1 tenement in the parish of St. Giles without Creplegate, in the tenure of Margaret Roo, widow, sometime belonging to the late House or Priory of Halliwell near London, now dissolved; 2 tenements in the parish of St. Sepulchre without Newgate, London, in the tenure of Henry Garnsei; 1 tenement in the said parish of St. Sepulchre in the tenure of Thomas Bisshoppe; 1 tenement there in the tenure of Geoffrey Hudson; and 1 tenement there in the tenure of Anthony Turnboll: all which said premises King Henry VIII by Letters Patent dated 25 September in the 36th year of his reign [1544] granted inter alia to the said Henry Clitheroe and John Dogget, citizens and merchant tailors of London, and to the heirs of the said Henry for ever.

Afterwards, to wit, on the 1st day of March, 36 Henry VIII [1545] the said John Dogget by deed dated the said day and year remised to the said Henry Clitheroe and his heirs for ever all his right and title in and to the said premises.

The said Henry Clitheroe was likewise seised of 5 messuages and tenements lying in Cornhill in the parish of the Blessed Mary of Woolchurche, in the several tenures of Philip Gunter, Christopher Vaughan, William Birdall, William Sheppard, and John Wetherell, sometime belonging to the late House of the Carthusians near London: which said premises the said Henry purchased to himself and his heirs for ever of the gift of Christopher Campion and John Rolleslie of London, as by their deed dated 7 October, 36 Henry VIII [1544], more fully appears.

The said Henry Clitheroe was likewise seised of 1 stable with 1 tenement called the Rose and 1 garden adjoining the said tenement, in the parish of St. Giles without Creplegate, in the tenure of James Maugham, sometime belonging to the late Monastery of Halliwell: which said premises the said Henry formerly had to himself and his heirs of the gift of Robert Cursson and John Pope of London, gentlemen, as by deed dated 11 November, 36 Hen. VIII, more fully appears.

So seised, the said Henry Clitheroe made his will the 13th day of July, 1545, whereby he bequeathed as follows: I give to "Seints" my wife for her life all my messuages, lands, etc., in the parish of our Lady Woolchurche, the remainder thereof, after her decease, to Henry, Thomas and Robert Clitheroe my sons and their heirs for ever. All my other messuages, etc, in the City of London and the suburbs thereof to my said 3 sons and their heirs for ever: the same to be divided into 3 parts by my uncle Robert Draper and by George Forman, citizen and skinner of London, and John Maxfelde, citizen and merchant-tailor of London, and assigned by them to my said children. If all my sons and daughters die without issue I give the said premises to John Dogget son of my brother John Dogget, and to his heirs; for default, the remainder thereof to the heirs of William Draper and Christopher Draper my brothers and John Maxfelde for ever.

All the said premises granted by King Henry VIII to the said Henry Clitheroe and John Dogget are held of the Queen by fealty only, and are worth per annum, clear, £18 8s. The premises in Cornhill purchased of Christopher Campian and John Rollesley are held of the Queen in free burgage and common socage, by fealty only and not in chief, and are worth per annum, clear, £12 13s. 4d. The said premises in the parish of St. Giles purchased of Robert Curson and John Pope are held of the Queen in free burgage by fealty only and not in chief, and are worth per annum, clear, 43s. 8d.

Henry Clitheroe died in the said parish of the Blessed Mary Wolchurche, 16 July, 37 Hen. VIII [1545]; the said Robert Clitheroe was his son and next heir and was then aged 6 years and more.

The said Robert jointly with the said Thomas and Henry, by deed dated 27 August, 1 Eliz. [1559], demised to Saint (Sancie) his mother all his part of all the said premises which he had of the gift of the said Henry Clitheroe his father: by virtue whereof she is thereof seised in common and as undivided (pro indiviso) with the said Thomas and Henry.

Chan. Inq. p. m., 9 Eliz., part 1, No. 69.

William Kendall.

Inquisition taken at the Guildhall, 16 July, 1567, before Christopher Draper, knight, mayor and escheator, after the death of William Kendall, citizen and waxchandler, by the oath of Thomas Litton, John Haddon, Richard Henman, Henry Sutton, Stephen Walden, John Witton, Michael Smith, Henry Callis, Robert Cryppes, Henry Shawe, William Smyth, John Noble, Robert Langwith, Arthur Raynescrofte, Richard Smyth, Robert Dyckenson, John Harryson, Adam Chatterton, William Cooper and Richard Adams, who say that

William Kendall was seised of all that messuage and tenement called the Kings head, now or late in the tenure of William Danby; 2 messuages and tenements in the several tenures of John Ashley and John Petre; 2 messuages and tenements and all the house or building called a warehouse, in the several tenures of Robert Greenfield, Thomas Jennins, and Margaret Braybrooke: all which said premises are situate in the owlde Chaunge, in the parish of the Blessed Mary Magdalen in ould Fishstreat, sometime assigned for the sustentation of a priest to celebrate in the Church of the Blessed Mary, and were purchased by the said William Kendall to him and his heirs for ever of the gift of Thomas Berthellett, citizen and stationer of London, and of Richard Mody, citizen and brewer of London, as by deed dated 15 December, 2 Edw. 6 [1548], more fully appears.

So seised, the said William Kendall made his will the 31st January, 1558, and thereby bequeathed as follows: I give to William Kendall my son and his heirs all my houses and tenements in the Old Change in the parish of St. Mary Magdalens at Old Fishstreate end; for default, I will that the Master & Wardens and commonalty of the Mysterie of the Waxchaundlers shall have the said premises, on condition that they shall yearly distribute £8 as follows: to the poor inhabitants of the said parish £4 "lackinge twoe shillings," in gowns for men and women and coals, to be given them in December every year: the said 2s. to go the Churchwardens of the said parish for their "paynes takinge"; and to the poor inhabitants of Bexlie in co. Kent 38s.; to be given to them about the 3rd or 4th day of November, and 2s. to the Churchwardens there for their trouble; 35s. to the poorest men and women of the Company of Waxchandlers; 5s. to the Master Wardens of the Waxchandlers. The rest of the profits of the premises to be bestowed upon the repairs of the same. If the said Master Wardens leave undone any of these things then the "next of kinred unto me" shall enter into the said tenements and hold the same to him and his heirs for ever.

The said premises are held of the Queen in free burgage and not in chief, and are worth per annum, clear, £17.

William Kendall died 21 February, 1558, in the parish of St. Peter next Pouleswharfe, London; William Kendall was his son and heir, and was then aged 10 years and more. He died 5 November, 5 Eliz. [1563]: after his death the Master Wardens and commonalty of the Company of Waxchandlers entered into the said premises and are still seised thereof.

Chan. Inq. p. m., 9 Eliz., part 1, No. 70.

Robert Langley.

Inquisition taken at the Guildhall, 18 December, 1566, before Christopher Draper, mayor and escheator, after the death of Robert Langley, citizen and brewer of London, by the oath of Thomas Lytton, Michael Smyth, Richard Henman, Henry Sutton, Stephen Walden, Henry Callis, Robert Cryppes, Henry Shawe, William Smyth,

John Noble, Robert Langwith, Arthur Rainescroft, Richard Smyth, Robert Dicconson, John Harryson, Anthony Garrett, Adam Chaterton and William Cowper, who say that

Robert Langlie was seised of all that large ale or brewing* messuage or tenement (messuagio sive tento Bracineno) called the Crowne; and 5 messuages with cellars, sollars and other buildings then in the tenure of the said Robert and now or late in that of Thomas Thorne, late citizen and tyler of London, lying in Readcrostreat in the parish of St. Giles without Creplegate in the suburbs of London: which said premises Richard Huttoft of Barking in co. Essex, gent., and Agnes his wife by charter dated 21 May, 34 Hen. VIII [1542], gave to the said Robert Langlie.

So seised, the said Robert Langlie made his will the 11th day of December, 1565, and thereby bequeathed as follows: I give to the said [sic] Charles my son my messuage and brewhouse called the Crowne, wherein I now dwell, and all other my tenements, cottages, houses, shops, etc., etc., in the said parish of St. Giles: to hold to him and the heirs of his body; for default, I give the same to my daughter Elizabeth Langlie and her heirs; for default, to Thomas Langlie of Birckhill in co. Bucks, yeoman and his heirs: provided always that Joan my wife shall hold all the said premises and take the rents thereof for 13 years immediately after my decease, on condition that she keep the same in good repair. If my children should happen to die and the premises come to the said Thomas Langlie my will is that he and his heirs shall yearly for evermore pay out of the profits thereof to the Churchwardens of the said parish of St. Giles £3 6s. 8d. to buy wood and coal to be distributed yearly to the poor of the said parish.

The said premises are held in free burgage of the City of London, and are worth per annum, clear, £6 15s. 4d.

Robert Langlie died 19 December, 1565; Charles Langlie is his son and next heir, and was then aged 8 years and more.

After the death of the said Robert the said Joan entered into the said premises and is still thereof seised.

Chan. Inq. p. m., 9 Eliz., part 1, No. 71.

William Wakefield.

Inquisition taken at the Guildhall, 25 October, 1567, before Christopher Draper, knight, mayor and escheator, after the death of William Wakefield, citizen and waxchandler of London, by the oath of John Hadden, Richard Henman, Henry Sutton, Stephen Walden, Michael Smyth, Henry Callys, Robert Cryppes, Henry Shawe, Robert Langwith, Arthur Rainscrofte, Robert Dyckenson, Anthony Garret, Adam Chatterton, William Cowper and John Harryson, who say that Long before the death of the said William Wakefield King Henry VIII. was seised in right of his Crown of 7 tenements lying within the parish of St. Giles without Cripplegate, London, late in the several tenures of Jasper Smalpage, Nicholas Jacson, Henry Wallis, Joan Palmer, Anne Chamber, Thomas Valæ and Nicholas Erwin: which said tenements sometime belonged to the late Priory of Halliwell in co. Middlesex.

So seised, his Majesty by Letters Patent dated 25 September in the 36th year of his reign [1544], for a certain sum of money paid to his use by Henry Clitheroe and John Dogget, granted the said premises to the said Henry and John and to the heirs of the said Henry for ever: to hold of the King and his heirs by fealty only.

So seised, the said Henry Clitheroe and John Dogget by deed indented dated 13 October, 36 Hen. VIII. [1544], for a sum of money to them in hand paid by the said William Wakefield granted the said tenements to the said William and his heirs for ever.

King Henry VIII. was likewise seised in right of his said Crown of 14 messuages in the said parish of St. Giles, in the several tenures of Nicholas Blake, John Lauchin, Richard Townsend, William Catton, Elizabeth Clearke, Robert Pinner, Joan Carrowe, Patrick Hattepene, Nicholas Baddowe, Brigilt Browne, William Thorpe alias Pickeringe, Joan Badeline, Joan Aspale and Joan Barret: which said messuages sometime belonged to the said late Priory of Halliwell.

So seised, the King by Letters Patent dated 5 November, in the 36th year of his reign [1554] granted the said premises to Robert Courson and John Pope, gentlemen, and to the heirs of the said Robert for ever: to hold of his Majesty in free burgage by fealty only and not in chief.

And the said Robert Courson and John Pope by charter dated 24 November in the said year demised the said messuages to the said William Wakefield and his heirs for ever.

Thomas Godwin of London, gent., was seised of 1 messuage with a garden adjoining in the said parish of St. Giles, late in the tenure of Thomas Pollet; 1 messuage and tenement there late in the tenure of Robert Watson; 1 messuage and tenement there in the tenure of Henry Chenne; 1 messuage there late in the tenure of John Mitie; 1 messuage there late in the tenure of Robert Middias; 1 messuage and tenement there late in the tenure of James Garden; 1 messuage and tenement late in the tenure of Richard Howlet; and 2 messuages there late in the tenure of Thomas Augustin.

So seised, the said Thomas Godwin by charter dated 8 November, 36 Hen. VIII. [1544], for a certain sum of money to him in hand paid by the said William Wakefield and Joan his wife demised all the said premises to the said William and Joan and their heirs for ever.

The said William Wakefield made his will 24 February, 1 Mary [1554] and thereby bequeathed as follows:—

I will that Joan my wife shall have all my lands and tenements to her own proper use for her natural life. I will that William my son immediately after the decease of the said Joan shall have so much of my said lands and tenements lying in Soukinge (?) Lane, London, as shall amount to the yearly value of £20: to hold to him and his heirs of his body; and for default, the same to remain to his right heirs for ever. I give to Gregory Wakefield my brother, after my wife's death, 6 tenements of the yearly rent of £6 12s. now in the several tenures of Emma Night, Margery Wall, Joan Goodwerike, Humphrey Wakfield, John Dene, gardener, and . . . Benson, "frewterer," lying on the east side of Goldinge Lane: to hold to him and the heirs of his body; for default, the same to remain to his right heirs for ever.

[Here follows a long rigmarole about the laudable custom of the City of London, re alienating property, etc.] All the said premises granted to the said William Wakefield by the said Henry Clitheroe and John Doggett are held of the Queen by fealty only in free and common socage and not in chief, and are worth per annum, clear, £7 4s. 4d. The messuages demised to the said William by the said Robert Courson and John Pope are held of the Queen in free burgage by fealty only, and not in chief, and are worth per annum, clear, £14 12s. 8d. All other the premises granted by Thomas Goodwyn to the said William and Joan are held of the Queen in free socage and not in chief, as of her manor of Clarebetonwell in co. Middlesex by fealty only, and are worth per annum, clear, £10 3s.

William Wakefield died in the said parish of St. Giles without Cripplegate about the 1st day of March, 1 Mary [1554], William Wakefield is his son and next heir, and was then aged 16 years and more.

The said Joan late the wife of the said William Wakefield still survives in the said parish.

Edmund Key.

Inquisition taken at the Guildhall, 2 August, 1567, before Christopher Draper, knight, mayor and escheator, after the death of Edmund Key, citizen and salter of London, by the oath of Thomas Litton, John Noble, Henry Sutton, Stephen Walden, Michael Smith, Richard Henman, Robert Cripps, Henry Shawe, William Smith, Arthur Rainscrofte, Robert Dickonson, Thomas Haselwood, Adam Chatterton, John Harrison, William Couper and Richard Adams, who say that Edmund Key was seised of all that curtilage in the tenure of John Ridgate situate in the parish of All Saints the Great in the City of London sometime belonging to the late Priory of Elsingspittell, abutting upon the highway on the north, the tenements of Master Vampage (Magistri Vampage) on the south, the Stillyard towards the east and upon a certain lane called Cosin Laine towards the west: which said curtilage the said Edmund Key purchased to himself and his heirs for ever of the gift of Hugh Losse of London, gent., and Thomas Boucher, by virtue of a licence to alienate obtained from the King on the 13th day of March, 35 Hen. VIII [1544], as by a deed dated 22 March in the said year more plainly appears.

The said Edmund Key was likewise seised of all that corner house and all the shops, cellars, etc., etc., thereto belonging, late in the tenure of the said Edmund Key, situate in Thamisstreate near Dowgate in the parish of All Saints the Great, which the said Edmund purchased to him and his heirs of the grant of William Gunter of London, gent., and William Hobson of the same, haberdasher, as by deed dated 14 September, 2 Edw. VI [1548], more fully appears.

Edmund Key was likewise seised of 5 messuages and tenements situate in the parish of St. Botolph without Bisshoppsgate, in the tenure of Clement Hopper and sometime belonging to the late Priory or New Hospital without Bisshoppsgate, now dissolved, which he purchased to him and his heirs for ever of the gift of Nicholas Bacon, esq., William Breton and Henry Ashfield, gentlemen, as by charter dated, 20 October, 35 Hen. VIII [1543], more fully appears.

So seised, the said Edmund Key made his will the 11th day of June, 1567, whereby he bequeathed (inter alia) as follows:—

I give to Anne Allot my daughter the mansion house wherein I dwell being the corner tenement in Thamisstreat in Dowgat for her natural life; after her decease, to Edmund Millesh son of the said Anne and to his heirs; and for default, to his right heirs for ever. I also give to the said Anne Allot for her life all that Pavement, sometime a Tennis court, in Thamisstreat adjoining the Styllyard over against my said mansion house; also my 5 messuages in the parish of St. Botolph without Bishopsgate for her life; after her decease, I give the said 5 tenements to Robert Millesh my daughter's son and his heirs; for default, to John Millesh and his heirs; and for default, to Edmund Millesh and his heirs for ever. And after the decease of the said Anne I give my curtilage or Tennis court on the west side of the said Styllyard to John Millesh and his heirs; for default, to Edmund Millesh and his heirs for ever.

The said curtilage is held of the Queen in chief, by what services the jurors know not, and is worth per annum, clear, 6s. The said corner house in Thamistreat is held of the Queen by fealty only in free burgage and not in chief, and is worth per annum, clear, 20s. The premises in the said parish of St. Botolph are held of the Queen by fealty only in free and common socage and not in chief, and are worth per annum, clear, £6 19s. 4d.

Edmund Key died in the said parish of All Saints the Great the 15th day of June, 1567; Anne Allott wife of John Allott is his daughter and heir, and was then aged 33 years and more.

Chan. Inq. p. m., 9 Eliz., part 1, No. 73.

Richard Tyrrell, esquire.

Inquisition taken at the Guildhall, 18 December, 9 Eliz. [1566] before Christopher Draper, mayor and escheator, after the death of Richard Tyrrell, esq., by the oath of . . . Henry Sutton, Stephen Walden, John Wytton, Michael Smith, Henry Calleyes, Robert Cripps, Henry Shawe, William Smith, John Noble, Robert Langwith, Arthur Reynescrofte, Richard Smith, Robert Dickenson, Richard Cooper, John Harrison, Anthony Garrett, Adam Chatterton, William Cooper and Richard Adams, who say that

Richard Tyrrell was seised of 1 capital messuage and 1 garden within the Queen's close of Flete and of the office of Warden of the Fleet; also of a yearly rent of £7 12s. 1d. for the wardship of the Queen's prison of the Fleet; and of the office of Keeper of the Palace at Westminster, and £10 12s. 2d. yearly for executing the said office of Keeper of the said Palace.

So seised, the said Richard Tyrrell by charter dated 10 March, 8 Eliz. [1566], demised all the said premises to Henry Tyrrell, gent., and his heirs for the term of 15 years, paying therefor yearly to the said Richard Tyrrell £80. [Indenture here given in full wherein the said parties are described as Richard Tyrrell of Assheton in co. Essex, esq., and Henry Tyrrell of the same.]

The said Richard Tyrrell made his will the 13th May, 1566, and thereby bequeathed as follows: I will that all my manors, lands and tenements be divided into 3 parts, whereof the rent and yearly value of my . . . of the Fleet in the parish of St. Brydes within the suburbs of London, in the tenure of my brother Henry Tyrrell, of the clear yearly value of £80, shall come to my son for a full 3rd part of all my lands for the Queen's wardship, livery and seisin. The other 2 parts I give to my executors to perform my will.

Whereas my brother-in-law Bryan Annesley owes me £80: I now will that he keep the same as my gift, and that he give £40 thereof to his son Bryan at his age of 21 years, and the other £40 to his daughter Grace on her marriage. And whereas it is agreed between the said Bryan Annesley and Awdrye his wife my sister and myself that in . . . shall deliver to my executors one deed of grant of annuity to be cancelled which she has for life of £50 a year made to her by her late husband Ambrose Wylley in the . . . going out of all his lands in co. York: In consideration thereof I give to the said Bryan and Awdrye £40 yearly issuing out of my manor of Bakenhoo in co. Bedford.

I give to Edward my son and his heirs male all my lands and tenements; for default, then all my said lands, etc., except the manor of Sandon shall remain to Thomas Tyrrell my eldest brother's son and his heirs male; for default, the remainder thereof to Henry Tyrrell my brother and his heirs male; for default to my brother Robert Tyrrell and his heirs male; for default to Ewstas Tyrrell my brother and his heirs male; for default, to Charles Tyrrell who married the Countess of Oxford and his heirs male; for default, to Charles Tyrrell servant to Lord Riche and his heirs male; and for default, the remainder thereof to my right heirs for ever. As to the said manor of Sandon, I will that if my said son Edward die without heirs, the same shall remain to Mary and Phillipp my 2 daughters and their heirs; for default, to the said Thomas Tyrrell, with remainders as above.

I give to Mary Tyrrell my eldest daughter £500.

And whereas I have bought the wardship [of Robert Parryes son] of Robert Parryes, late of Lynton in co. Cambridge, esq., for Phillipp Tyrrell my youngest daughter, and have already paid for him 200 marks, there being 200 more marks behind: if it happen that the said Phillipp and the said Robert Parryes do "breke" it off and do not get married, then the said Robert to be valued by my executors towards the performance of this my will. But if the said Phillipp marry the said Robert or any other man my executors shall pay to her 400 marks.

I give to Anne my eldest brother's daughter £100.

All my lands, tenements and hereditaments in co. York to be sold for the payment of my debts.

To my servant Thomas Raye an annuity of 40s.

To my servant John Pechye an annuity of 33s. 4d.

To my servant Christopher Gawdy an annuity of 26s. 8d.

To Raffe Page my servant the tenement wherein he now dwells for his life, and to Katherine Page his wife 5 marks.

To Thomas Moody parson of Molton in Suffolk 20 marks.

I give all my plate, linen and household stuff to my son Edward at his age of 21 years.

To Avys Chibberes (?) £20.

I make Bryan Annesley and Henry Tyrrell executors and Sir William Cordell, knight, overseer.

Richard Chamberlaine.

Inquisition taken at the Guildhall, 11 March, 1566, before Christopher Draper, knight, Mayor and escheator, after the death of Richard Chamberlaine citizen and alderman of London, by the oath of Thomas Litton, John Haddon, William Gibbons, Richard Henman, Henry Sutton, Stephen Walden, John Witton, Michael Smith, Henry Callis, Robert . . . Shaw, William Smith, John Noble, Robert Lang-

with, Arthur Raynescroft, Robert Dickenson, John Harrison, Anthony Garrett, Adam Chatterton and Richard Adams, who say that

Long before the death of Richard Chamberlaine, one Robert Downe, citizen and ironmonger of London, was seised of 20 messuages, 10 cottages, 30 shops, 10 cellars and 6 gardens situate in the parish of St. Anne in the ward of Alderchgate and in the parish of St. Mary Colchurche, London; 1 tenement or toft or parcel of waste ground, sometime built in 2 several parts, situate together and being as one whole curtilage in Brodhawlaine in the said parish of St. Mary of Colchurch in the ward of Cheap; the corner messuage or tenement lying within Newgate in the parish of St. Sepulchre in the ward of Faringdon; 3 small messuages with 2 curtilages, 1 kitchen and one room, lying together in a street called Alderchgate Street, in the parish of St Olaves in Old Jewry in the ward of Colmanstreat, to wit, between the tenement lately belonging to the late Prior and Convent of the Priory of St. Bartholomew in the West Smithfield on the north and west parts, and the high way on the east: which said messuage the said Robert Downe lately purchased to him and his heirs for ever of the grant of John Smith, citizen and vintner of London, as by a deed dated 20th October, 6 Edward VI [1552] more fully appears: and 2 messuages lying in the parish of St. Mary Colchurch, purchased of Bartholomew Baron.

So seised, the said Robert Downe made his will 4 August, 1556, and thereby bequeathed as follows: "Also I give to Margery my wife all other my lands and tenements in the City of London or elsewhere for her natural life if she remain sole and unmarried; afterwards the same to remain to my son-in-law Richard Chamberlaine and my daughter his wife for their lives; after their decease the same to remain to their children and their heirs for ever, as they shall declare by their will," as by an inquisition taken after the death of the said Robert Downe, dated 6 August, 4 and 5 Philip and Mary [1557] more fully appears.

Afterwards, to wit, on the 30th November, 3 and 4 Philip and Mary [1556], the said Robert Downe died in the said parish of St. Mary Colchurche, and the said Margery his wife by virtue of the said grant entered into the said premises and took the profits thereof for her life. After her decease the said Richard Chamberlaine and Anne his wife daughter of the said Robert Downe entered into the same. The said Anne died in the said parish of St. Olave in old Jewry 27 March, 3 Eliz. [1561] and the said Richard survived her.

The said Richard Chamberlaine made his will 18 October, 5 Eliz. [1563] and thereby bequeathed as follows: "More now there good lovinge grandfather by his will [bequeathed all his lands, &c.] after our lives to all the children of his daughter my late wife and to the heirs of the said children for ever as I shall demise by my last will : and whereas certain of the houses are held of the Queen in chief and therefore by the law of this realm the eldest son must have the third part of all the rents : therefore I will that Robert Chamberlaine shall have the use of the whole rents paying yearly to all his brothers and sisters £10 each. Most of the said houses are now out of repair and must be wisely looked after, as those who have them take all the profit and will do very little unless they are sharplie called upon. I trust the said Robert my son and all other my children will be content to do as I wish in this matter."

All the said premises except the said 2 messuages lying in Brodhawlane are held of the Queen by fealty only in free burgage, and are worth per ann., clear, £82 16s. 8d. The said 2 messuages are held of the Queen in chief by the service of the 40th part of a knight's fee, and are worth per ann., clear, £4. 13s. 4d.

Richard Chamberlaine died in the said parish of St. Olave in Old Jewry 19 November, 9 Eliz. [1566] ; Robert Chamberlaine is his son and next heir, and is now aged 21 years and more.

The said Richard and Anne had issue the said Robert Chamberlaine, Thomas, Richard, Alexander, John and George Chamberlaine, Elizabeth Stuklie wife of Hugh Stuklic, gent., and Margery Chamberlaine.

The said Anne Chamberlaine late the wife of the said Richard was the daughter and heir of the said Robert Downe.

Henry Roberts.

Inquisition taken at the Guildhall, 27 January, 1566, before Christopher Draper, Mayor and escheator, after the death of Henry Roberts, citizen and brewer of London, by the oath of Thomas Litton, John Haddon, Richard Henman, Henry Sutton, Stephen Walden, John Witton, Michael Smith, Henry Callis, Robert Cripps, William Smith, John Noble, Robert Langwith, Arthur Rainscrofte, Richard Smith, Robert Dickenson, Richard Cowper, Anthony Garret, Adam Chatterton, William Cowper and Richard Adams, who say that

Henry Roberts was seised of 3 messuages lying together in Knight-riding street in the parish of the Holy Trinity, London, now in the several tenures of the said Henry Roberts, Robert Tausei and John James, and which lately were 1 large messuage called the White Hart : which said 3 messuages Nicholas Bristowe of London, esq., and Lucy his wife by their deed dated 3 February, 7 Edward VI [1553] demised to the said Henry Roberts under the name of 1 large messuage called the Whyte Hart.

So seised, the said Henry Roberts by charter dated 29 March, 1 Eliz. [1559] demised the said messuage to John Jackson, citizen and founder of London, for 21 years, he paying therefor yearly £5 6s. 8d. [The said charter is here set out in English.]

Afterwards, to wit, on the 21st day of June, 5 Eliz. [1563] the said Henry Roberts by deed bearing even date therewith demised to the said John Jackson and to Andrew Palmer, citizen and goldsmith of London and their heirs the said 3 messuages in Knightrider street: to hold to them and their heirs to the use of the said Henry Roberts and Elizabeth his wife for their lives; after their decease, to the use of Anthony Roberts one of the sons of Gilbert Roberts deceased, brother of the said Henry, the right and next heir of the said Henry, and the heirs of the said Anthony for ever.

Henry Roberts was likewise seised of all that messuage and tenement called the Geoge [sic] and 2 messuages and tenements adjoining the said messuage called the George, in the tenure of Richard Hudson, situate in the parish of St. Sepulchre without Newgate, and all the houses, shops, water-houses, gardens, &c., &c., thereto belonging: which said premises Thomas Reve of London, gent., John Jackson of London, fishmonger and Henry Herdson of London, skinner, by deed dated 20 May, 4 Edw. VI [1550] sold to the said Henry Roberts.

So seised, the said Henry Roberts made his will 9 November, 1566, and thereby bequeathed as follows [here given in English]: I give to the said [sic] Elizabeth my wife all the lands, tenements and hereditaments whereof I am possessed in fee simple within the City of London and in the suburbs of the same, to hold for her natural life; after her decease, I give the same to Anthony Roberts and Henry Roberts of Lincolnshire and to their heirs male; and for default, the remainder thereof to my right heirs for ever.

The premises in Knightrider street are held of the Queen in chief, but by what services the jurors know not: they are worth per ann., clear, £5 6s. 8d. The messuage called the George and all other the premises in the said parish of St. Sepulchre are held of the Queen in free burgage and not in chief, and are worth per ann., clear, £10 13s. 4d.

Henry Roberts died 1 December, 1566; Helen Roberts and Margaret Roberts are his next heirs, to wit, daughters of Richard Roberts, son of the said Gilbert, brother of the said Henry, and elder brother of the said Anthony and Henry Roberts who are heirs by reason of the said enfeoffment: they are aged respectively, the said Helen 26 years and more.

the said Margaret 21 years and more, the said Anthony 40 years and more, and the said Henry 40 years and more.

The said Elizabeth late the wife of the said Henry has taken the profits of the said premises up to the day of taking this inquisition.

John Noble*, Robert Langwith, Richard Smýth, John Harrison, Addam Chatterton, William Cowper, John Hart, John Keblewhite, Edward Bowen and John Geaninges, who say that

William Dobson was seised of 4 messuages lying in the parish of St. Andrew Hubberd in the City of London, in the tenure of Ellizius [Elizii], Corviniall [? Corniviall] sometime belonging to the late Monastery of Graces near the Tower of London now dissolved; 2 messuages situate in the parish of St. Swithin, London, in the several tenures of John Tucke and John Betris, sometime belonging to the late Priory of St. Ellen within the City of London, now dissolved; 1 messuage, with the cellars, warehouses, &c., &c., thereto belonging in the tenure of Geoffrey Vaughan situate in the parish of St. Dunstan in the East, lately parcel of the possessions of the late Fraternity of St. Mary and St. Dunstan founded in the Church of St. Dunstan in the West; 1 capital messuage or principal tenement lying in the parish of St. George in Botolph Lane, London, and 4 messuages there to the same belonging in the tenure of Nicholas Willford, lately parcel of the possessions of the Chantry called Gulford Chantry founded in the Cathedral Church of St. Pauls; 1 tenement in Towerstreet, London, late in the tenure of Daniel Diniers; and 1 other messuage in the said street, in the tenure of Peires Salisburie.

So seised, the said William Dobson made his will 7 September 1558 and thereby bequeathed as follows [here given in English]: I give all my said meases, lands and hereditaments to Katherine my wife for her life; after her decease, I give to my son-in-law James Stoke, citizen and goldsmith of London and his heirs for ever my house in Tower street in the tenure of Daniel Dynires, which I had inter alia by force of the will of William Selbye, deceased, in consideration of the trouble my said wife his mother took for him. I give to William Noke citizen and goldsmith of London and to Margaret his wife my kinswoman and their heirs for ever after the death of my said wife my said tenement in Tower street in the tenure of Pieres Salisburie. I bequeath to William Rookin citizen and "cowper" of London and to Agnes his wife, in discharge of my promise made to them on their marriage my 4 messuages in the tenure of Elizeus Corniviall [?], and all the houses, shops, cellars, &c. in the parish of St. Andrew Hubberd, London, which I lately purchased of Thomas Pyke citizen and Skinner of London: to hold to them and their heirs until they shall be made sure of such part of my said messuages, &c. which I hereby give to "William Dobson my brother John his sone," as shall be worth yearly £4, clear. After the death of my said wife I give to the said William Dobson the messuage wherein I now dwell lying in the parish of St. Dunstan in the East, my capital messuage and garden late in the tenure of the said Nicholas Willford, lying in Botolph Lane, which the said Nicholas held by Indenture of lease, and which I lately bought to me and my heirs for ever of Richard Hastings citizen and waxchandler of London, and all other my messuages and lands not before bequeathed: to hold to him and his heirs for ever. Witnesses: Thomas Bradford, William Dobsen, Lancelot Wilson.

The said William Dobson son of the said John Dobson died in London 3 October, 1563, and before his death, to wit, on the last day of September in the said year made his will as follows: I will that my cousin Thomas Lancastre shall take £6 13s. 4d. of the first rents arising from the said capital messuage in the tenure of the said Nicholas Willford and the tenements thereto belonging in Botolph Lane after the decease of the said Katherine Dobson. After that sum has been taken I give the said premises to my father, John Dobson of Patterdale in co. Cumberland, husbandman: to hold for his natural life; after his decease, I give the same to my brother John Dobson and his heirs; for default, to my brother Thomas Dobson and his heirs; for default, to my brother Richard Dobson and his heirs; and lastly for default, to my brother Rowland and his heirs for ever. I give to my cousin William Nokes my great messuage in the occupation of Stephen Peacoke lying in Thamesstreet in the parish of St. Dunstan in the East: to hold to him and his heirs for ever, on condition that he pay to John Robinson citizen and Draper of London £13 6s. 8d., £10 whereof the said John stands surety for, having discharged me from an action which Christopher Pepper has against me, now depending in the counter of the Poultry of London upon an obligation wherein I am bound to him, and the other £3 6s. 8d. being what I borrowed of him. If the said William refuse to do this, I give the said premises to the said John Robinson and his heirs for ever. I give to the said William Nokes and to Margaret his wife the tenement next to Candlewikestreet, situate in St. Swithin's Lane in the parish of St. Mary Wulnoth in Lumbardstreet, London: to hold for their lives; and after their decease, I give the same to their son William Nokes and his heirs; for default thereof, the remainder thereof to his brother John Nokes and his heirs; for default, the remainder thereof to his brother Thomas and his heirs; and lastly for default, to my right heirs for ever. I give to Agnes Rookin sister of the said Margaret Nokes the other tenement in St. Swithin's Lane, to wit, the tenement next Lumbardstreet: to hold to her and her heirs; for default, I give the same to her brother, Robert Rookin and his heirs; for default, to my right heirs for ever. I give to the said William Nokes my messuage called the Rounde Howse otherwise the Blacke House now in the tenure of Richard Bolton, lying in the parish of St. Andrew Hubberd, London: to hold to him and his heirs for ever, on condition that he pay to Agnes Rookin late the wife of William Rookin citizen and cooper of London, deceased, and to Joan their daughter £4 yearly for their lives, wherewith the said messuage is charged by the will of my uncle William Dobson deceased.

The said Katherine wife of the said William Dobson named in the writ survived the said William son of John Dobson, and afterwards died in London the 16th day of March, 1563.

The said 4 messuages and other the premises lying in the said parish of St. Andrew Hubberd, in the tenure of the said Elizeus Corvinal [? Cornival] are held of the Queen by fealty only in free socage and not in chief, and are worth per ann., clear, £3 18s. 8d. Henry Leighe, gentleman.

Inquisition taken at the Guildhall 7 July, 10 Eliz. [1568] before Roger Martin, Knight, Mayor and escheator, after the death of Henry Leighe of London, gent., by the oath of John Haddon, Richard Henman, Henry Sutton, Stephen Walden, Michael Smyth, Henry Callis,

Robert Crippes, Henry Shaw, William Smyth, John Noble, Arthur Rainscroft, Richard Smythe, Robert Dickenson, Richard Cooper, John Harrison, William Cooper, Richard Adams, John Keblewhyte, and Edward Bowen, who say that

Before the death of the said Henry Leighe King Henry VIII by Letters Patent dated 23 September in the 34th year of his reign [1542] granted inter alia to John Nasshe one of the pages of his chamber (uni pagetorum Camere sue) and to Alice his wife all that messuage with all the cellars, shops, lands, &c. thereto belonging lying in the Parish of St. Dunstan in Fletestreet, London, to wit, between the tenement of William Kerbie on the west and the tenement of Robert Ducke on the east sometime in the tenure of the said William Kerbie, and now in that of John Braye, heretofore belonging to the House or Priory of the Carmelite Brothers in the suburbs of London, now dissolved: to hold to them for their lives the remainder thereof after their lives remaining to the said lord the King. The said Alice survived the said John and is now the wife of ——— Garawey and is living at Acton in co. Middlesex. Afterwards his Majesty by Letters Patent dated 19 January in the 35th year of his reign [1544] granted to Thomas Brooke citizen and merchant tailor of London and his heirs for ever the reversion of the said premises.

So seized, the said Thomas Brooke by deed dated 23 February, 35 Hen. VIII [1544] granted the said reversion to the said Henry Leighe and Isabella then his wife and their heirs for ever.

Henry Leighe was seized of all that messuage situate in the said parish of St. Dunstan in Fleetstreet, to wit, between the tenement of the said William Kerbie on the west and the tenement of the said Robert Ducke on the east sometime in the tenure of John Wisenden and now or late in that of Elizabeth Chippingdale, sometime belonging to the said House of the Carmelites; the messuage in the said parish late in the tenure of John Onley, now divided into 3 small messuages in the several tenures of the said Henry Leigh, John Burden and Roger Mellie: which said messuage in the tenure of the said Henry Leighe is now called the Marigowlde; and 1 piece of land containing in breadth 7 feet to the said messuage adjoining, in the tenure of the said Henry Leighe: which said piece of land is now built upon and is parcel of the said 3 messuages: all which said premises, together with the reversion aforesaid the said Henry Leighe purchased to himself, Isabella his wife and their heirs of the gift of the said Thomas Brooke, licence from the King dated 18 February in the said 25th year of his reign, first had and obtained.

The said Henry Leighe was likewise seised of the house called the Flowerdeluce, now or late in the tenure of John Harward and now occupied by Anthony Hickman, lying in the said parish of St. Dunstan, to the late Monastery of the Blessed Mary Overey in co. Surrey sometime belonging: which said house the said Henry purchased to him and his heirs for ever of the gift of Thomas Arundel, Knight, and Henry Saunders, as by deed thereof made dated 24 February, 3 Edw. VI [1549] more fully appears.

So seised, the said Henry Leighe by charter dated 24 January, 4 Edw. VI [1551] granted the said messuage called the Flowerdeluce to Richard Porie, bowyer, William Walker, goldsmith, Richard Taylloure, grocer, citizens of London and to Thomas Hughes, Doctor of Medicine, to hold to the use of the said Henry and Elizabeth Reve then widow in the name of her jointure and of the heirs of the said Henry for ever.

The said Henry and Elizabeth his wife being so seised, the said Henry made his will 6 April, 1568, and thereby bequeathed as follows: I will that Alice Leigh wife of my son Gerrard Leigh have for term of her life my dwelling house in Fleetstreet called the Marigould, according to a certain lease by me to her "letten," and all other my lands, rents, services, &c. within the City of London and the suburbs thereof of which I am seised in possession or reversion, for the better bringing up of the children of my said son. I give all my lands, tenements, hereditaments in London to Edward Leigh son and heir of the said Gerrard Leighe for his natural life; after his decease, then successively in tail male to the first to the twelfth sons of the said Edward; for default, then to Susan Leigh, Elizabeth Leigh, Anne Leigh, Margaret Leigh and Alice Leigh daughters of the said Gerrard and to their several heirs; for default, to the heirs general of the said Edward; and lastly for default, to the right heirs of my cousin Henry Leighe son of Robert Leighe late of Estwicke in co. Hertford, deceased, and to their heirs for ever: provided that Margery Nicholson, widow, shall have, after the death of Elizabeth my wife, for her natural life, 1 tenement of the yearly rent of 20s. now in the tenure of William Blage lying in Feter Lane in the said parish of St. Dunstons, she paying yearly for the same 1 peppercorn if demanded.

The said Elizabeth died in the said parish of St. Dunstan 14 May, 10 Eliz. [1568].

The messuage whereof the said Henry Leighe is seised in reversion and the premises purchased of Thomas Brooke are held of the Queen in chief by the service of the 100th part of a knight's fee, and are worth per ann., clear, £14 os. 8d. The messuage called the Flower de Luce is held of the Queen in free burgage by fealty only and not in chief, and is worth per ann., clear, £10.

Henry Leigh died in the said parish of St. Dunstan 9 April, 10 Eliz.

[1568]; Edward Leighe is his next heir, to wit, son and heir of the said Gerrard, son and heir of the said Henry, and was then aged 7 years, 5 months and 4 days.

The said Alice Leighe still survives.

William Beswike, Citizen and Clothworker.

Inquisition taken at the Guildhall 21 January, 1568, before Roger Martin, Mayor and escheator, after the death of William Beswike, citizen and clothworker of London, by the oath of John Haddon, Richard Henman, Henry Sutton, Stephen Walden, John Witton, Michael

Smyth, Henry Cállis, Robert Crippes, Henry Shawe, William Smyth, John Nòble, Robert Lanwythe, Arthur Ráinscrofte, Richard Smyth, John Harrison, Anthony Garret, Adam Chatterton and Richard . . . who say that

William Beswike was seised of 4 messuages and 1 garden, lying in the parish of St. Lawrence Pountney, London, sometime parcel of a capital messuage in the said parish, late parcel of the possessions of Henry Courtney late Marquis of Exeter, attainted of high treason: which said premises the said William purchased to him and his heirs for ever of the grant of John Heathe, citizen and cooper of London, as by charter thereof made dated 27 June, 3 Eliz., [1561] more fully appears.

The said William Beswike was likewise seised of all that capital messuage, lying in the parish of St. Dionisius Backchurche in the ward of Langborne, in the tenure of Paul Fortune (Pauli Fortunij) foreign merchant: which said messuage the said William purchased to him and his heirs for ever of the gift of Thomas Stukeley of London, Esq. and Anne his wife kinswoman and sole heiress of Thomas Curtis, Knight, deceased, whilst living citizen and Alderman of London, as by charter thereof made dated 5 March 3 Eliz. [1561] it appears.

The said William Beswike was likewise seised of all that brew-house called the Ramies hed, wherein Richard Crumwell, brewer, sometime dwelt, and 1 other messuage lying on the east part of the said brew-house, late in the tenure of Thomas Broune, citizen and fishmonger of London, lying in the parish of St. Bennett Gracechurche in the said ward of Langborne: which said premises the said William lately purchased to him and his heirs for ever of the gift of John Starkey, citizen and fletcher of London, as by charter thereof made dated 5 June 7 Edw. VI. [1553] more fully appears.

The said William Beswike was likewise seised of a capital messuage wherein John Starkey now dwells, with 1 garden thereto adjacent, 1 house called a gatehouse, to the said capital messuage belonging, 1 piece of waste-land with 1 shed built on the north part of the said waste-land, and all those tenements, rents, houses, &c. &c. lying in the lane there called Jerusalem Alley, to the said capital messuage belonging, and the moiety of a "forice" which now is and formerly was divided between the inn called the Taberd and the said capital messuage: all which said premises are in the parish of St. Bennett Gracechurche, in the Bridge ward, London, 2 messuages lying in the said parish, adjoining the house called the gate and the shop of the said capital messuage on the south: which said gatehouse and shop and the said 2 messuages last recited are built in one and under 1 roof: in one of the said tenements William Evered, citizen and letherseller of London lately dwelt, and in the other William Staines, citizen and ironmonger of London : all which said premises the said William Beswike purchased to him and his heirs for ever of the gift of the said John Starkey, as by deed thereof made dated 28 August, 1 Mary [1553] it appears.

So seised, the said William Beswike made his will 14 April, 9 Eliz. [1567] and thereby bequeathed as follows: I will that Joan my wife shall freely have and enjoy during her natural life the messuage wherein I now dwell, the messuage wherein Robert Phinius dwells, and the tenements wherein William Tenche and Robert Guye respectively live, so that she permit my children quietly to enjoy their bequests and legacies of the rest of my lands; after her decease, I give the said premises to William Beswick my son. Also I give to the said William my lands situate in Gracyouse street called Jerusalem Alley, the tenement wherein Randall Burchenshaw lately dwelt, and the tenement in the tenure of John Mylton, ironmonger, or George Utterley: to hold for his natural life; and after his decease I give the same to his heirs male; for default, I give the said premises to my son Arthur Beswick; after his decease, to his heirs male. I also give to the said Arthur my tenement lying in Lymestreet in the parish of St. Dionisius Backchurche, now in the tenure of Paul Fortune merchant of Florence: to hold for his natural life; after his decease, I give the same to his heirs male; for default, the same to go to my son Rowland Beswick and his heirs male. I give also to the said Rowland my lands in Fanchurche street called the Raiems Heade and the tenements thereto adjoining on the east side, in the tenure of Molner Joan Broune and Thomas Hasell, pewterer; and after the decease of the said Rowland the said premises to go to his heirs male. If none of my said 3 sons leave heirs male, the said premises shall remain to Anne Beswicke and Christiana Beswick my daughters to be divided equally between them for their lives only. When one of my said daughters dies, her part of the said lands shall remain to the Company of Drapers of London, whereof I am a member, for ever. Immediately upon the death of my other daughter, her share to go likewise to the said Company, on condition that they pay yearly one moiety of the profits of the said lands to and for the making of "Woll Cardes," to be made in London, to the use of the Company of Card-makers who will work and make the same. The other moiety I freely give to the said Company, to be distributed according to the discretion of the Master and Wardens of the same. But if they neglect to perform my will, then I give all the said lands to the Hospital called Christs Hospital in London, towards the relief of the poor children there for ever, on condition that the one moiety is used for the making of Woll Cardes as is abovesaid.

The messuages and garden in the said parish of St. Lawrence Pountney are held of the Queen as of her manor of East Greenwich in co. Kent by fealty only, in free socage and not in chief, and are worth per ann., clear £40. The capital messuage in the said parish of St. Dionisius Backchurche is held of the Queen in free burgage and not in chief, and is worth per ann., clear, £15. The said brew-house called the Rammes Hedd, the other messuage thereto annexed, and the premises purchased of John Starkey lying in the parish of St. Bennett Gracechurch are held of the Queen in free burgage of the City of London, and not in chief, and are worth per ann., clear, 20 marks. All the premises lying in the parish of St. Bennett Gracechurche in the Bridge Ward, London, are held of the Queen in free burgage, and not in chief, and are worth per ann., clear, £20.

William Beswick died in the said parish of St. Lawrence Pountney 5 May, 9 Eliz. [1567]; William Beswick is his son and heir and was then aged 16 years and more.

Robert Alleyn, Citizen and Clothworker.

Inquisition taken at the Guildhall 26 May, 11 Eliz. [1569] before Thomas Roo, after the death of Robert Alleyn, citizen and clothworker of London, by the oath of John Hutton, William Gybbons, Richard Heuman, Henry Sutton, Stephen Malden, John Wytton, Michael Smith, Henry Calleis, Robert Cripps, Henry Shawe, William Smith, John Noble, Arthur Reynescroft, Robert Dyckenson, Richard Coper, John Harrison, Adam Chatterton, Richard Adams, John Harte, John Keblewhite, Edward Bowen, John Fennyns and Thomas Peerson, who say that

Before the death of the said Robert Alleyn one Edward Cornewalleis, esq., and Alice his wife, by Letters Patent of King Hen. VIII. dated 26 September in the 32nd year of his reign [1540] were seised of 2 messuages or tenements with the shops, cellars, &c. lying in the parish of St. Katherine Christ Church within the City of London, one whereof was late in the tenure of John Turnor, and the other in that of Peter

Howker; and all those messuages lying in a certain alley called Kelleys Alley and in the high street within the said parish, lately belonging to the Monastery of Evesham in co. Worcester now dissolved: to hold to them and their heirs for ever.

So seised, the said Edward and Alice for the fulfillment of certain covenants contained in certain indentures dated 12 Oct., 37 Hen. VIII. [1545] made between the said Edward and Alice of the one part and the said Robert Alleyn and Joan his wife of the other part, by their charter dated 22 October in the said year, granted all the said premises to the said Robert and Joan and their heirs for ever to their sole use.

The said Alice Cornewalleis by Letters Patent of the said King dated 28 August in the 34th year of his reign [1542] was seised of 2 messuages late in the several tenures of John Bullocke and Henry Duffielde situate in the parish of St. Alban in Woodestreate, London, sometime belonging to the late Monastery of Dertforde in co. Kent: to hold for her life: the interest and estate whereof the said Robert Alleyn and Joan now have.

King Henry VIII. by Letters Patent dated 8 April in the 35th year of his reign [1544] granted inter alia to John Hamond, Thomas Maynard, Richard Eve and Robert Alleyn and theirs heirs for ever the reversion of the said 2 messuages last mentioned which were granted to the said Alice for her life, and so seised, they by deed of release dated 25 March, 36 Hen. VIII. [1545] remised and for ever quitclaimed to the said Robert Alleyn and Joan and their heirs all their right, title and interest in the said premises.

Afterwards [sic] the said Edward Cornewalleis and Alice by deed of release dated 23 March, 36 Hen. VIII. [1545] remised and for ever quitclaimed to the said Robert Alleyn and Joan all their estate, right and title to the said 2 messuages in the said parish of St. Alban, which the said Alice had for her life: which said deed was enrolled in the Court of Hustings 1 August, 37 Hen. VIII. [1545].

Before the death of the said Robert Alleyn one William Pykering, Knight, by Letters Patent of King Hen. VIII. dated 26 September in the 30th year of his reign was seised of 7 messuages and 1 garden late in the several tenures of Robert Sawtrie, James Hounde, Thomas Plumme, Robert Hall, Robert Bulwan, Nicholas Bradley and Katherine Shorte, widow, lying in the parish of St. Mary at Axe, London, sometime belonging to the Monastery or Priory of Holy Trinity commonly called Christchurch, London, to him and his heirs for ever: which said William Pickering died thereof seised; after whose death William Pickering, esq., his son and next heir entered into the said premises as in right of inheritance. So seised, the said William, junior, by charter dated 19 April, 35 Hen. VIII. [1544] granted all the said premises last mentioned to the said Robert Alleyn named in the writ and to his heirs for ever.

The said Robert Alleyn made his will 19 August, 1567, and thereby bequeathed as follows :

I give all my lands, tenements and hereditaments in London, Essex or elsewhere to Joan my wife for her life ; after her decease, I give to Henry Alleyn, baker, son of Edmond Alleyn, and his heirs all my messuages and lands lying in the parish of St. Katherine Christchurch, London ; for default, the remainder thereof to Elizabeth Alleyn and Margaret Alleyn, sisters of the said Henry, and their heirs ; for default, the remainder thereof to my right heirs for ever. I give to Alyce Childe daughter of Thomas Childe " paynter steynner," deceased, my 2 messuages lying in the parish of St. Albones in Woodstreate, London, now in the several tenures of Anne Graye, widow, and James Wyrddocke : to hold to her and her heirs after the death of my said wife ; for default, the remainder thereof to John Childe and Elizabeth Childe, children of the said Thomas Childe and to their heirs ; for default, the remainder thereof to Awdry Colgrave, mother of the said Alyce, John and Elizabeth and to her heirs for ever, provided always that whichever of the said John Chyld and Elizabeth Chylde shall be married first shall have their dwelling in one of the said messuages in Woodstreet, at the choice of the said Alice, and shall occupy the same as tenant at her will, so that the said John or Elizabeth will remain in the said tenement and " kepe householde and hospitalitie " in the same for their own use, and will also keep the said messuage in good repair, and will also pay yearly to the said Alice and her heirs the sum of 20s.

I give to Thomas Alleyn the younger, son of the said Thomas Alleyn, carpenter, my messuages and great garden lying in the parish of St. Mary Axe, London : to hold to him and his heirs immediately after the death of the said Joan my wife ; for default, the remainder thereof to Agnes and Isabell Alleyn, sisters of the same Thomas Alleyn the younger and to their heirs ; and for default, the remainder thereof to my right heirs for ever.

The 2 messuages in Kellys Alley are held of the Queen by the service of the 20th part of a knight's fee, and are worth per ann., clear, £6 13s. 4d. The 2 messuages recited in the second deed of release are held of the Queen in chief by the service of the 20th part of a knight's fee, and are worth per ann., clear, £4 9s. 8d. The 7 messuages and the garden recited in the last charter are held of the Queen by the service of the 10th part of a knight's fee, and are worth per ann., clear, 22s. 6d.

Robert Alleyn died 7 April, 11 Eliz. [1569]; Henry Alleyn, son of Edmund Alleyn, senior, brother of the said Robert named in the writ is his kinsman and next heir, and is now aged 26 years and more.

The said Joan late the wife of the said Robert Alleyn still survives.

John Nasshe, Citizen and Clothworker.

Inquisition taken at the Guildhall 20 October, 1568, before Roger Martyn, Knight, Mayor and escheator, after the death of John Nasshe, citizen and clothworker of London, by the oath of John Haddon, Richard Henman, Henry Sutton, Stephen Walden, John Witton, Michael Smythe, Henry Calles, Robert Cripps, Henry Shawe, William Smyth, Thomas Haslewood, John Noble, Robert Langwithe, Arthur Rainscroft, Robert Dickenson, Richard Cooper, John Harrison and Anthony Garrett, who say that

Before the death of John Nasshe, Thomas Sigor, citizen and fishmonger of London was seised of 1 messuage next Lambartes Hill in Ouldefyshe streate London, now or late in the tenure of Thomas Wooddall; 1 messuage there in the Ward of Quenehith in the parish of St. Mary Magdalen in the tenure of Lewes Williamson, cobbler; 1 shop there in the tenure of John Stone; 3 messuages there in the Ward of Quenehithe, now or late in the tenure of Reginald Stone, William Eston and Dirrik Wie; 2 tenements in the tenure of John Newman and Hugh Cowarde; 3 shops in the tenure of Roger Wattes citizen and fishmonger of London; and 1 corner shop there in the said parish of St. Mary Magdalene, in the tenure of the said Roger Wattes.

So seised, the said Thomas Sygor made his will 4 August 1510, and thereby bequeathed as follows: I will that John Moulton my next heir shall with 10 marks out of the first profits of my lands in Ouldefyshe street find an honest priest to sing for my soul within the parish Church of St. Mary Magdalen for 1 whole year.

After the death of the said Thomas Sigor the said John Moulton entered into the said premises in right of Margaret his wife who was the sister and heir of the said Thomas Sigor. At their decease, the said premises descended to John Moulton as their son and heir. He died leaving 4 daughters, Joan, Elizabeth, Juliana and Mary: Afterwards the said Juliana and Mary died without issue, by virtue whereof all the said premises belonged to the said Joan and Elizabeth. Then the said Joan married the said John Nasshe named in the writ, and they had issue Richard Nasshe. After the death of the said Joan, the said John Nasshe was sole seised of the said premises.

The said Elizabeth married John Phylpott citizen and "Chirurgun" of London, and they granted all their interest in their moiety of the said premises to the said John Nasshe and his heirs for ever.

John Nasshe was likewise seised of all that large messuage and 3 cottages thereto belonging, lying on Lambertes Hill in the parish of St. Mary Magdalene next Ouldefyshe Strete, which he purchased to him and his heirs for ever of the gift of Edward Preston, citizen and "black-smythe Spurriour" of London and Alice his wife, as by deed dated 20 November 2 Eliz. [1559] more fully appears.

So seised, the said John Nasshe made his will 24 February, 10 Eliz. [1568], and thereby bequeathed as follows: I give to Anne my wife in full recompense of her thirds the great house of the yearly rent of £6 and another little house adjoining the same of the yearly rent of 40s. situate on Lambardes Hill: which said houses were late in the hands of Anthony Vans? Portingall, to hold for her life: after her decease. I will that the said large house shall remain to Edward my son and his heirs; for default, the same to remain to Richard my son and his heirs; for default, to Hamonde Nasshe my son and his heirs; for default, to John Nasshe [relationship not mentioned] and his heirs; for default, to Humfrey Nasshe my son and his heirs; for default, the same to remain to Cicelly Nasshe my daughter and her heirs; and for default, to Elizabeth my daughter and her heirs for ever.

I also give to my said wife one house standing on Lamberdes Hill now in the hands of — Domyng, Portingale: to hold to her and her heirs for ever if she remain sole and unmarried; if she marry again, then she shall have the same for her life; and after her decease, the same to remain to Elizabeth my daughter and her heirs; for default, then successively to my sons Richard, Hamonde, Edward, John, Humfrey, my daughter Cicely and my next heirs for ever. I give to my daughter Cicely my part of a house late in the hands of Mr. Cheyne, gentleman, set on Lambardes Hill; also my part of a house there wherein Lewes Williamson, cobbler, lately dwelt; and 1 shop in the said parish of St. Mary Magdalene, in the hands of John Stone fishmonger: to hold to her and her heirs; for default, I will the same to Richard my son and his heirs, and so to all my children successivelie, with such remainder and entail as before in this my will is expressed; and for lack of heirs, to remain to my right heirs for ever.

I give to Elizabeth my daughter my part of 3 houses, the one in the hands of Reginald Stone, another in the hands of William Eston, and the third in the hands of Derricke Wie, butcher, in Ouldefyshestrete : to hold to her and her heirs, with remainders as above.

To my son Edward I give my part of 2 houses, in the tenures of John Newman and—Cowarde; also my part of 3 shops in the hands of Roger Wattes fishmonger : which said houses and shops are all in Ouldefyshe strete : to hold to him and his heirs, with remainders as above.

To Hamonde Nasshe my son my part of a shop in the said street, late in the hands of Roger Wattes : to hold to him and his heirs, with remainders as above.

I give to my son John Nasshe my house on Lambardes Hill, now or late in the hands of John Bridges : to hold to him and his heirs, with remainders as above.

To my son Hunfrey I give my house on Lambardes Hill, wherein—Roo dwelt; to hold to him and his heirs, with remainders as above.

I will that none of my children sell the said houses but that the same descend to them successively.

Memorandum that on the 2nd day of March, 1567 [sic] I declare this codicil to my will : whereas by my said will I have disposed certain of my lands to my children severally : now I will that Anne my wife shall enjoy all the revenues of all my lands for 2 years next after my decease, and then my said will to take place touching the same.

All the said premises, except the said large messuage and cottages purchased of the said Edward Preston are held of the Queen in free burgage, and are worth per ann., clear, £30. The said messuage and cottages are held of the Queen in free socage, by fealty only and not in chief, and are worth per ann., clear, £10.

John Nasshe died 16 March, 1567, in the parish of St. Martin Organ, London; Richard Nasshe is his son and next heir, and was then aged 30 years and more.

So seised, the said Thomas Nevell made his will the 26th day of February, 9 Eliz. [1567], and thereby bequeathed as follows: I will that those 4 houses in the said parish of St. Bothowe near London Stone, whereof 3 are new and 1 is old, and those 2 houses in St. Nicholas Lane the one in the tenure of Christopher Demount, and the other next thereto adjoining shall remain to my wife [not named] during her natural life; and after her decease I give the same to William Nevell my brother's son and to his heirs for ever.

The 2 messuages in St. Nicholas Lane are held of the Queen in free burgage, and are worth per ann., clear, £6 16s. 8d. The 4 messuages in the said parishes of St. Mary Bothehawe and St. John in Walbroke are held of the Queen by fealty only in free and common socage and not in chief, and are worth per ann., clear, £19.

Thomas Nevell died 12 March [last past]; William Nevell son of Francis Nevell brother of the said Thomas Nevell named in the writ, is his kinsman and next heir, and is now aged 15 years and more.

Mary late the wife of the said Thomas Nevell and now the wife of Thomas Castlin still survives in the City of London.

Dame Margaret Haward, widow.

Inquisition taken at the Guildhall 8 February, 11 Eliz. [1569] before Thomas Rowe, esq. Mayor and escheator of the City of London, after the death of Dame Margaret Haward, widow, by the oath of John Haddon, Richard Henman, Henry Sutton, Stephen Walden, John Witton, Michael Smithe, Henry Callice, Robert Cripps, Henry Shawe, William Smithe, Thomas Haselwood, John Noble, Robert Dickenson, Richard Coweper, Anthony Garret, Adam Chatterton, Richard Adams, John Ketelwhite, Edward Bowen and Thomas Pierson, who say that Dame Margaret Haward was seised of 1 capital messuage wherein *Henry*¹ . . . then dwelt and now dwells; 2 other messuages thereto adjoining, one whereof is in the tenure of Lawrence Lea and the other is empty, lying in the street called Aldermanburye and in the parish of the Blessed Mary, with all the curtilages, gardens, lands, &c. thereto belonging: of which said premises King Henry VII. was seised in his demesne as of fee, and being so seised by his Letters Patent dated 2 October in the 7th year of his reign [1491] in consideration of the faithful service of Richard Hawte, knight of his body (militis pro corpore suo) granted to the said Richard the said messuages and other the premises by the name of a place or messuage with curtilages and 1 garden lying in the street called Aldermanburye, late of Richard Charleton, knight: which said premises came into the hands of the king by reason of the forfeiture of the said Richard Charleton: to hold to the said Richard Hawte and his heirs for ever.

So seised, the said Richard Hawte by his will bequeathed the said premises to Dame Katherine Hawte his wife and her heirs for ever.

Afterwards James Walsyngham, esq. sole surviving executor of the will of the said Dame Katherine by indenture dated 26 November 1 Henry VIII. [1509] sold the said premises to John Mundaye, citizen and goldsmith of London and his heirs for ever for a certain sum of money to him in hand paid.

So seised, the said John Mundaye by deed dated 1 December 1 Henry VIII. [1509] granted the said premises to John Tate, Knight, and to William Browne, citizens and Aldermen of London, and to Richard Broke, Henry Woodcock, William Hayes, gentlemen, and to Robert Preston, goldsmith, and their heirs for ever to the use of the said John Mundaye and his heirs for ever.

Afterwards, the said John Mundaye for the sum of 100 marks to him paid by Nicholas Fenyns, citizen and Alderman of London, by indenture dated, 28 March, 18 Henry VIII. [1527] sold the said premises to the said Nicholas and his heirs for ever: which said premises the said William Hayes gent., at the special request of the said John Mundaye by his charter dated 28 April, 22 Henry VIII. [1530] demised to the said Nicholas Fenyns, skinner, late Alderman of London and to Margaret his wife, and to Barnard Fenyns, John Worsooff, Everard Effmatt, Edward Barbour, Henry Standyshe and Alexander Whithead, writer, citizens of London: to hold to them and their heirs to the use of the said Nicholas and Margaret Fenyns, and their heirs for ever: of which said premises the said Dame Margaret Harward, sometime the wife of the said Nicholas Fenyns, after the death of the said Nicholas, was solely seised.

All the said premises are held of the Queen by the services due and accustomed and are worth per ann., clear, £10.

Dame Margaret Harward died 21 January, 7 Eliz. [1565]; Dame Juliana Hotcroft, widow, Anna Chapman now the wife of John Chapman and Margaret Crumwell now the wife of Francis Williams alias Crumwell are her daughters and co-heirs and are now aged respectively, the said Dame Juliana 35 years and more, the said Anna Chapman 27 years and more and the said Margaret Crumwell 20 years.

Thomas Pierson, Gentleman.

Inquisition taken at the Guildhall 24 May, 1569, before Thomas Rowe, Knight, Mayor and escheator, after the death of Thomas Pierson late of the City of London, gentleman, by the oath of John Haddon, Richard Henman, Stephen Walden, John Witton, John Noble, Arthur Raynscroft, Robert Dykynson, John Harryson, Adam Chatterton, Richard Adams, Edward Bowen, John Jenynges, Michael Smyth, and Thomas . . . who say that

Before the death of Thomas Pierson one Richard Bowland, gent., was seised of 1 messuage with shops, cellars, &c. lying in the parish of St. Pancras within the city of London sometime in the tenure of John Worsoppe: and 3 shops, cellars, warehouses and buildings situate within the said parish, and being so seised he on the 10th day of April, 11 Eliz. [1569] enfeoffed thereof the said Thomas Pierson and Joan his wife: to hold to them and to the heirs of the said Thomas for ever.

The said Thomas Pierson was likewise seised of 1 other messuage now or late called the "signe of the shipp" lying in Westchepe in the said parish of St. Pancras, next the small lane there leading from Westchepe towards the parish Church of St. Pancras, late parcel of the possessions of the said Richard Bowland, and which the said Thomas Pierson purchased to him and his heirs of the said Richard.

The said Thomas Pierson was likewise seised of 1 other tenement with the houses thereupon built, lying in the parish of St. Andoem opposite the Friars Minors of the City of London lately dissolved, to wit, between the tenement now or late belonging to the Church of St. Martin the Great, London on the east, the tenement now or late of the said Church, sometime of John de Evenfelde on the west, extending upon the highway there towards the north, and the tenement sometime of the said John de Evenfelde and now or late belonging to the said Church towards the south, late of John Coxstone, son and heir of Vincent Coxstone, citizen and skinner of London: which said tenement the said Thomas Pierson purchased to him and his heirs for ever of the gift of the said John Coxstone, as by his charter dated 20 January, 36 Hen. VIII. [1545] more fully appears.

The said Thomas Pierson was likewise seised of 1 other tenement lying at the Watergate of Castle Baynarde in the parish of St. Benedict Woodwharf, London, late parcel of the possessions of Hugh Councill and Robert Pystor, gentleman, and sometime in the tenure of William de Cawston and in the tenure of the said Thomas Pierson at his death: which said tenement the said Thomas purchased to him and his heirs of the gift of the said Hugh Councill and Robert Pistor as by their charter dated 13 August, 10 Eliz. [1568] it may appear.

So seised, the said Thomas Pierson made his will in the said parish of St. Pancras on the 1st day of November, 1568, and thereby bequeathed as follows: I give to my wife [not named] the messuage called the "signe of the shipp" lying in Westcheape in the parish of St. Pancras for her natural life, on condition that she pay yearly out of the rents thereof 4os. to Edward Pierson my son to be reserved as a stock for him, the same to be given to him at his age of 21: immediately after the death of my said wife the said messuage shall remain to my said son Edward and his heirs for ever. If the said Edward die before his said age of 21, then my said wife shall be no longer charged with the said payment and the money already put aside for him shall remain to Elizabeth and Phillipp my daughters, and be equally divided between them at their ages of 21 or days of marriage.

I also give to the said Joan my wife my messuage lying within Newgate Market wherein John Edriche, grocer, now dwells: to hold to her and her heirs for ever, on condition that she pay to Elizabeth Fissher now the wife of John Fissher 20 marks, and to John Stockdale, son of Henry Stockdale and Katherine his late wife 20 marks at his age of 21; and to Agnes Turke daughter of my late cousin Anne Turke, deceased, 20 marks at her age of 21.

I give to my said wife all my tenements and houses lying beside Baynards Castle until Edward my son shall attain the age of 21, and afterwards the same shall remain to him and his heirs for ever. If he die, the said premises after the death of my said wife shall remain to John Pierson my son and his heirs for ever.

The said messuage and shops lying in the said parish of St. Pancras are held of the Queen in chief by knights' service, to wit, by the 20th part of 1 knight's fee, and are worth per ann., clear, £7 10s. od. The messuage called the sign of the Ship is held of the Queen in free burgage, to wit, by fealty only and not in chief, and is worth per ann., clear, £8. The messuage with the houses thereupon built lying in the parish of St. Andrew is held of the Queen in free burgage, and is worth per ann., clear, £3 6s. 8d. The messuage lying at the Watergate of Castle Baynard is held of the Queen as of her manor of East Greenwich in co. Kent by fealty only in free and common socage and not in chief, and is worth per ann., clear, 25s.

Thomas Pierson died 8 May, 1569; John Pierson, citizen and court-hand writer of the City of London, is his son and next heir, and is now aged 23 years and more.

Joan late the wife of the said Thomas Pierson still survives in the City of London.

Rowland Shakerlie, junior.

Inquisition taken at the Guildhall 15 June, 12 Eliz. [1570] before Alexander Avenon, escheator, after the death of Rowland Shakerlie, junior, by the oath of John Haddon, Stephen Walden, John Witton, Michael Smythe, John Noble, John Harryson, Adam Chatterton, Richard Addams, John Keblewhite, Edward Bowen, Thomas Pierson, John Genynges, Arthur Rainescroft, Thomas Russell, Leveriche Foster, William Fermer and Richard Henman, who say that long before the death of the said Rowland, junior, to wit, on the 23rd day of May 7 Eliz. [1565] an inquisition was taken before Richard Mallary, Knt. escheator of the City of London, after the death of Rowland Shakerlie, senior, esq., grandfather of the said Rowland, junior, by the oath of John Haddon and others [not named] who said that the said Rowland Shakerlie, senior, was seised in his demesne as of fee of the manor of Aynhoo in co. Northampton, and of divers messuages, lands, &c. &c. in Aynhoo: and so seised, by his charter made at Aynhoo dated 10 June, 3 Edw. VI. [1549] he gave to Alan Horde, George Wright, James Foskyn and Francis Shakerley, gent., all the said premises: to hold to them and their heirs to the use of the said Rowland Shakerlie senior, and Anne his wife for the life of the said Anne for her jointure; and after her decease, to the use of the said Rowland, senior, and his heirs for ever.

The said Rowland, senior, died at Aynhoo 9 March, 7 Eliz. [1565], the said Anne surviving him.

The said Rowland, senior, was likewise seised in his demesne as of fee of the manor of Cawver alias Calver in co. Derby; of the 4th part of the manor of Sowldron in co. Oxford; 1 tenement in Westchepe in the City of London, commonly called the Unicorn, then in the several tenures of Thomas Thicknis and George Alein; and 1 tenement in St. Pancras in the said City, in the tenure of Ambrose Nycholas.

By his will made the 9th day of March in the said 7th year the said Rowland, senior, bequeathed as follows: [here given in English.]

I give to Rowland Shakerlie son and heir of Ralph Shakerlie my son and to the heirs male of his body my manor of Aynhoo at his age of 21; and for default, I will the said manor to Elizabeth Nycholas, Kateryn Longe, Crysten Hardinge, Alice Love and Mary Shakerlie my daughters and their heirs for ever. If Anne my wife die before the said Rowland accomplish the age of 21 years she shall by her will or deed appoint who shall occupy the said manor during the minority of the said Rowland.

I give to the said Anne my wife and to her heirs for ever 2 parts of my manor of Calver; also 2 parts of my tenement in Westchepe; all that my house in St. Pancras; and my 4th part of the manor of Souldron.

The said manor of Aynhoo and other the premises there were then held of Edward Earl of Derby as of his hundred of Kynsutton by the yearly rent of 6s. 8d., and are worth per ann., clear, £49. The said manor of Calver was then held of the Queen in chief by the . . . part of a knight's fee, and by the yearly rent of 17s. 9½d. by the name of tithe, and is worth per ann., clear, £12 6s. 0d. The said tenement in St. Pancras was then held of the Queen by fealty only in free burgage and is worth per ann., clear £10. The said 4th part of the manor of Souldron was then held of the Queen as of her hundred of Pawghley in socage by fealty only and by the yearly rent of 20d., and is worth per ann., clear, £9. The tenement in Westchepe called the Unicorn was then held of the Queen in chief by the service of the . . . part of a knight's fee and by the yearly rent of 12s. by the name of tithe, and is worth per ann., clear, £22 6s. 8d.

At the time of the death of the said Rowland, senior, the said Rowland, junior was his next heir, to wit, son of Ralph son of the said Rowland senior, and was then aged 1 year, 6 months, 3 weeks and 1 day.

The said Anne wife of the said Rowland, senior, still survives at Aynhoo.

The said Rowland, junior, died 7 May, 12 Eliz. [1570] without heir of his body; Anne Shakerley (who now survives) is his next heir, to wit, his sister, daughter of the said Ralph, son of the said Rowland, senior, and was then aged 7 years, 9 months, and 3 weeks: for which cause the said premises came into the hands of the Queen and ought to remain there until the said Anne comes to her full age.

Nicholas Chowne.

Inquisition taken at the Guildhall, 3 February, 12 Eliz. [1570], before Alexander Avenon, Mayor and escheator, after the death of Nicholas Chowne, by the oath of John Haddon, Richard Henman, Henry Sutton, Stephen Walden, John Wytton, Michael Smythe, John Noble, Robert Langwithe, Robert Dickenson, Richard Couper, Adam Chatterton, Richard Adams, John Keblewhite, Arthur Raynscroft, . . . who say that

John Payton was sole seised in his demesne as of fee of 1 messuage in Bushe lane in the parish of All Hallows the Great in Thamestrete, London, and so seised, enfeoffed thereof the said Nicholas Chowne, and Elizabeth his wife and their heirs : for default, the remainder thereof to the right heirs of the said Nicholas for ever, as by the charter of the said John Payton, dated 30 April, 4 & 5 Philip & Mary [1558] appears.

So seised, the said Nicholas Chowne died at Aldenham in co. Hertford 8 August last past ; the said Elizabeth survived him and still holds the said messuage.

John Best, citizen and haberdasher of London, was seised in his demesne as of fee of 3 messuages, commonly called le George, le Kinges Hed alias le Longe Entrie, and le Sonne in the several tenures of Robert Johnson, Richard Lee, and Edmund Cressewell, with all the shops, cellars, stables, &c., thereto belonging, lying in the parish of the Blessed Mary de Wolchurche Hawe in the ward of Brodstrete in the city of London ; and so seised, the said John Best and Rosa his wife enfeoffed the said Nicholas Chowne of the said premises : to hold to him for his life, the remainder thereof to the said Elizabeth, so long as she should live sole and unmarried, the remainder thereof to the heirs of the said Nicholas by the said Elizabeth ; and for default, to the right heirs of the said Nicholas for ever, as by charter dated 4 December, 1559, appears.

After the death of the said Nicholas the said Elizabeth entered into the said premises, and was thereof seised in her demesne as of free tenement.

John Eliot, citizen and mercer of London, was sole seised of 1 capital messuage or mansion now or late in the tenure of Anthony Morris, mercer ; also of 1 other messuage, now or late in the tenure of Henry Violet, clothworker, with all the shops, cellars, halls, kitchens, garrets, warehouses, &c., &c., thereto belonging : which said premises are situate in the said Bushe lane. So seised, the said John Eliott enfeoffed the said Nicholas Chowne and Elizabeth of the said premises : to hold to the said Nicholas for his life, with remainders as above, as by the charter of the said John Elliott dated 12 March, 2 Eliz. [1560], more fully appears.

The said Nicholas Chowne was seised in his demesne as of fee of 1 messuage now or late in the tenure of Walter Skcler, haberdasher of London, situate in St. Laurence lane in the parish of le olde Jurie, London; also of the reversion of 7 messuages in the parish of Holy Trinity, London, now or late in the tenure of Richard Bowle and Isabella his wife for their lives.

The said Nicholas made his will 17 March, 10 Eliz. [1568], as follows [here given in English]: I give to Elizabeth my wife for her life all my lands, tenements, &c., in the City of London or elsewhere; the remainder of all my lands and tenements within the borough of Sowthwarke in co. Surrey to William Chowne my son by my first wife, and to his heirs for ever; the remainder of my lands and tenements in co. Kent to George Chowne my son and his heirs for ever.

I also give to the said George and to his heirs for ever all my lands, &c., at the Stockes in London, now or late in the tenures of John Best, haberdasher, and Thomas Copcoate, grocer; also my tenement in Bushe lane now in my own tenure; also all my lands and tenements, reversions and remainders of my tenement in St. Laurence lane, the great tenement and another one which I lately purchased of John Elliott, mercer, lying in the said Bushe lane, and all my estate and interest that I lately bought of Richard Bowle, barber-surgeon of London, in 7 tenements in the parish of Holy Trinity "next unto Trynytye lane in London," on condition that within 3 months after accomplishing his full age of 21 years or at any time afterwards when required by John Chowne his brother he shall make a sufficient and good lease to the said John of the tenement wherein the said Thomas Copcoate lately dwelt, for 30 years, upon the determination of the lease which is already granted for certain years, for the yearly rent of £10.

If the said George die without issue of his body, then all the said premises shall remain to the said John and his heirs for ever; for default, the same to descend to Nicholas my son and his heirs for ever; and for default, then to Jane my daughter and her heirs for ever.

The messuage in Bushe lane whereof the said John Payton enfeoffed the said Nicholas Chowne and Elizabeth is held of the Queen as of her manor of East Greenwich in co. Kent by fealty only in free socage and not in chief, and is worth per ann., clear £5. The 3 messuages called le George, le Kinges hed alias le longe Entrie, and the Sonne in the parish of St. Mary Wolchurche are held of the Queen by fealty only, and are worth per ann., clear, £10. The premises in Bushe lane whereof the said John Elliott enfeoffed the said Nicholas Chorwe are held of the Queen in free burgage, and are worth per ann., clear, £8. The messuage in the tenure of Walter Skeler in St. Laurence lane is held of the Queen in free burgage and not in chief, and is worth per ann., clear, £40. The 7 messuages in the parish of Holy Trinity are held of the Queen by fealty only and not in chief, and are worth per ann., clear, £4.

William Chorwe is the son and next heir general of the said Nicholas Chorwe, and is now aged 21 years and more: George Chorwe is the lawful son and next heir of the said Nicholas by the said Elizabeth his wife, and is now aged 15 years and more.

The said Elizabeth, relict of the said Nicholas, still survives at Aldenham in co. Hertford.

John Howlande.

Inquisition taken at the Guildhall, 15 June, 12 Eliz. [1570], before Alexander Avenon, Knight, Mayor and escheator, after the death of John Howlande, by the oath of John Haddon, Stephen Waldon, John Witton, Michael Smyth, John Noble, John Harryson, Adam Chatterton, Richard Adams, John Keblewhyte, Edward Bowen, Thomas Pierson, John Fenninges, Arthur Raynescrofte, Thomas Russell, Leveridge Foster, William Farmer and Richard . . . who say that John Howlande was seised in his demesne as of fee of 1 court, 12 messuages, 14 stables, 1 cellar and 1 garden situate in a lane called Sething lane alias Sydone (?) Lane in the parish of All Saints, Barking, within the City of London.

So seised, the said John made his will concerning his messuages, lands, &c., in Newporte ponde and Weedington in co. Essex and in London, 28 July, 1568, in the parish of St. Margaret Moyses in Frydaie-street in the said City, and thereby bequeathed as follows:—

I give to William Howlande “my elder son of that name” and his heirs for ever an annuity of £4 going out of all my messuages, &c., in Sething lane, but if he sell the same to any person other than Robert Howlande my son or his heirs or any other of my children or their heirs to whom the reversion of the said premises is most likely to come, then the said annuity to cease.

I give to Gyles Howlande my son and his heirs for ever an annuity of £4 issuing out of the said premises, on like condition.

I give to William Howlande "my youngest son of that name" and his heirs for ever a like annuity of £4 out of the said premises, on like condition.

In like manner I give to James Howlande my son and his heirs for ever a like annuity of £4.

Also to Nicholas Howlande my son and his heirs for ever a like annuity of £4.

I give to Agnes my wife all my said messuages, &c., in Seethyng Lane for her life, she keeping the same in good repair; after her decease I give the same to my son Robert and his heirs male: for default, the remainder thereof to my son William, the eldest of that name and his heirs male; for default, to Giles my son and his heirs male: for default, to my son William the youngest of that name and his heirs male: for default, to James my son and his heirs male; for default, to Nicholas my son and his heirs male; and lastly, for default, the remainder thereof to my right heirs for ever.

The said messuages and other the premises are held of the Queen in free burgage, paying thereof yearly to the late priory of the New Hospital of the Blessed Mary without Bishopsgate London, lately dissolved, 1 red rose, and are worth per ann., clear, £5.

John Howland died 22 March last past; Richard Howland is his son and heir, and was then aged 26 years and more.

The said Agnes still survives in the said parish of St. Margaret Moyses.

Richard Onslowe, Esq.

Inquisition taken at the Guildhall, 11 June, 13 Eliz. [1571], before Peter Osborn, Esq., Thomas Fanshawe, Esq., and Humphrey Applegarth, gent., feodaries, after the death of Richard Onslowe, Esq., by the oath of Stephen Walden, John Witton, Thomas Hasellwood, John Harrisonne, Adam Chatterton, Edward Bowen, Robert Dickenson, John Fennynes, Robert Crippes, Anthony Garret, . . . Thomas Russell, Richard Smyth, Thomas Hackett and Henry Kinge, who say that Long before the death of the said Richard Onslowe, William Patrickson, gent., and Frances his wife, and Bartholomew Hales, gent., and Mary his wife, were seised, as in the right of the said Frances and Mary, in their demesne as of fee, of 2 messuages and 2 gardens, within the precinct of the Priory or House formerly of the Preaching Friars called the Blacke Friars within the City of London.

So seised, the said William Patrickson and Frances, having first obtained licence from the Queen by Letters Patent dated 4 November in the 2nd year of her reign [1560], by a fine at Westminster in 15 days from St. Martin's day, 3 Eliz., and afterwards in the Octave of St. Hilary in the said year, made between the said Richard Onslowe and Katherine his wife, plts., and the said William Patrickson and Frances, deforciant, acknowledged the said premises to be the right of the said Richard as those which he and the said Katherine had of the gift of the said William and Frances.

And the said Bartholomew Hales and Mary his wife by another fine made in the said Octave of St. Hilary in the said 3rd year between the said Richard Onslowe and Katherine his wife, plts., and the said Bartholomew and Mary deforciant, acknowledged the said premises to be the right of the said Richard: which said fines were levied to the sole use of the said Richard Onslowe and Katherine and the heirs of the said Richard for ever.

Francis Pycher was seised in his demesne as of fee of certain lands and parcels of lands in the Blackfriars, whereupon 4 several tenements were lately newly built, one whereof adjoins the messuage wherein the said Richard lately dwelt, now in the occupation of the said Katherine; another thereof is in the tenure of Peter Cartwright, silkweaver; the 3rd is in the tenure of Peter Cotruyne, hosier; and the 4th in the tenure of Francis Soyrenoye, cutler; all which premises lie within the said precinct.

So seised, the said Francis Pycher, by deed dated 10 April, 3 Eliz. [1561], for a certain sum of money to him in hand paid, enfeoffed the said Richard Onslowe and Katherine of the said premises, by the name of all that land within the said precinct extending to the messuage and garden late of Lucy Harper, deceased, and then of the said Richard Onslowe and Katherine on the north, the tenement late of Thomas Cawarden, Knt., deceased, and then of William More, Esq., on the south, the house of the said Francis then or late in the tenure of Garret Nyce on the west, and on the east to that part of the said messuage of the said Richard Onslowe abutting on the "Gallerie" of William Lord Cobham: to hold to the said Richard and Katherine and to the heirs of the said Richard for ever.

William More, Esq., was seised in his demense as of fee of 1 piece and part of a garden or parcel of land in the tenure of Philip Hobbie, Knight, now parcel of the garden late of the said Richard Onslowe, adjoining the said 2 messuages late of the said Richard, situate within the said precinct; and so seised, the said William More, by deed dated 26 April, in the said 3rd year, made between the said William of the one part and the said Richard Onslowe and Katherine of the other part, for a certain sum of money, demised the same to the said Richard and Katherine: which said piece of land was situate between the house and garden late of the said Philip Hobbie on the east, the garden of the said Francis Pycher alias Francis the Poste on the west, 2 small gardens, whereof 1 was then in the occupation of the said Francis Pycher and the other in that of Simon Palmer on the north, and the garden then of the said Richard Onslowe and late of the said Lucy Harper on the south, and containing from east to west $21\frac{1}{2}$ virgates, and from north to south $19\frac{3}{4}$ virgates, each of the said virgates containing 3 feet of assize: to hold to the said Richard and Katherine for 60 years, they paying therefor yearly 20s.

Afterwards the said William More by deed tripartite dated 28 May in the said 3rd year remised and for ever quit claimed to the said Richard Onslowe and Katherine all his right, title and estate in the said piece of garden late in the tenure of the said Philip Hobbie, Knt., in the reversion thereof and in the said rent of 20s. thereupon reserved: to hold to them and their heirs for ever.

The said Richard Onslowe being so seised, made his will the 20th day of March, 13 Eliz. [1571], as follows [here given in English]: If I and Katherine my wife die before the 12th day of February, 1591, my son Robert being then alive, then I bequeath to my children other than the said Robert, who shall then not be married, all my messuages, lands, &c., lying in Blackfriars in the City of London, and in cos. Middlesex, Surrey, Suffolk, Gloucester, Wilts and Shropshire, except so much thereof as with one moiety of the manor of Bromleigh in co. Surrey, one moiety of the view of frankpledge of Bromleigh and such of my lands as shall descend to my said son Robert of an estate in fee tail, shall amount to a full third part of all my manors, messuages, lands, &c., in 3 parts to be divided, the said 3rd part to remain to the Queen during the nonage of the said Robert: to hold until the said 12th day of February, 1581 [sic].

If I and the said Katherine and Robert die before the 20 day of July, 1583, my son Edward being then alive, then I bequeath to my children other than the said Edward all my said premises, except as before excepted, which shall amount to another 3rd part of all my said messuages, &c., to remain as above said during the minority of the said Edward.

If I and the said Katherine, Robert and Edward all die before the 1st February, 1583, then I bequeath to my executors all my said land, &c., except as before excepted: to hold until the said 1st February, in trust to pay to my daughters all the rents of the said premises for their better advancement.

I give to Katherine my wife 2 parts of all my lands, &c., for her life, for the preferment in marriage of my 5 daughters.

The said 2 messuages and 2 gardens late of the said William Patrickson and Francis and Bartholomew Hales and Mary are held of the Queen in chief, by 2 twenty parts of 1 knight's fee: the lands late of the said Francis Pycher, together with divers other messuages, tenements and gardens specified in certain Letters Patent dated 2 January, 35 Hen. 8 [1544], made to the said Francis, are held of the Queen in chief by the service of the 20th part of a knight's fee: and the said garden late of the said William More is held of the Queen in free burgage, and not in chief: all the said premises are worth per ann., clear, £13 10s. 0d.

Richard Onslowe died 2 April last past; Robert Onslowe is his son and next heir, and was then aged 10 years, 1 month and 25 days.

The said Katherine still survives within the said precinct.

Henry Wright was seised in his demesne as of fee of 1 messuage and divers tenements, houses and buildings called the Starre and the Ramme in the parish of St. Dunstan in Fletestrete, London, sometime belonging to the late Priory of St. John of Jerusalem in England, now or late in the several tenures of Robert Angell, William Charnock, Roger Covert, John Semyster, William Charnock, William Rudde, Nicholas Deane, John Wilkinson, Wilfrid Joye and John Taillor.

So seised, the said Henry made his will 13 April last past [here given in English] and thereby bequeathed as follows :

I will that immediately after my death my messuages called the Starre and the Ramme, commonly called Ramme alley in Fleetstreet, which I lately purchased of Gillam B . . llow of London, embroiderer, to me and my heirs for ever, shall wholly remain to Julyan now my wife for her life ; after her decease the same to come to my son Poule Wright and to the heirs of his body ; for default, to Elizabeth Wright my daughter, alias Elizabeth Floode daughter of Margaret Flood, and to her heirs ; for default, to William Payne and Edmond Payne sons of the said Julyan my wife, and their heirs ; and for default, the same to remain to my right heirs for ever.

The said premises are held of the Queen in chief by the service of the 20th part of a knight's fee, and are worth per ann., clear, £22 13s. 4d.

Henry Wright died in the said parish of St. Dunstan in the West 18 April last past, Paul Wright is his son and next heir, and on the first day of this instant month of May was aged 2 years 9 months and more.

Nicholas Throkmorton, Knight.

Inquisition taken at the Guildhall, 12 July, 13 Eliz. [1571], before Thomas Fanshawe, Esq., Peter Osborne, Esq., Ralph Bosseville, Esq., and Humphrey Applegarth, gent., deputy feodaries of the City of London, after the death of Nicholas Throkmorton, Knight, by the oath of Richard Adams, William Winthroppe, John Taylour, Alexander Sharpe, Richard Marston, Gregory Yonge, John Whighte, Lawrence Gowghe, John Wysedome, George Gwynne, William Buttermore, Cutbert Brande, George Miller, Robert Beamonde, Richard Alleyn, and William Gylberne, who say that Long before the death of the said Nicholas Throkmorton, Thomas Cornewallis, now or late of London, Esq., was seised in his demesne as of fee of 1 large messuage commonly called the Principall place, and 1 large garden thereto adjoining, and certain rent charges, viz., 12s. from the land of John Howe, 16s. from the land of Richard Ives, 8s. from that of Robert Alleyn, 3s. 4d. from that of Christopher Riddlesdon, and 3s. 4d. from that of David Robinson, yearly issuing and being in the parishes of St. Katherine Christchurch, and St. Andrew Undershaft in London.

So seised, the said Thomas Cornewallis by deed dated 15 August, 4 Eliz. [1562], sold the said premises to the said Nicholas Throkmorton, Dame Anne his then wife and their heirs for ever.

The said Nicholas being so seised, made his will 8 February, 13 Eliz. [1571], as follows [here given in English]: Whereas by deed dated 22 October, 2 & 3 Philip & Mary [1555], I granted all my manors, lands, &c., in Cosgrave, Pawllerspur, Silleston, Tighefelde, Luffolde, and elsewhere in cos. Northampton, Bucks and Oxford, immediately after my decease to Anne my wife for her life, with divers remainders over: I now confirm the same as "my verraye acte executed and fully perfected with playne intente and trew meaninge in every poynthe and condycion".

I give to Arthur Throkmorton my second son all the issues and profits of my manors of Aldermerston and Shrewlynche in co. Worcester and of all other my lands and tenements in the said county, to be taken by my executors during the minority of the said Arthur for his use: when he shall attain the age of 21, I give all the said premises to him and the heirs male of his body; for default, the remainder thereof to Robert Throkmorton my 3rd son and his heirs male; for default, to Thomas Throkmorton my 4th son and his heirs male; for default, to Nicholas Throkmorton my 5th son and his heirs male; for default, to Henry Throkmorton my 6th son and his heirs male; and for default, the remainder thereof to my right heirs for ever.

I also devise to the said Thomas my 4th son my mansion or dwelling house situate in the parish of St. Katherine Christchurch, and all other my lands and tenements in London: to hold to him and his heirs for ever after the death of Anne my wife.

The said great messuage and garden are held of the Queen in chief by knight's service, to wit, by the 20th part of a knight's fee, and by the yearly rent of 32s. and are worth per ann., clear, £3 18s. 11d.

Nicholas Throkmorton died 12 February last past; William Throkmorton is his son and next heir, and is now aged 17 years, 8 months and more.

The said Anne Throkmorton still survives in London.

John Browne, Esq.

Inquisition taken at the Guildhall, 18 April, 13 Eliz. [1571], before Rowland Hayward, Knight, Mayor and Escheator, after the death of John Browne, Esq., by the oath of John Haddon, Stephen Walden, Thomas Hasilwood, John Noble, Robert Langwith, Robert Dickenson, Richard Cowper, John Harryson, Adam Chatterton, Richard Adams, Edward Bowen, Thomas Peerson, John Jennings, Robert Crippes, Anthony Garrett, John Hartt, Thomas Bromley, Thomas Russell, Richard Smithe, Thomas Hackett, and Henry Kiinge, who say that

John Browne was seised of all that messuage with shops, cellars, &c., lying in Hart street in the parish of St. Olave near the Crutched Friars, London, sometime in the tenure of Robert Darknall, Esq., and 2 messuages lying in the said parish late in the several tenures of Martin de la Founteyne, alien, and Elizabeth Owen, widow, which the said John lately purchased to him and his heirs for ever of the said Robert Darknall.

So seised, the said John Browne, by charter dated 9 July, 2 & 3 Philip & Mary [1555], made between himself of the one part and Vincent Mundy, Esq., and Thomas Brend, citizen and writer of London of the other part, granted to the said Vincent and Thomas all the said premises: to hold to them and their heirs for ever to the use of the said John Browne for life; after his death to the use of Maurice Browne one of the sons of the said John and his heirs, for default, to the use of Charles Browne, another son of the said John and his heirs; for default, to the use of Edward Browne, another son of the said John and his heirs; and for default, to the use of Elizabeth, Anne, Gertrude and Cristian Browne, daughters of the said John and their heirs for ever.

The said John Browne was likewise seised of 2 messuages and tenements late in the tenures of the said John and of William Parker, situated in the parish of St. Albans, in Wood Street, London, and formerly granted for the maintenance of 1 priest to celebrate in the Church of St. Albans and for 1 anniversary to be celebrated there; also the reversions of all the said premises; also of 1 annual and quit rent of 16s. 8d. issuing out of the tenements and gardens adjoining called the Hartes Horne in Goldinge Lane in the parish of St. Giles without Creplegate, London.

So seised, the said John Browne made his will 17 September, 1570, as follows [here given in English]: First I desire that my chief and capital mansion house called Reynoldes in Horton Kyrby in co. Kent, and all the houses, barns, stables, &c., &c., thereto belonging, all those, my meases, lands, tenements, &c., &c., in the said parish of Horton or within the precincts thereof, all my lands and tenements in co. Kent, my capital mansion house in the parish of St. Albans in Woodstreet, my manor of Warslowe and Langnor in co. Stafford, all the meases, lands, &c., &c., to the said manor belonging, and all that my annual quit rent of 16s. 8d. payable to me out of the tenements and gardens thereto belonging called the Harts Horne in Goldinge Lane in the parish of St. Giles without Creplegate shall descend to William Browne my son and heir, which said premises surmount the 3rd part of all my lands, &c.: to hold to him and the heirs of his body; for default, the same shall remain to my son Charles Browne and his heirs; for default, to my son Edward Browne and his heirs; for default, to Maurice Browne [no relationship mentioned] and his heirs; and lastly for default, to my right heirs for ever.

I give to my son Charles the tenement next adjoining the southside of the said capital house in the said parish of St. Albans, now or late in the occupation of Phillip Dodd, haberdasher, with all the houses, shops, &c., thereto belonging; also my manor of Stretton in the Fielde in co. Leicester and Derby, with all the messuages, houses, lands, &c., thereto belonging in Stretton or elsewhere within the said counties: to hold to him and the heirs of his body; for default, the same to remain successively in tail male to my sons Edward, William and Maurice and my right heirs for ever.

To my son Edward I give my annual rent of 66s. 8d. yearly due to me and my heirs for ever out of a tenement in Rayleighe in co. Essex, late in the tenure of Richard Goslinge of Raileighe, gent.: to hold to him and the heirs of his body; for default, to my son Maurice Browne and his heirs; and for default, to my right heirs for ever.

I will that my executors during the nonnage of my son Maurice take the profits of the said premises and bestow the same upon his education and bringing up.

Whereas I am seised in fee absolutely of a certain tenement and lands in the parish of Micham in co. Middlesex of the gift of Benjamin Inglish: I now give the same to my son Edward and his heirs for ever, on condition nevertheless that if the said Benjamin within 1 year after my decease pay to the said Edward £50, that then my executors shall reassure the said tenement to the said Benjamin and his heirs for ever unconditionally.

If any dispute arise as to this my will, then I ordain that it shall be finally determined by 3 of my overseers, of whom I will my Lady Peter, my sons-in-law John Hall and Humphrey Browne to be two

The messuage in Hartstreet and the 2 tenements in the parish of St. Olave are held of the Queen in chief, and are worth per ann., clear, £4. The 2 messuages in the parish of St. Alban are held of the Queen by fealty only in free burgage and not in chief, and are worth per ann., clear, to wit, the messuage in the tenure of the said John Browne £6 13s. 4d. and that in the tenure of William Parker 53s. 4d. Of whom the said quitrent is held is not known: it is worth per ann., clear, 17s. 8d.

John Browne died 29 September last past; William Browne, gent., is his son and next heir, and was then aged 30 years and more.

John Traves.

Inquisition taken at the Guildhall, 30 January, 13 Eliz. [1571], before William Tooke and Ralph Bosseville, Esq., and William Necton, feodaries, after the death of John Traves, by the oath of Henry Sutton, Stephen Walden, Michael Smyth, Thomas Haselwode, John Noble, Robert Langwith, Robert Dickenson, John Harreson, Adam Chatterton, Richard Adams, John Keblewhyte, Edward Bowen, Thomas Pierson, John Fennynges, Robert Cryppes, Arthur Raynescrofte, Thomas Bromclye, Thomas Russell, Richard Smyth and Henry Kyng, who say that

John Traves was seised in his demesne as of fee of 1 garden and of one part of the fountain or well now being within the bounds of the said garden, and 1 house and kitchen built within the said garden, lying in Bell Alley in the parish of St. Botolph without Bishopsgate, London, late in the tenure of Richard Staunesfield; 1 messuage with shops, cellars, &c., lying in the street of Cornehill in the parish of St. Christopher, London, now or late in the tenure of Thomas Tyrrell; 1 messuage and tenement late in the tenure of John Freman, and before that in the occupation of Edward Pery, situate in the parish of St. Michael, Cornehill; 4 messuages and tenements situate in a certain Angiporte or the alley called Swanne Alley in the said parish of St. Michael, late parcel of 10 messuages lately purchased of Edward Elrington and Thomas Bentall, gent., which said 5 messuages are now made into 1 large house or capital messuage wherein the said John Traves lived.

So seised, the said John Traves by charter dated 12 January, 1 Eliz. [1559], in consideration of a marriage to be had between himself and Elizabeth Mynge, widow, and for the making of a jointure for the said Elizabeth, enfeoffed Anthony Wayte and John Southcote, Esqrs., William Stewright, gent., and Roger Warfielde, citizen and grocer of London, of the said messuage in the said parish of St. Michael in the tenure of Edward Pery, and the said 4 messuages in Swan Alley: to hold to them and their heirs for ever, to the use of the said John Traves and Elizabeth and the heirs of the said John for ever.

The said John afterwards married the said Elizabeth.

Thomas Francke, senior, gent., by the name of Thomas Francke, junior [sic], of Hatfield Regis alias Brodocke in co. Essex and Mary his wife, by indentures dated 24 May, 4 & 5 Philip & Mary [1558], made between themselves of the one part and Henry Mynge, citizen and grocer of London, and Elizabeth his wife of the other part, bargained and sold to the said Henry Mynge and Elizabeth a messuage with shops, cellars, &c., &c., lying in Bucklersburye in the parish of St. Stephen Walbroke in the City of London then in the tenure of the said Henry: to hold to them and their heirs for ever. Afterwards, to wit, on the 14th August, 5 & 6 Philip & Mary [1558], in the said parish of St. Stephen the said Henry Mynge had issue Anthony Mynge, and died, by reason whereof the said Elizabeth held the said premises. The said Anthony being seised of the remainder of the said premises died under age, whereby the said reversion descended to Alexander Mynge his kinsman and next heir, as elder brother of the said Henry Mynge father of the said Anthony.

Afterwards the said Elizabeth married the said John Traves by virtue whereof they were seised of the said messuage, &c.

The said Alexander being so seised by deed dated 24 November, 4 Eliz. [1563], sold to the said John Traves and Elizabeth his said reversion and all his estate and right in the said premises: to hold to them and their heirs, with remainder to the right heirs of the said John for ever.

The said John Traves and Elizabeth had issue James Traves who was aged 11 years on the 13 day of December last past.

The said John Traves made his will 24 January, 1569, as follows [here given in English]:

Whereas I bought of Mr. Elderton, Esq. and Thomas Bentall, gent., a messuage in the parish of St. Michaels in Cornhill and 10 tenements in Swanne Alley, out of which I made a jointure for my wife: and whereas I have sold 6 of the said tenements for the making of a "Monyment" now called the Burse, and of the residue thereof I have added to the tenement wherein the said John Freeman lived and have made a capital messuage wherein I now dwell: I now give the said mansion house, and 1 tenement and garden thereto belonging lying in Bell Alley without Bishopsgate to the said Elizabeth my wife and her heirs for ever, in trust that she pay all legacies and perform my will. I give my messuage which Mrs. Margaret Parsonnes, late of London, widow, deceased, gave to me and my heirs for ever, out of which there is an annuity of £4 payable to the Company of Merchant Tailors for ever, lying in the parish of St. Christophers "in the strete of Cornhill" to the said Elizabeth for life; after her decease, to Edmond Traves my son and his heirs; for default, to Thomas Traves my son and his heirs; for default, to William Traves my son and his heirs; for default, to James Traves my son and his heirs; and for default, to John Traves my son and his heirs for ever. The messuage in the tenure of Edmund Perye and the 4 messuages in Swanne Alley are held of the Queen by fealty only in free burgage and not in chief, and are worth per ann., clear, £3 6s. 8d. The said garden, part of the fountain or well and the said house and kitchen in Bell Alley are held of the Queen by fealty only in free burgage and not in chief, and are worth per ann., clear, 20s. The messuage in the said parish of St. Christopher is held of the Queen in free burgage by fealty only and not in chief, and is worth per ann., clear, 13s. 4d. The premises in Bucklersburye are held of the Queen in chief by knight's service, by what part of a knight's fee is not known, by the yearly rent of 10s. 8d., and are worth per ann., clear, £5 1s. 9d.

John Traves died in the said parish of St. Michaels, Cornhill, 19 February, 12 Eliz. [1570]; John Traves is his son and next heir, and was aged 18 years on the 2nd day of September last past.

Henry Becher, Citizen and Alderman.

Inquisition taken at the Guildhall, 18 April, 13 Eliz. [1571], before Rowland Hayward, Knight, Mayor and escheator, after the death of Henry Becher, citizen and Alderman, by the oath of John Hadden, Stephen Walden, Thomas Hasilwood, John Noble, Robert Langwith, Robert Dickenson, Richard Cowper, John Harrison, . . . Richard Adams, Edward Bowen, Thomas Peirson, John Fenninges, Robert Crippes, Anthony Garrett, John Harte, Thomas Bromley, Thomas Russell, Richard Smythe, Thomas Hackett and Henry Kinge, who say that

Henry Becher was seised in his demesne as of fee of 1 capital messuage or mansion house, late in the tenure of the said Henry situate in the parish of St. Christopher in the City of London; divers messuages, houses, lands, &c., in the said parish and in that of St. Bartholomew the Little; 4 messuages lying in the street called Friday street in the parish of St. Margaret Moyses in the said City; certain messuages, lands and tenements in the parish of St. Nicolas Colde Abbey in the said City, which the said Henry lately purchased of William Bromfilde; the manor or lordship of Frome Egford in co. Somerset; 8 messuages or cottages in Mangotfelde in co. Gloucester; 1 messuage called Calcot lying in the parish of Sturton in co. Wilts; the manor or lordship of Sutton alias Sutton Comborowe in co. Devon; the manors or late prebends of Carswell and Credy in the said county of Devon; the manor or farm commonly called Pasmers alias Tilehoste lying in the parish of Croydon in co. Surrey, and certain free lands, tenements and hereditaments thereto belonging.

So seised, the said Henry by indenture quintipartite dated 1 November, 9 Eliz. [1567], made between himself of the 1st part, William Fleetwood of Kymble in co. Bucks, Esq., of the 2nd part; Robert Smithies of the Middle Temple in London, gent., of the 3rd part; William Gibbes of the said Middle Temple, gent., of the 4th part; and Francis Waferier of the Inner Temple, gent., of the 5th part, agreed that he and his heirs and all other persons who at any time shall be seised of the manor of Frome Egforde, 8 messuages or cottages in Mangotfelde, 1 tenement called Calcote in Sturton, the manor of Busshoppes Morcharde, the capital messuage in the parish of St. Christopher, London, the houses, &c., as well in the said parish of St. Christopher as in that of St. Bartholomew the Little, and 4 messuages in Friday Street, shall be thereof seised to the only use of the said Henry Becher for life; after his decease, to the use of Henry Becher son and heir apparent of the said Henry and his heirs male; for default, to the use of Vane Becher another son of the said Henry and his heirs male; for default, to the use of William Becher another son of the said Henry and his heirs male; for default, to the use of Bartholomew Becher another son of the said Henry and his heirs male; and for default, to the use of the said Henry Becher the father and his right heirs for ever.

And that the said Henry and his heirs shall be seised of all the messuages, lands, &c., in the parish of St Nicholas, Colde Abbey, London, to the only use of the said Henry Becher the father for his life; after his decease, to the use of the said Vane Becher and his heirs male; for default, to the use of the said William Becher and his heirs male; for default, to the use of the said Bartholomew Becher and his heirs male; for default, to the use of the said Henry Becher the son and his heirs male; and for default, to the use of the said Henry Becher the father and his right heirs for ever.

And that he and his heirs shall be seised of the manor of Sutton in co. Devon, and in the manors or late prebends of Carswell and Credie in the said county, to the only use of himself for his life; after his decease, to the use of the said William and his heirs male; for default, to the use of the said Vane and his heirs male; for default, to the use of the said Bartholomew and his heirs male; for default, to the use of the said Henry the son and his heirs male; and for default, to the use of the said Henry Becher the father and his heirs for ever.

And that he will be seised of the manor or farm called Pasmers alias Tilehoste in Croydon and all the freehold lands and tenements thereto belonging to the only use of him the said Henry for his life, and afterwards to the uses successively in tail male of the said Bartholomew, William, Vane, Henry the son and Henry the father and his right heirs for ever.

After the death of the said Henry Becher the said several manors, &c., remained to his said sons in the manner aforesaid: the said Henry, Vane, William and Bartholomew still survive.

The said Henry Becher was likewise seised of the manors or lordships of Breane, HamsPELL Marise, and Pensforde in co. Somerset, and of divers messuages, lands, &c., thereto belonging; the manor or lordship of Rolston in co. Devon with the lands, &c., thereto belonging; the manor or lordship of Manby alias Nunbye Soke in co. Lincoln, with the lands, &c., thereto belonging; and 2 messuages in East Greenwich in co. Kent: all which said premises after the death of the said Henry descended to Henry his son and heir.

The said Henry Becher the father was likewise seised of a messuage called Goodales situate in the parish of Beauchampe Rotinge in co. Essex which he had of the sale and grant of William Collen of Southfield, Essex, yeoman, on condition and in mortgage for the greater security for the repayment of a sum of money to the said Henry Becher the father; the manors of Lymister alias Lane Mynster in co. Sussex, and Chayem alias West Chaym and Weightes in co. Surrey, which the said Henry had to him and his heirs of the sale and gift of John, Lord Lumley, under like condition and mortgage. After the death of the said Henry the said sums of money were paid and the said tenement and manors were redeemed.

The said capital messuage in the said parish of St. Christopher, London, is held of the Queen in free burgage by fealty only and not in chief, and is worth per ann., clear, £6 6s. 8d. William Powlett, Earl of Wiltshire.

Inquisition taken at the Guildhall, 20 June, 14 Eliz. [1572], before William Allen, Knight, Mayor and escheator, after the death of William Powlett, Knight of the Garter, Earl of Wiltshire, Marquis of Winchester, and late High Treasurer of England, by the oath of John Hadden, Stephen Walden, John Witton, John . . . Dickyson, John Harryson, Adam Chatterton, Edward Bowen, John Keblewhite, John Jenynges, Arthur Ranscroft, Thomas Russell, Henry Kinge, Anthony Barber, William Poye and Henry Rowse, who say that King Henry VIII was seised of the site, house and precinct of the late monastery or priory sometime of the Augustine Friars of the City of London lately dissolved, and so seised, by Letters Patent dated 22 April in the 31st year of his reign [1539], gave to the Marquis of Winchester by the name of William Powlett, Knt., Lord St. John the great messuage built by the said Lord St. John situate within the said precinct, and all the houses, &c., thereto belonging late in the tenure of the said Lord St. John; and 1 yearly rent of 40s. issuing out of the said premises: to hold to him and his heirs for ever.

And the said King being seised of the residue of the said site by Letters Patent dated 26 July in the 32nd year of his reign [1540] granted to Thomas Wrythesley, Knight, then one of his Secretaries, the great mansion then late in the tenure of Richard Riche, being within the said precinct; also 1 great hall, 1 bake house, 1 stable and 1 garden, late in the tenure of the said Richard Riche; also the messuage with garden thereto adjoining wherein William Sherlond then dwelt, situate next the messuage of the said Richard Riche, and all those . . . houses then late in the tenure of Richard Duke situate next to the houses then in the tenure of the said Richard Riche, 1 cloister and all that land, ground and building called the Cloyster, and the kitchen of the said Friars situate next to the said cloister on the east, and 1 curtilage and fountain lying between the said cloister and the tenement then in the tenure of the said William Shurlond; and the house then situate on the south part of the said curtilage; and all the messuage, hall, bake-house, kitchen, lands, &c., then within the said precinct, which then were of Thomas, Earl of Essex, attainted of high treason: to hold to the said Thomas Wryothlesley and his heirs for ever.

So seised the said Thomas Wryothlesley enfeoffed the said Marquis of Winchester and his heirs for ever of all the said premises.

By other Letters Patent dated 3 March in the 33rd year of his reign King Henry VIII granted to the said Marquis the messuage late in the tenure of Thomas Poulett and sometime in that of Marcellus de la More situate within the said precinct, and one small garden then enclosed with palings, next the said messuage, and the large garden thereto adjoining then or late in the tenure of the said Thomas Poulett, and sometime in that of the said Marcellus de la More and John Parnell of London, draper: to hold to the said Marquis and his heirs for ever.

By Letters Patent dated 25 November, 38 Hen. 8 [1546], the King granted to Laurence Harwarde and Stephen Tenante all the site and precinct of the said house of the Augustine Friars, then late in the tenure of Richard Moryson, and all the messuages, houses, building, and gardens within the said precinct, viz., the room called the Prior's chamber then late of Doctor Boland, and 1 garden lying on the south part of the choir there from the chapel of St. John the Baptist to the back gate on the street side, and then lately belonging by demise to — Howell; the large chapter house then being in the principal cloister, and the small chapter house then adjoining the choir, that part of the dormitory over the said choir called Calles alias "Thostrye," 2 vestries, one whereof lies under and the other over the chapel called the Duke's chapel, and then thereto annexed, with 1 curtilage thereto adjoining; 1 messuage and 1 curtilage thereto adjoining then or late in the tenure of Thomas Geffery and Agnes his wife; the room called Bachelors Gefferys Chamber then or late in the tenure of Robert Rough; and free ingress, egress and regress to and from all the said premises; also the principal cloister within the said house; the piece of land lying within the said principal cloister and the dormitories thereupon built on the west; the plot of waste ground situate between the Church of the said house and a house of Lord St. John called Staple Hall containing in length 126 feet and in breadth between the dormitories and the house called Mores house 14 feet, and between the porter's lodge and the said mansion called More's house 40 feet, lying within the said house: to hold to the said Laurence Harwarde and Stephen Tenante for ever, who enfeoffed thereof the said Marquis of Winchester and his heirs for ever. After the death of King Henry VIII the residue of the said house descended to King Edw. VI, who by Letters Patent dated at Leighes 22 July in the 4th year of his reign [1550] granted to the said Marquis all the upper part of the Church late of the Augustine Friars in the City of London, viz., the choir, the "crosse Ile," the chapels, the places and buildings called the "quire" and the "crosse Ile" and the chapels there, and all the land, soil and ground thereof: to hold to him and his heirs for ever.

The premises granted by Letters Patent dated 22 April, 31 Hen. VIII, are held of the Queen in chief by the service of the 10th part of a knight's fee; and those granted by Letters Patent dated 26 July, 32 Hen. VIII, are held of the Queen in chief by the service of the 10th part of a knight's fee; and those granted by Letters Patent dated 3 March, 33 Hen. 8, are held of the Queen in chief, by the service of the 20th part of a knight's fee; and those granted by Letters Patent dated 25 November, 38 Hen. VIII, are held of the Queen in free socage, to wit, by fealty only and not in chief; and those granted by Letters Patent dated 22 July, 4 Edw. VI, are held of the Queen as of her manor of East Greenwich in co. Kent by fealty only in free socage: all the said premises are worth per ann., clear, £8 2s. 8d.

The said Marquis died 10 March last past; John Powlett, Knight, Earl of Wiltshire, and now Marquis of Winchester, is his son and heir, and was then aged 66 [sic] years and more.

Jaques Fychett.

Inquisition taken at the Guildhall, 27 October, 14 Eliz. [1572], before William Allen, Knight, Mayor and escheator, after the death of Jaques Fychett, by the oath of John Haddon, Henry Sutton, Stephen Walden, John Wytton, Robert Langwith, Robert Dyckenson, John Harrison, Adam Chatterton, Richard Adams, John Jennings, John

Crowche, Edward Bowen, John Keblewhite, Thomas Peirson, Robert Cryppes, Arthur Râynscroft, Thomas Russell, Thomas Hackett, Henry Kinge, Anthony Barbor, William Poye and Henry Rockfeld who say that

Jaques Fychett was born in parts beyond the seas, viz., under the obedience of the King of France, and that by Letters Patent dated 30 January, 3 & 4 Philip & Mary [1557], he became a liege subject of the said King and Queen.

Afterwards, viz., on the 27th March, 3 Eliz. [1561], he purchased to himself and his heirs of Stephen Craskett 1 messuage called the Crane, situate in the parish of St. Olave, Hart Street, London, sometime in the tenure of John Hyde, and formerly belonging to the House of the "Crossett ffreyers" in London, as by the indenture of bargain and sale more fully appears.

On the last day of September, 1567, the said Jaques purchased to him and his heirs of John Raphe alias Davie and Anna his wife 1 garden or orchard, together with a small house called a "Shead," and 1 well in the said garden, situate on the north part of the stable of the said tenement called the Crane; which said garden was late in the tenure of John Hyde, citizen and innholder of London.

So seised, the said Jaques Fychett by his will dated 20 July, 1571, bequeathed the said premises as follows: I will that my wife have half the house wherein I now dwell, with the garden behind it; and out of the other half shall be levied for my daughter Agnes Fychett £250, being the same sum as my daughter Clemence had on her marriage with Robert Howell, and if there is anything left over, it shall be divided equally between them. The use of my said house and garden shall remain to my said wife for her life, and she is at liberty to sell it if she wishes so to do.

The messuage called the Crane in Hart street is held of the Queen in free and common socage, by fealty only, and is worth per ann., clear, 26s. 8d. The garden or orchard and the little house called the shed are held of the Queen in free burgage, and are worth per ann., clear, 10s.

Jaques Fychett died 18 September last past; Agnes Fychett is his daughter and heir, and is now aged 12 years and 6 days.

Elizabeth Fychett late the wife of the said Jacques still survives.

Joyce Withers.

Inquisition taken at the Guildhall, 8 February, 14 Eliz. [1572], before William Allen, Knight, Mayor and escheator, after the death of Joyce Withers daughter and sole heiress of William Withers, gent., deceased, being under age and in the wardship of the Queen, by the oath of John Haddon, Henry Sutton, Stephen Walden, John Wytton, John Noble, Robert Dickenson, Richard Adams, John Harryson, Adam Chatterton, Edward Bowen, John Koblewhite, Thomas Pierson, John Jennyns, Robert Cryppes, Arthur Raynescrofte, Thomas Russell, Thomas Hackett, Henry King, John Crowche, Anthony Barbour and William Porye, who say that

The said William Withers father of the said Joyce was seised in his demesne as of fee of 1 capital messuage called the Signe of the Wrestlers with 1 garden thereto adjoining, lying in Aldersgate street, in the parish of St. Botolph, London; and 6 messuages lying in the said street and parish, one whereof is called lez Flees: which said premises are in the several tenures of Anthony Roane, Esq., John Sotherton, gent., and Richard Cooke, and before in that of John Long.

So seised, the said William Withers, for the fulfilment of certain agreements lately made between himself of the one part and Anthony Babington of Tynmore in co. Stafford, gent., of the other part, and specified in certain indentures dated 1 December, 2 & 3 Philip & Mary [1555], enfeoffed Roger Stamford and Richard Whyte, junior, gentleman, of all the said premises: to hold to them and their heirs to the use of the said William Withers and Mary his wife, daughter of the said Anthony, and their heirs; and for default, to the use of the right heirs of the said William for ever.

The said William and Mary had issue the said Joyce, who was their only daughter and next heir.

The said William survived the said Mary: after his death the said premises descended to the said Joyce: they are held of the Queen in chief by the service of the 10th part of a knight's fee, and are worth per ann., clear, £10.

Joyce Withers died at Howndeslowe in co. Middlesex, 11 June, 13 Eliz. [1571], without heirs of her body, she being under the age of 16 years and in the wardship of the Queen: after her death the said premises descended to Andrew Wythers as her kinsman and next heir, viz., son and heir of Thomas Wythers, brother of Nicholas Withers, father of the said William Withers, father of the said Joyce: which said Andrew was then aged 24 years and more.

Stephen Kevall.

Inquisition taken at the Guildhall, 26 April, 14 Eliz. [1572], before William Allen, Knight, Mayor and escheator, after the death of Stephen Kevall, by the oath of John Huddon, Stephen Walden, John Noble, Robert Langewithe, Robert Dickinson, Adam Chatterton, Edward Bowen, Thomas Pearson, John Fenninges, Robert Crippes, Arthur Rainscrofte, Anthony Garrett, Thomas Russell, Richard Smithe and Henry Kinge, who say that William Kellye, citizen and butcher of London, was seised in his demense as of fee of 1 messuage, lying in the parish of St. Mary at Hyll, next Byllingsgate within the City of London, then in the tenure of John Lound, citizen and draper, and Michael Christian, citizen and merchant tailor of London.

So seised, the said William Kellye by indenture dated 24 January, 2 Eliz. [1560], made between himself of the one part and the said Stephen Kevall and Jane his wife of the other part, sold the said messuage to the said Stephen and Jane, by the name of all that messuage adjoining upon the house or tavern commonly called the Salutation on the east, the mansion house of the said William Kellye on the north, the mansion house of the said Stephen Kevall and Jane on the south, and upon the tenement belonging to the Chamber of the City of London on the west, and also by the name of all that alley or entry adjoining the said tavern called the Salutation leading to the said messuage, except and reserving to the said William Kellye all those buildings upon the said alley which belong to his said mansion house: to hold to the said Stephen and Jane and their heirs for ever.

The said Stephen was seised in his demense as of fee of 1 messuage situate in the said Salutation Alley in the said parish of St. Mary at Hyll, wherein the said Stephen dwelt at the time of his death, and so seised in the 1st or 2nd of Eliz. he enfeoffed thereof William Ryme, gent., and William Barker, merchant tailor of London: to hold to them and their heirs for ever, to the sole use of the said Stephen Kevall and Jane his wife and the heirs of the said Jane for ever.

Afterwards, viz., on the 9th November, 7 Eliz. [1565], the said Stephen by deed dated the said day and year granted the said messuage in Salutation Alley to the said William Barker and to William Sacham and their heirs for ever, to the sole use of the said Stephen and Jane and their heirs for ever.

The said messuage late in the tenure of John Lound and Michael Christian is held in free burgage of the City of London, and is worth per ann., clear, £10. The said messuage in the Salutation Alley is held in like manner, and is worth per ann., clear, £6.

Stephen Kevall died 13 April, 13 Eliz. [1571]; George Kevall is his next heir, viz., son and heir of John, brother of the said Stephen, and is now aged 32 years.

The said Jane, late the wife of the said Stephen, still survives.

Thomas Ellis and William Furden, citizens and merchant tailors of London, were seised in their demense as of fee, to them and their heirs, of 1 messuage, then in the tenure of Thomas Trips, situate in the street called the Olde Chang in the parish of St. Mary Magdalen in the ward of Bredstret, London, and so seised, by deed dated 4 January, 4 & 5 Philip & Mary [1558], they demised the said messuage to John Skutt and Thomasine then his wife: to hold to them and to the heirs of the said John for ever.

The said John was further seised in his demense as of fee of 1 tenement or shop in Old Fishestrete in the parish of St. Nicholas Cold Abbey in London, late in the tenure of John Ebden.

So seised, he made his will 17 August, 1563, and thereby bequeathed as follows: As for my tenement in the Old Change wherein I now dwell and my shop in Old Fish street, I bequeath them wholly to Thomazen my wife for her life; after her decease, I give it to my child if I happen to have one; for default, I desire that the said tenement be sold, and the money divided amongst John Mawe, son of Richard Mawe of Epworthe in the Isle of Axey in co. Lincoln, John Mawe and James Mawe, sons of John Mawe the elder of Epworthe who married my sister and — Skutt son of William Skutt of Epworthe my brother, at their ages of 21: if they all die before their full ages, I give the same to the rest of my brothers' and sisters' children. After my wife's decease, I give the said shop to the child of my sister Tinckeler, wife of William Tinckeler of Crowle in the said Isle and her heirs for ever.

The messuage in the Old Change is held of the Queen in free socage by fealty only and not in chief, and is worth per ann., clear, 40s. Of whom the said shop in Old Fishstreet is held is not known: it is worth per ann., clear, 10s.

John Skutt died 10 December, 1570; he had a brother named Richard who 7 years ago went to parts beyond the seas, and has not returned: if he is alive he is the brother and next heir of the said John, and is now aged 40 years and more: if he is dead, then William Skutt brother of the said John is his brother and next heir and is aged 30 years and more.

The said Thomazine late the wife of the said John Skutt still survives.

Robert Onslowe, Esquire.

Inquisition taken at the Guildhall, 31 August, 16 Eliz. [1574] before John Ryvers, Knight, Mayor and escheator, after the death of Robert Onslowe, Esq., an infant, by the name of Robert Onslowe son and heir of Richard Onslowe, Esq., deceased, late in the wardship of the Queen, by the oath of . . . Stephen Walden, John Wotton, Robert Langwith, Robert Dycconson, Adam Chatterton, Richard Adams, Edward Bowen, John Kéblewithe, Thomas Russell, Richard Smyth, Thomas Hackett, Henry Kyng, William Pövye, Anthony . . . who say that

By an inquisition taken at the Guildhall, 11 June, 13 Eliz.* [1571] before Peter Osborne and others, Commissioners after the death of the said Richard Onslowe, Esq., it was found that long before the death of the said Richard Onslowe, William Patrickson, gent., and Frances his wife and Bartholomew Halcs and Mary his wife were seised in the right of the said Frances and Mary of 2 messuages and 2 gardens within the precinct of the late Priory or House formerly of the Friars Preachers called the Blacke Freers within the City of London [reciting the whole of the Inquisition taken on the said Richard Onslowe].†

The said Richard Onslowe died 2 April last past before the taking of the said inquisition on the said 11 June, 13 Eliz.; the said Robert Onslowe was then his son and next heir, and at the time of his father's death was aged 10 years, 1 month and 25 days. Katherine late the wife of the said Richard Onslowe was then surviving in London.

The jurors now say that afterwards the Queen by pretext of the premises was possessed of the wardship of the body and the marriage of the said Robert Onslowe by reason of his minority, and so seised by Letters Patent dated at Westminster 29 October in the said 13th year,

* See Chanc. Inq. p. m., 13 Eliz., p. 1, n. 96.

† As this Inquisition is very long it was not considered necessary to abstract it all again, so the death of said Richard is merely given.

granted to the said Katherine Onslowe widow an annuity of £10 issuing out of the manor or messuage of Cowghley in the parish of Wenlock Magna in co. Salop, the manor, grange or messuage of Barton Graunge in co. Gloucester, lands and tenements in Rasper and Worth in co. Sussex, and certain lands and tenements in Womishe, Dunsfold, Allfold, Cranleigh and Bromleigh [?] in co. Surrey, certain lands called Otleys Mores and Coleforlong in co. Salop, in Latton and Eyfye in co. Wilts and Shorediche in co. Middlesex, the 3rd part whereof was then in the hands of the Queen by reason of the minority of the said Robert; also the wardship of the body and the marriage of the said Robert.

The reversion of the said 2 messuages and gardens late of the said William Patrickson and Franccs his wife and Bartholomew Hales and Mary his wife and of the said lands and parcels of lands late of the said Francis Pycher and which together with other messuages, &c., are specified in the Letters Patent made by King Henry VIII. to said Francis, and the reversion of the said piece of garden late of the said William More are in the hands of the Queen by the death of the said Richard and minority of said Robert. The said 2 messuages and gardens are held of the Queen in chief by 22 parts of a knight's fee. The lands late of Francis Pycher are held of the Queen in chief by the service of the 20th part of a knight's fee. The piece of garden late of the said William More is held of the Queen in free burgage and not in chief: all the said premises are worth per ann., clear, £13 10s.

Robert Onslowe, died 21 July last past; Edward Onslowe, esq., son of the said Richard Onslowe, is the brother and next heir of the said Robert, and was then aged 12 years and 12 days, and still survives at Stoke in the parish of Stoke in co. Surrey.

The said Katherine still survives at Knolle in the parish of Cranley in co. Surrey.

Francis Trappes and Anne his wife were jointly seised to them and the heirs of the said Francis, besides the manors of Bolton on Derne, Mixborowghe and other lands and tenements in co. York of 13 messuages in the parish of St. Augustines next Powles in London; and the said Francis was solely seised in his demesne as of fee besides a yearly rent of £40 in co. Lancaster and 3 messuages in St. Gyles Creplegate in the suburbs of the City of London, of 1 messuage called the Wildeman in Bushelane London; 1 messuage in Busshoppesgate strete London; 1 messuage in the parish of St. John Sacharies London; 4 messuages in the parish of St. Mary Axe, London; 2 messuages in the parish of St. Bartholomew in the ward of Brodstrete; and 2 messuages in the parish of St. Martin in the Vintrey, as more fully appears as well by an indenture dated 12 April, 14 Eliz. [1572] made between the said Francis Trappes of the one part and Thomas Norton and Peter Jones of the other part as by several recoveries shown before the justices of the Queens Bench.

So seised, the said Francis made his will 16 May last past at London and thereby bequeathed as follows: [here given in English]

I give to Anne Trappes my wife all my manors, lands, tenements, &c., &c., lying within the parish of Mexborowghe and elsewhere in co. York, and my messuage at Powles gate within the City of London for her life, according to the intent of a fine and recovery thereof made for the assurance of her jointure; also my messuage called the Wylde man lying within the said City of London for her life if my sister Francklyn so long do live; after the death of my said wife all the said premises so to her given to come to my executor for 17 years for the performance of my will. For this purpose and for the payment of my debts I also give to my said executor my messuage in Bysshopesgate street, now in the occupation of William Byrde citizen and mercer of London, 1 messuage with all shops, cellars, &c., in the parish of St. John Zacharies; and 3 messuages in Grubbes street near the said City of London, for the term of 17 years, and after the said term the same to remain to my next heir, unless I will the said premises to my other children. All the rest of my lands, being a full third part I will shall descend to my next heir, except the lands which I now give to the following uses: to my child unborn, if a son, and to his heirs for ever the reversion after the death of my said wife of the messuage called the Wildeman. I give to my son Robert Trappes and his heirs for ever, after the said term of 17 years, my said messuage in Bysshoppesgate street.

The said messuage in Bysshoppesgate street is held of the Queen in chief by knights service, and is worth per ann., clear, £8. The 13

messuages in the parish of St. Augustine are held of the Queen, by what service is not known, and are worth per ann., clear, £27 3s. 4d. The messuage called the Wilde man in Bushelane is held of the Queen, by what service is not known, and is worth per ann., clear, £10. The said Mary was seised in her demesne as of fee of 1 messuage situate in St. Marye Spittle, without the gate of the City called Bishopgate, commonly known as the Brickhouse, 1 orchard and a Backside thereto belonging, and so seised, by indenture dated 17 November, 15 Eliz. [1572], made between herself of the one part and the said Roger Wilkinson and Paul Wilkinson, younger sons of the said John and Mary of the other part, for the love which she bore towards the said Roger and Paul and towards Nicholas Wilkinson her elder son and for their better maintainance, and for the continuation of the inheritance of all the said premises in her blood, granted for herself and her heirs to the said Roger and Paul that she would be seised of the said premises to the use of herself for life; after her decease, to the use of the said Roger Wilkinson and his heirs; for default, to the use of the said Paul Wilkinson and his heirs; for default, to the use of the said Nicholas Wilkinson son and heir of the said John and Mary and his heirs; and for default, to the use of Edmund Plowden, senior, esq., and his heir for ever, by virtue whereof and by force of the Statute of Uses, the said Mary was thereof seised in her demesne as of freehold, with remainders as above.

The messuage called the Brickhouse and other the premises are held of the Queen in chief by knight's service, viz., by the — part of a knight's fee, and by a yearly rent, and are worth per ann., clear, 40s.

The said Mary died at London . . . December, 16 Eliz. [1574]; the said Nicholas was her son and next heir, and was then aged 30 years and more.

After the death of the said Mary the said Roger entered into the said premises and was thereof seised in his demesne as of fee tail, and so seised, the said Roger died 15 April, 18 Eliz. [1576] without heirs of his body; the said Nicholas was his brother and next heir and was then aged 31 years and more.

After the death of the said Roger the said Paul entered into the said premises, and was then aged 25 years and more.

Richard Hendman, Citizen and Broiderer.

Inquisition taken at the Guildhall, 28 May, 18 Eliz. [1576], before Ambrose Nicholas, Mayor and escheator, after the death of Richard Hendman, citizen and broiderer of London, by the oath of John Haddon, Stephen Walden, John Wytton, Robert Langwith, John Harryson, Adam Chatterton, Edward Bowen, John Keblewhite, Arthur Rayns-croft, William Poyve, Thomas Langham, John Jackson, George Gynne, William Armesbie, John Ireland and John Crowch, who say that

Richard Hendman was seised in his demesne as of fee of 1 messuage, wherein he then dwelt, situate in Cordeweyner Strete, otherwise Bowelane in the parish of St. Thomas the Apostle, London, abutting upon a curtilage of a certain late inn called Ipres Inne there towards the East, which said messuage he purchased to him and Anne his wife and their heirs for ever, of Thomas Stanley, Knight, and Dame Margaret his wife, and John Manners, esq., and Dorothy his wife: which said messuage together with 4 other messuages adjoining descended to the said Dame Margaret Stanley and Dorothy Manners after the death of George Vernon, Knight, their father, deceased, as his daughters and coheirs as by his charter dated 6 July, 8 Eliz. [1566] more fully appears.

So seized, the said Richard Hendman made his will the last day of June, 1569, whereby he bequeathed as follows [here given in English]: I give the messuage, wherein I now dwell, in the parish of St. Thomas the Apostle, with all the "Waynscott and Sealing" therein, after the decease of the said Anne my wife, to the Keepers or Wardens and Fellowship of the Company of Broiderers, London, and to their successors for ever, on condition that they distribute yearly for ever between the day of St. Thomas the Apostle and the Birth of Our Lord amongst the poor of the said Company of Broiderers 13s., to the Beadle of the same Company 4d., and to the poor of the parish of St. Thomas the Apostle 13s. 4d., and that they never let the said messuage for above £4 yearly, but if they fail to keep these conditions I give the said premises immediately after the death of my said wife to the parson and Church of the said parish of St. Thomas the Apostle and their successors, to the use of the said Church, on like conditions.

All the said premises are held in free burgage, and are worth per ann., clear, 53s. 4d.

Richard Hendman died 8 October, 12 Eliz. [1570]; William Hendman is his kinsman and next heir, viz., son and heir of John Hendman brother of the said Richard, and is now aged 44 years and more.

The said Anne survived the said Richard and took the profits of the said premises, the said Wardens and Fellowship of the Art or Mystery of the Broderers of London being seised of the reversion thereof.

John Draper, Citizen and Brewer.

Inquisition taken at the Guildhall, 2 June, 18 Eliz. [1576], before John Kytchin, esq., William Necton, esq., feodary of the City of London and Jasper Cholmesley, gent., by virtue of a writ addressed to them and to a certain Christopher Rythe, esq., after the death of John Draper, citizen and brewer of London, by the oath of John Haddon, Richard Smyth, Thomas Hackett, Stephen Walden, John Wytton, William Povy, Robert Langwith, Thomas Bromley, Robert Dickenson, John Harrison, Edward Bowen, Thomas Russell, Anthony Garrett, William Armesbie, John Kébillwhyte, John Jackson, Arthur Rānescrofte and John Wield, who say that

John Draper was seised in his demesne as of fee of all that messuage and garden with a way to the same leading from the street down by London Wall, late in the tenure of a certain John Glascocke; a messuage with a court or garden thereto belonging, late in the tenure of Peter Bosse; and 1 messuage late in the tenure of James Garrett: all which messuages lie together within the precincts of the late house of the Friars Preachers of London, lately dissolved; 2 parts (in 3 parts to be divided) of 2 messuages, 2 gardens, 30 acres of land, 20 acres of meadow, 20 acres of pasture, 30 acres of wood, called Vshers, situate in the parishes of Harnesey alias Haringey,* Fincheley and Hēndon in co. Middx., one part whereof the said John Draper lately had of the gift and enfeoffment of Richard Bois, gent., and Margaret his wife, and the other part thereof of the gift of Christopher Rythe, esq., and Marlian his son and heir apparent.

So seised, the said John Draper made his will 19 May, 18 Eliz. [1576], as follows [here given in English]: I bequeath the 2 parts of my freehold messuages, lands, &c., in the blackefryers near Ludgate to Margerie my wife for 21 years "toward the good brynginge vpp of Thomas my sonne in good nurture and learnynge," on condition that if my said son Thomas, or any other of my children which shall happen to be my heir shall attain their full age of 21 years so that they may sue out their livery of the said premises during the said term, then this my present demise shall thenceforth cease and be void. I give to my son Jasper Draper and his heirs for ever all my freehold lands in the parish of Harnesey or elsewhere in Middx. called Vshers or otherwise which I bought of Christopher and Marlian Rythe and of Mr. Bois. I give to Robert my son and his heirs for ever all my customary or copyhold lands lying in co. Essex, and in case of my death before I can make such surrender to him, I give to him a full third part of all my premises situate in the Blackefryers.

All the premises lying within the precincts of the late house of the Preaching Friars are held of the Queen by knight's service, in chief, but by what part of a knight's fee the jurors do not know, and are worth per ann., clear, £12. The said 2 parts of the premises in Harnesey, &c., together with the 3rd part of the same are held of Edwin Bishop of London as of his manor of Finchley, but by what service the jurors do not know, and are worth per ann., clear, 40s.

John Draper died 12 May last; Thomas Draper is his son and next heir and on the 11th of March was aged 12 years.

The said John had not surrendered all his said customary and copyhold lands in co. Essex to his son Robert, therefore his interest descended to the said Thomas Draper his son and heir.

Margaret Webb.

Inquisition taken at the Guildhall, 27 Oct., 18 Eliz. [1576], before Ambrose Nicholas, Knight, Mayor and escheator, after the death of Margaret Webb, by the oath of John Haddon, Robert Dickenson, John Harrison, John Keblewhite, Thomas Russell, William Armesbie, Roger Hoell, John Manbridge, junior, Thomas Langham, John Jackson, William Layer, Thomas Elyott, John Ireland, John Crowche, John Wytton, William Poyve and Richard Smyth, who say that Whereas by a certain Inquisition taken at the Guildhall, 26 Oct., 8 Eliz. [sic, ? 10 Eliz.] [1566], before Roger Martyn, knt., then Mayor and escheator, after the death of a certain John Webbe, citizen and sadler, father of the said Margaret, it is found that the said John was seised in his demesne as of fee of 1 messuage or inn called the White Horse then late in the tenure of the said John, with shops, cellars, solars, &c., situate in the parish of St. Katherine Christchurch within Algate, London; 1 garden then in the tenure of Richard Crasye [blank] Tawyer, between a garden there then in the tenure of Richard Taylor on the west and a garden there then in the tenure of [blank] Moore on the east, situate in Houndsdich in the parish of St. Botolph without Algate, London; also of the reversion of the same: which said premises the said John Webbe purchased to him and his heirs for ever, of the gift of Robert Harrys, esq., and William Barker, gent., as by a deed dated 7 March, 4 Eliz. [1562] appears.

So seised, the said John Webb made his will, 7 August, 1568, and thereby bequeathed as follows [here given in English]: I give my messuage called the White Horse and the said garden to Alyce my wife for her natural life. If it shall fortune the said Alyce to live until Margaret my daughter shall be married, then my said wife shall pay to my said daughter 40s. yearly. After the death of the said Alyce the said premises shall wholly remain to the said Margaret and her heirs, on condition that she shall not alienate the same. If she die without heirs, then I will that the wardens and commonalty of the "mistrye or Arte" of the Sadlers of the City of London shall enjoy the same messuage for ever, on condition that on Easter Day in every year they shall pay to the next of my blood and his or her heirs for ever 40s., and to the poor men of the said company other 40s.

The said messuage and garden are held of the Queen in socage by fealty only, and are worth per ann., clear, £5.

John Webbe died 12 August last past, the said Alice his wife entered into the said premises and took the profits thereof, with remainder to the said Margaret.

Now the jurors say that the said Alice married George Gynne whereby the said George and Alice were seised of the said premises, with remainders as before.

The said Margaret died 2 August, 16 Eliz. [1574], without heirs of her body, being within the age of 14 years.

The said George Gynne in right of Alice his wife, who still survives, takes the profits of the said premises.

John Layston, Citizen and Girdler.

Inquisition taken at the Guildhall, 18 May, 18 Eliz. [1576], before Ambrose Nicholas, knight, Mayor and escheator, after the death of John Layston, citizen and girdler of London, by the oath of John Haddon, Stephen Walden, John Wytton, John Harryson, Adam Chatterton, Edward Bowen, John Keblewhite, Thomas Russell, Thomas Hackett, William Povie, John Welde, Thomas Langham, John Jakson, George Gynne, William Ormesbie, Thomas Elyott and John Crowche, who say that

John Layston was seised in his demesne as of fee of all those messuages in the parish of All Saints, next Gracechurche, in the ward of Busshoppes gate, London, formerly called the "Scutt on the Hooppe," and now called The Lyon on the hooppe alias Lyon Alley, which he purchased to him and his heirs of William Fawne alias Johnson, citizen and innholder, as by charter dated 12 Nov., 3 Eliz. [1561] more fully appears and which the same William Fawne had purchased to him and his heirs of the Master and Wardens of the Merchant Tailors of the Fraternity of St. John the Baptist, as by a deed dated 18 December, 4 Edw. 6 [1551], more fully appears; also divers other houses, &c., there, late parcel of the said messuage, now or late in the tenure of Henry Crowder and Richard Scalyon: all which premises the said John Layston purchased to him and his heirs of Christopher Clifford, as by charter dated 14 Nov., 3 Eliz. [1561], more fully appears; 1 messuage called the Crossekeyes now or late in the tenure of Richard Ibotson, situate in Gracechurche strete within the City of London, late parcel of the possessions of the College of Pountefrete in co. Yorks, now dissolved: which said messuage the said John Layston purchased to him and his heirs of Richard Clyfton, citizen and skinner of London, and Margaret his wife, as by deed enrolled in the Hustings of London and dated 26 Dec., 4 Eliz. [1561] more fully appears; and divers cottages, situate in Mason's Alley, alias Duties Alley, alias Sprinckell Alley in the parish of St. Katherine Crichurche within Algate, sometime in the tenure of William Browne and late in that of Ralph Woode and formerly in that of William Remington, citizen and Alderman of London, late parcel of the possessions of the Priory or Monastery of Holy Trinity, commonly called the Priory of Crichurche, London; which said cottages the said John Layston lately purchased to him and his heirs of William Browne, citizen and haberdasher of London, and Joan his wife, as by a certain deed enrolled in the Hustings, London, and dated 20 Dec., 6 Eliz. [1563] more fully appears.

So seised, the said John Layston by deed dated 11 February, 10 Eliz. [1568], in consideration of a marriage to be had between himself and a certain Alice Westerfelde, widow, for a competent jointure to be made to her and in full satisfaction of her dower, granted to William Abraham, citizen and vintner of London, and to Henry Fisher of the parish of Bexley in co. Kent., gent., and their heirs, all the said premises to the use of himself and Alice Westerfelde and their heirs for ever.

Afterwards the said John Layston married the said Alice Westerfelde, and by virtue of the said deed and by force of the Statute of Uses, they were thereof seised, to wit, the said John in his demesne as of fee and the said Alice in her demesne as of freehold for her life, with reversion to the right heirs of the said John for ever.

The said messuage called the "leyon on the Hoope" is held of the Queen in free burgage and is worth per ann., clear, £8. The messuage called the Crossekeyes in Gracechurch St. is held of the Queen by fealty only in free burgage, and not in chief, and is worth per ann., clear, £10.

The cottages in Mason's Alley in the par. of St. Katherine Crichurche are held of the Queen in socage by fealty only, and are worth per ann., clear, £4.

John Layston died 1 April, 13 Eliz. [1571]; Robert Layston is his only brother and next heir and is now aged 50 years and more.

The said Alice still survives.

John Poulett, Knight, Earl of Wilts and Marquis of Winchester.

Inquisition taken at the Guildhall, 20 June, 19 Eliz. [1577], before John Langley, Knight, Mayor and escheator, after the death of John Poulett, knight, Earl of Wilts and Marquis of Winchester, by the oath of John Haddon, Robert Dyckenson, John Harrison, John Keblewhite, Robert Langewith, George Gynne, Thomas Russell, Thomas Hackett, Thomas Langham, William Povey, John . . ., William Laver, John Welde, John Ricardes and Edward Owyn, who say that Henry VIII, was seised of and in the site, house, &c., of the late Monastery or Priory of the Augustine Brothers within the City of London, lately dissolved, and all solars, houses, buildings, &c., within the same; and so seised, by Letters Patent dated at Westminster 22 April in the 31st year of his reign [1539] gave to William Powlett, Knight of the Garter, Earl of Wilts and Marquis of Winchester and late Great Treasurer of England, deceased, by the name of William Poulett, Knight, Lord St. John, inter alia, all that large messuage lately built by him (Lord St. John) within the precincts of the said priory, and all the houses, buildings, curtilages, &c., thereto adjoining or belonging then in the tenure of the said Lord St. John and to the said priory belonging; and 1 yearly rent of 40s., issuing out of the said messuage: to hold to the said Marquis and his heirs for ever.

And being seised of the residue of the said site the said King by his Letters Patent dated at Westminster 26 July in the 32nd year of his reign gave to Thomas Wriothesley, Knight, then one of his Secretaries, all that large mansion then in the tenure of Richard Riche, Knight, within the said site, and one . . . hall, one bakehouse, 1 stable, 2 gardens, and all the houses, &c., thereto adjoining, late in the tenure of the said Richard Riche; also all that messuage and garden adjoining, wherein William Sherlond then dwelt, situate next the messuage of the said Richard Riche, and all those rooms and houses then late in the tenure of Richard Duke situate next the houses of the said late King then in the tenure of the said Richard Riche, and 1 cloister and all that land, soil and building called the Cloister next adjoining the messuage then late in the tenure of the said Richard Riche and all the houses, &c., in, above and around the same adjoining the said close and cloister on every side thereof, and all the kitchen of the said brothers situate next the said close on the east side, and 1 curtilage and well lying between the said cloister and the said tenement of the said William Shurland; the house then situate on the south side of the said curtilage; and all the messuages, hall, bakehouse, &c., within the precincts of the said House, which were then late of Thomas Earl of Essex, attainted of high treason: to hold to the said Thomas Wriothesley and his heirs for ever.

So being thereof seised in his demesne as of fee the said Thomas, by licence of the King, enfeoffed thereof the said William Marquis of Winchester: to hold to him and his heirs for ever.

And the said King by other Letters Patent dated at Westminster 3 March in the 33rd year of his reign [1542] gave to the said William Marquis of Winchester by the name of William Poulett, knight, Lord St. John, all that messuage late in the tenure of Thomas Poulett and formerly in that of Marcellus de la More within the precincts of the said priory and late parcel of the possessions of the said Augustine Brothers, and all cellars, solars, &c., thereto belonging; 1 small garden next the said messuage; and also all that large garden to the said messuage and small garden adjoining, within the site of the said late priory then or heretofore in the tenure of the said Thomas Powlett and formerly in that of the said Marcellus de la More and of John Parnell of London, Draper: to hold to the said late Marquis and his heirs for ever.

The said King by Letters Patent dated at Westminster the 25th November in the 38th year of his reign [1546] gave inter alia to Lawrence Harwarde and Stephen Tenannte all that site, &c., of the said Brothers then or late in the tenure of Richard Morison and all the walls and enclosure surrounding the said site, viz., all that chamber called the Priors Chamber, then late of Doctor Bowlande and 1 garden adjoining, on the south side of the choir there from the chapel of St. John the Baptist to "the backgate on the streteside," then late belonging of the demise of — Howell; all that large chapter house then in the principal cloister, and the small chapter house then adjoining the hoir there; all that part of the dormitory above the said choir called Callys alias Mostery, and 2 vestries, one of which lies under and the other above the chapel called the Dukes Chapple, then thereto annexed, with 1 curtilage thereto adjoining situate within the precincts of the said late House; all that messuage with cellars, solars, &c., and 1 curtilage thereto adjoining then or late in the tenure of Thomas Geffry and Agnes his wife; and all that chamber called Bachillers [sic] Geffreyes Chamber then or late in the tenure of Robert Roughe and free ingress and egress to and from the said premises: which said premises were then demised together to the said Richard Morison and belonged to the said late House of the Augustine Brothers; also all that principal cloister within the said House and all that piece of land lying within the said principal cloister and the dormitory built above the said cloister on the west side, and all that plot of waste land situate between the Church of the said House and a certain house of Lord St. John called Staplehall, in length 126 feet and in width between the dormitory and the house called More's Howse 14 feet and between the Porters Lodge and Mores House 40 feet, situate within the said site and belonging to the same: to hold to him and his heirs for ever.

And so being thereof seised in their demesne as of fee the said Lawrence and Stephen enfeoffed thereof the said Marquis of Winchester and his heirs for ever.

The said King died seised of the residue of the said site which descended to Edward 6 late King of England who by his Letters Patent dated at Leighes 22 July in the 4th year of his reign [1550] gave to the said late Marquis of Winchester the whole of the upper part of the Church of the said Augustine Brothers, viz., the choir and the Crosse Ile and the Chapels within the same and all the land and buildings, profits, &c., as fully, freely and wholly as they then were: to hold to him and his heirs for ever.

After the death of the said Marquis the said premises descended to John Poulett, Knight, late Earl of Wilts, &c., as his son and heir, who being thereof seised in his demesne as of fee enfeoffed Christopher Hatton, esq., of all the said messuages late in the tenure of the said Thomas Poulett and formerly in that of Marcellus de la More with all cellars, &c., thereto belonging, and 1 garden late within the precincts of the said priory adjoining the said messuages and now enclosed on the east side by the said messuages, the house of Nicholas Bluntt and a wall called the Bricke wall of the said John Marquis of Winchester, and on the west by a wall called a Stonewall and the building of the said house dividing the said garden from the garden commonly called the Drapers Garden, and on the north side by the porch of the said Marquis, and on the south side by the building of the said house: to hold to him and his heirs for ever of the chief lords of that fee by the rent and service thereof due and accustomed.

The lands and premises granted by the said Letters Patent dated 22 April, 31 Hen. 8 [1539] are held of the Queen in chief by the service of a tenth part of a knight's fee; those granted by Letters Patent dated 26 July, 32 Hen. 8 [1540] of the Queen by knight's service, namely, by the 20th part of a knight's fee; those granted by Letters Patent dated 3 March, 33 Hen. 8 [1542] of the Queen in chief by the service of the 20th part of a knight's fee; those granted by Letters Patent 25 November, 38 Hen. 8 [1546] of the Queen in free socage by fealty only and not in chief; those granted by Letters Patent 22 July, 4 Edw. 6 [1550] of the Queen as of her manor of Greenwich, in co. Kent, by fealty only, in free socage: all the premises of which the said John late Marquis died seised in manner aforesaid are worth per ann.,

The said Marquis died 4 November last past; William Powlett, Knight, Earl of Wilts and Marquis of Winchester, is his son and next heir, and was then aged 40 years and more.

Robert Trappes, Mercer.

Inquisition taken at the Guildhall, 5 December, 19 Eliz [1576], before William Tooke, esq., Edward Heron, esq., and William Necton, gent., feodary, commissioners, after the death of Robert Trappes, mercer of London, by the oath of John Haddon, John Witton, Robert Dickenson, John Harrison, John Keblewhite, John Feninges, Thomas Russell, William Armesby, Thomas Langhame, John Jackson, William Laier, John Crowche, William Povey, John Welde, Thomas Ellyott, Griffin Jones, and John Stodderd, who say that Long before the death of the said Robert Trappes, one Robert Trappes, citizen and goldsmith of London, father of the said Robert, was seised in his demesne as of fee, inter alia, of 1 messuage in the parish of St. Botolph in Thamestreate, London, late in the tenure of William Clyut, and 45 messuages in the parish lately called St. Nicholas in the Fleshambles and now called the parish of Christchurch, London: and he being so seised, Henry Saxye and Thomas Lewys in Hilary term 4 Edw. 6 [1550] by a writ of entry super disseisinam in le post before the Justices of the Bench at Westminster recovered the said tenements against the said Robert: which said recovery was had to the use of the said Robert Trappes, goldsmith, and Joan his wife for their lives; after their decease, to the use of the said Robert Trappes (named in the Commission) and the heirs male of his body; for default, to the use of Francis Trappes and the heirs male of his body; for default, to the use of Joyce Saxye, daughter of the said Robert Trappes, senior, and the heirs of her body; and for default, to the use of the right heirs of the said Robert Trappes, goldsmith, for ever, by virtue whereof and by force of the Statute of Uses the said Robert and Joan were seised of the said premises in their demesne as of freehold, with remainders as above. After the death of the said Robert and Joan the said Robert Trappes, junior, entered into the same and was thereof seised in his demesne as of fee tail.

The said Robert Trappes, goldsmith, was also seised in his demesne as of fee of 9 messuages situate in the parish of St. Leonard and St. John Zacharie, London; 1 messuage called the Helmet in the parish of St. Michael in Cornewell [sic] London; and so seised, a fine was levied in the Octaves of St. Hilary, 3 Edw. 6 [1549] and afterwards in the Quindene of Easter 4 Edw. 6 [1550], between Henry Saxye and John Campnet, plts., and the said Robert Trappes, goldsmith, by the name of Robert Trappes, senior, esq., and Joan his wife, deforciant of the said premises, inter alia, in the said parishes of St. Leonard, St. John Saccarye and St. Michael in Cornewell, whereby the said Henry Saxye and John Compnet delivered the said tenements to the said Robert and Joan for their lives, with remainder thereof to the said Robert Trappes, junior, son of the said Robert Trappes, senior, and the heirs of his body with divers remainders over.

The said Robert Trappes, goldsmith, was likewise seised of 9 messuages situate in Mayden Lane and Huggyn Lane, London, then or late in the tenure of Richard Bradshawe, Robert Danbye, and George Smythe; 4 messuages situate in Fryday Strete and Watling Strete, then or late in the several tenures of Richard Bourne, George Shipper, John Hawse, and Thomas Bodye; 5 messuages situate in Mylkstrete ende within the said City, now or late in the several tenures of William Carewe, John Malyard, Roger Alynson, Ralph Woodstocke and John Foxe; and divers messuages, tenements, wharves, quays, &c., lying next Fletestreate, London, in the parish of St. Bridget the Virgin then or late in the tenure of John Huycke, doctor.

And so seised of the said tenements last recited, the said Robert Trappes, goldsmith, by charter dated 1 July, 3 & 4 Philip and Mary [1557], gave the same to Nicholas Johnson and Thomas Mustchampe, citizens and goldsmiths of London and their heirs for ever, to the use of the said Robert Trappes, senior, and Joan his wife for their lives, and after their decease to the use of the said Robert Trappes, junior, and the heirs male of his body, with divers remainders over.

The said message in the parish of St. Botolph is held of the Queen in chief, by the service of the 20th part of a knight's fee, and by the yearly rent of 2s. 8d., and is worth per ann., clear, 26s. 8d. The 45 messuages in the parish of St. Nicholas in the Fleshambles are held of the Queen in chief, by knight's service, but by what part of a fee the jurors do not know, and are worth per ann., clear, £30. The 9 messuages situate in the parish of St. Leonard and St John Zackarie and the message in the parish of St. Michael, Cornewell, London, are held of the Queen, but by what services is not known, and are worth per ann., clear, £31. The messuages in Maden Lane, Huggyn Lane, Frydaye Strete, Watlinge Strete, Mylkstrete end and next Flytestrete in the said parish of St. Bridget are held of the Queen, but by what service the jurors do not know, and they are worth per ann., clear, £40.

Robert Trappes (named in the Commission) died 2 November, last past; Robert Trappes is his son and next heir and on the 21st of August last was aged 18 years.

Thomas Walker, Citizen and Leatherseller.

Inquisition taken at the Guildhall, 10 December, 19 Eliz. [1576], before William Necton, gent., feodary, and Thomas Holcroft, gent., commissioners by virtue of a writ de melius inquirendum after the death of Thomas Walker, citizen and leatherseller of London, by the oath of Humphrey Browne, Thomas Hunt, Richard Hewson, Edmund Puckell, John Collett, Oliver Swayne, William Lewson, Thomas Wiggone, Oliver Skinner, George Clough, William Barker, Richard Bell, Michael Atkyns, Thomas Russell, Thomas Ellyott and William Layer, who say that Whereas by a certain Inquisition taken at the Guildhall, London, 8 March, 16 Eliz. [1574], before John Ryvers, then Mayor and escheator of the said City after the death of the said Thomas Walker by the oath of John Haddon, &c., it was found that the said Thomas Walker was seised in his demesne as of fee of 1 capital messuage with 2 messuages next adjoining thereto situate in Mynchon Lane in the parish of St. Dunstan in the East, London, now or late in the several tenures of Henry Lane and Ambrose Pervoy; 1 piece of land situate in the parish of All Saints Stayninges within the Ward called Tower Ward within the said City, now or late in the tenure of John Barker, whereupon the said Thomas Walker had built a messuage abutting upon a lane called Mark Lane.

So seised, the said Thomas Walker made his will on the 26th day of September, 11 Eliz. [1569] [here given in English] as follows:—

I give to Elizabeth my daughter and her heirs my mansion house wherein I now dwell with the 2 tenements adjoining, with the one half of the nether part of the garden, and with all that part of the garden lying afore the house southward and of that part eastward “the palle that now stands by Mr. Jacobes house to be taken up and set against that my marke in the bricke wall Northwarde alonge the Churchyarde of all Holloesteyninge And so the same pall to go from the marke straighte overwarthe southwarde to the Backhouse of Mr. Jacobe Surgeon And so all that part from the said palle to the newe house Estward to long the said newe house.” The rest of the said garden to go to my said mansion house, to the part of my daughter Elizabeth.

I give to my daughter Jane the beforementioned new house lying in Marke lane with that part of the garden beforementioned, to her and her heirs for ever.

And that messuage is the said messuage lately built upon the said parcel of ground.

The said capital messuage and the said 2 messuages thereto adjoining are held of the Queen in free burgage, and are worth per ann., clear, 20 marks. The said piece of land and messuage built thereon are held of the Queen as of her manor of East Greenwich in co. Kent in free socage, by fealty only and not in chief, and are worth per ann., clear, £10.

Thomas Walker died 12 August, 11 Eliz. [1569]; Elizabeth Walker and Jane Walker are his daughters and next heirs: the said Elizabeth was then aged 10 years and more and the said Jane 7 years and more.

Mary Brackenburie, deceased, late the wife of Richard Brackenburie and formerly the wife of the said Thomas Walker, and the said Richard Brackenburie took the issues and profits of the said tenements. And because the Queen believes that the same lands are held by other or more services than are specified in the above-recited Inquisition, her Majesty has appointed the said Commissioners to enquire of whom the said lands and tenements are held and in what manner, &c. Now the said jurors of this Inquisition say that the said lands and tenements are held of the said Queen in the same manner and form as is contained in the above Inquisition.

Chan. Inq. p. m., 19 Eliz., part 2, No. 21.

John Lee, late Citizen and Writer of Courthand.

Inquisition taken at the Guildhall, 17 August, 19 Eliz. [1577] before John Langley, Knight, Mayor and escheator, after the death of John Lee, late citizen and writer of Courthand, by the oath of John Haddon, Robert Dickensor, John Harrison, John Keblewhite, Arthur Reinescrofte, Robert Langwith, George Gynne, Thomas Russell, Thomas Hacket, William Armesbie, Thomas Langham, John Jackson, William Povie, Thomas Eliot, John Ricardes, Anthony Barbor, John Stodderd and Edward Owen, who say that John Lee was seised in his demesne as of fee of 1 messuage called the Spled Egle alias the Black Egle now or late in the tenure of the said John, situate in the parish of St. Michael in great Woodstret; 1 other messuage in Great Woodstret in the said parish, with all buildings whatsoever, now or late in the tenure of Robert Wilson, citizen and merchant tailor of London; and 1 messuage in great Woodstret, now or late in the tenure of Richard Johans, citizen and tanner.

All the said premises are held of the Queen in free burgage, and are worth per ann., clear, £4.

John Lee died 24 January, 8 Eliz. [1566] Elizabeth Williamson, widow, late the wife of Thomas Williamson, merchant tailor, is his daughter and heir, and was then aged 24 years and more.

Chan. Inq. p. m., 19 Eliz., part 2, No. 22.

Thomas Archer, Gentleman.

Inquisition taken at the Guildhall, 16 Feb., 19 Eliz. [1577] before William Tooke, esq., Thomas Lodge, gent., Richard Gadburie, gent., and William Necton, gent., feodary, Commissioners, after the death of Thomas Archer of London, gent., by the oath of John Haddon, Robert Dickenson, John Harrison, Thomas Russell, Thomas Hackett, William Armesbie, John Jackson, George Gynne, William Loyer, John Crowche, William Povey, John Welde, Griffin Jones, John Stodderde and Thomas Elliott, who say that Long before the death of the said Thomas Archer, King Henry 8 was seised in his demesne as of fee in right of his Crown, of 1 capital messuage in the parish of St. Margaret, Lothburye within the City of London, to the late Priory of Marton in co. Surrey formerly belonging, then or late in the tenure of the said Thomas Archer, and all the houses, buildings, &c., in the said parish demised to the said Thomas.

So seised, the said King by Letters Patent dated 26 September in the 36th year of his reign [1544] granted the said premises to John Pope of London, gent., and to Anthony Forster of London, gent.; to hold to them and to the heirs of the said John Pope for ever, to be held in free burgage.

And the said John Pope and Anthony Forster being so thereof seised by charter dated 27 September, 36 Hen. 8 [1545] enfeoffed thereof the said Thomas Archer; to hold to him and his heirs for ever.

After the death of the said Thomas Archer the said premises descended to Michael Archer his son and heir who by charter dated 1 October, 4 and 5 Philip and Mary [1557] enfeoffed thereof Roger Manwood, then esquire, and now one of the Justices of the Queen's Bench: to hold to him and his heirs for ever.

All the said premises are held of the Queen in free burgage, and are worth per ann., clear, £10.

Thomas Archer died 6 July, 4 Edw. 6 [1550]; Michael Archer is his son and next heir and was then aged 16 years.

INTRODUCTION.

THIS volume, the twenty-seventh issued in the INDEX LIBRARY, gives references to upwards of 20,000 Leicestershire Wills and Administrations registered in the Court of the Archdeacon of Leicester between 1495 and 1649, and some 2,500 testamentary dispositions registered in the several 'Peculiar' Courts within the same county prior to 1801; the whole of the records referred to being now preserved in the Probate Registry at Leicester.

The calendars here printed for the first time have been compiled from two sources, namely, from the official Indexes as far as they exist, and where it was found that the latter were intricate or wanting, from the records themselves, in order to make the volume as complete as possible for the period it covers.

The jurisdiction of the Court of the Archdeacon of Leicester was confined to the whole county of Leicester, which until 1837 was included within the great see of Lincoln. The exact date when the Archdeacons of Leicester began to claim their testamentary jurisdiction is not clearly known, but it is evident, from records extant, that as far back as the reign of Edward III, if not earlier, they exercised their right to issue grants. We learn from the Woodford Cartulary in the British Museum that the Will of Alice Woodford of Brentingby, co. Leicester, was proved before the official of the Archdeacon of Leicester in the church of Melton Mowbray, 13 kal. January, 1333, and that probate of the Will of Sir John de Wodeford of Brentingby was granted by the same authority in St. Martin's Church, Leicester, 27th August, 1401. No records, however, of this early date now exist.

The Court was formerly governed by a Commissary and Official, who was appointed by the Bishop of Lincoln, and who exercised the authority of Official Principal and Vicar General under the Archdeacon. Occasionally these offices were vested in two persons who held separate Courts and exercised concurrent jurisdiction. During inhibition the Court was held by the Bishop of the diocese or his Chancellor. The Registrar of the Court was appointed by the Bishop.

It will be convenient to give here some particulars of the records extant in the Registry and of the Calendars or Indexes and Register Books of Wills, etc., now in use.

I. CALENDARS.

- Vol. 1. Transcripts of Wills only, 1500-1579, with some undated records of the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries.
- „ 2. Original Wills, 1580-1642, inclusive.
- „ 3. Administrations, 1594-1641, inclusive.
- „ 4. Wills, 1643-1649. Administrations, 1642-1649. Inventories, 1643-1649, inclusive.
- (N.B.—There are no records between 1649 and 1660.)
- „ 5. Wills and Administrations, 1660-1679. Inventories, 1665-1679, inclusive.
- „ 6. Wills, Administrations, and Inventories, 1680-1693.
- „ 7. Wills and Administrations, 1694-1749, and thence in regular order to the present time.

An original sixteenth-century Index to Wills proved between about 1500 and 1558 is still preserved, which contains the names of several hundred testators, whose records no longer exist; also there is a defective Index to the earliest Administrations prior to 1594, many of the Bonds for which are now missing. There is also preserved an Index to a number of Wills and Administrations which for various reasons were not proved or completed. An alphabetical list of such records from the earliest, 1576, to 1800 has been prepared and printed at the end of this volume (vide p. 237).

II. WILLS.

These for convenience may be grouped into three classes, namely: (1) loose transcripts, (2) originals, and (3) registered copies in books. The earliest separate testamentary records extant in the Registry consist of transcripts of Wills, there being very few, if any, originals earlier than 1580. These transcripts, which number upwards of three thousand, may be said to commence in the year 1500, although one at least exists of an earlier date. A small packet is preserved containing twenty-five transcripts of the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries, the dates of which are wanting or imperfect. One of these, viz., the Will of Alys Multon, widow, of Wymondham, is dated 15th May (year obliterated), Edward IV, circa 1480. The transcripts are now placed in bundles for different periods, each year being tied up separately:—

Bundle 1.	Transcripts previous to 1535.
" 2.	" 1536-1541, inclusive.
" 3.	" 1542-1545 "
" 4.	" 1546-1549 "
" 5.	" 1550-1555 "
" 6.	" 1556-1557 "
" 7.	" 1558.
" 8.	" 1559.
" 9.	" 1560-1563, inclusive.
" 10.	" 1564-1569 "
" 11.	" 1570-1574 "
" 12.	" 1575-1579 "

From 1580 to 1711 inclusive, the original Wills and Transcripts are filed in rolls, and after 1712 they are much better arranged with the Administrations in bundles alphabetically for each year. The series is tolerably complete from 1580, with the exception of the roll for 1608, which is lost, and the usual gap between 1649 and 1660, when the episcopal jurisdiction over Wills was suspended and all Wills were proved in London. For further details respecting the Transcripts and original Wills the reader is referred to pp. 17, 40, and 63.

III. REGISTER BOOKS.

In addition to the Transcripts and original Wills, there exist a number of Register Books containing copies of Wills for the following years :—

1515-1526, partly indexed.
1526-1533, not indexed.
1560-1	1566	1570	1574	1578
1563	1567	1571	1575	1579
1564	1568	1572	1576
1565	1569	1573	1577

Separate Books for each of these years with old indexes. Some important details concerning these Register Books will be found prefixed on pp. 1, 13, and 46.

There are also Register Books containing copies of Wills, without indexes, for these years :—

1587	1589	1607	1611
1588	1606	1608	1639

The Wills for part of the year 1626, and from 1627 to 1631 inclusive, are also copied into three Register Books for which indexes exist. A few original Wills are bound up in these volumes. From 1749 to the present time a regular series of Register Books of Wills are preserved. The earliest Will in the first Register Book (1515-1526) is that of John Penny, of Leicester, which bears date 24th March, 1495.

IV. ADMINISTRATIONS.

The earliest Administration Bonds commence in 1556, but are by no means so complete as the Wills, and not regularly indexed until 1594. For the first time the earlier Bonds, hitherto deposited away in mixed bundles, have recently been arranged, and an Index of both the existing and missing records prepared. This is fully printed in this volume (see p. 152, where further details are given). It is a matter of regret that so many of these Bonds are altogether missing, but fortunately the Act Books which commence in 1604 help to make up somewhat for the deficiency. It will be observed that between 1620 and 1649 a number of Sequestration Bonds, relating to ecclesiastical preferments and other matters, are mentioned. Many of these are also missing, but the Act Books give some particulars concerning them.

V. INVENTORIES.

These records, which give us some insight into the domestic habits and position of our forefathers, commence about 1520. The earlier Inventories will be found generally attached to the Wills or Bonds, and there are good indexes to them from 1585 to 1711.

VI. ACT BOOKS.

The earliest is a fragment or part of the Probate and Administration Act Book for the year 1526. About 120 names are given, the records for many of which are now missing.

Probate Act Books are preserved for the following years :—

1585 and 1586, very imperfect.	}	3 Books.
1604-1644, inclusive.
1645-1649 „
1678-1688 „

Administration Act Books exist for the years

1604-1635, inclusive.	}	3 Books.
1635-1645 „
1678-1689 „

VII. PECULIAR COURTS.

It will be necessary to give a list here of the several minor Courts, the records of which are now deposited separately in the Registry at Leicester, the calendars being printed for the first time in this volume, with the date of earliest records :—

1. The Prebendal Court of St. Margaret, Leicester, 1543.
2. The Manorial Court of Rothley, 1575.
3. The Manorial Court of Groby, 1580.
4. The Manorial Court of Evington, 1581.

Further details respecting these Courts will be found on pp. 205, 217, 227, and 235.

Although the present volume deals with the bulk of Leicestershire Wills and Administrations between 1495 and 1649, it should be remembered that there are other depositories where Leicestershire records for the same period, and even earlier, may be found. As many Leicestershire Wills were proved in the Prerogative Court of Canterbury, search also should be made in the Calendars at Somerset House, London. These Calendars, which commence in 1383, are now printed down to 1604 in Vols. X, XI, XVIII, and XXV of the INDEX LIBRARY. The earliest Leicestershire Wills extant are those recorded in the Episcopal Registers at Lincoln, dating from 1320. These will be found embodied in Mr. A. Gibbon's volume on "Early Lincoln Wills." Some few Leicestershire Wills were, it appears, proved in the Court of the Dean and Chapter of Lincoln, where they are still preserved.

The official permission to transcribe and print the Calendars was readily given by the Right Hon. Sir Francis Henry Jeune, K.C.B., President of the Probate Division, to whom the thanks of the subscribers and genealogists generally are due. I have at the same time to thank Mr. H. Pickering Clarke, the District Registrar, for the courteous manner in which he has facilitated the work. To Mr. F. T. Jackson, the chief clerk, I am specially indebted for the valuable help he has rendered, and for the interest he has throughout taken in the work.

SERIES I.

Register Books of Wills,

1495—1536.

REGISTER BOOK, 1515—1526.

THIS, the earliest Register Book of Wills is a large quarto paper volume, consisting of several books bound together, and containing about 510 folios or 1020 pages in an excellent state of preservation. It is stated to contain copies of Wills proved between 1515 and 1526 inclusive, but as will be seen it also contains a number of Wills of both earlier and later dates, without the dates of proof. The earliest Will is dated 1495, and the latest is dated 1533. The Wills which number about 920, many of which are in Latin, are very irregularly entered so far as dates are concerned: for instance, some of the Wills proved in 1522 are placed before those of the preceding year, whilst part of 1524 and 1526 are entered before those for 1523. In this order they appear to have been ever since the volume was originally made up and bound in the 16th century. There is an old index at the commencement of the Book curiously arranged according to christian names without dates. It is by no means a complete or good index, having numerous omissions and several disadvantages. Some of the Wills in this Book are also entered in Register Book 1526—1533. A new alphabetical index has been specially prepared by the compiler for printing, and here follows. In this new Index, whilst the original spelling of the testators' surnames has been carefully preserved, it has been thought best to give the modern spelling of their christian names, as also of the place names

NOTE.—The date of Will is given in brackets, where the date of proof cannot be obtained.

REGISTER BOOK, 1526—1533.

THE second Register Book of Wills 1526-1533, is an unbound paper volume much less than the earlier one already noticed, and not in such a good state of preservation. It contains about 225 pages, some of the earliest of which are damaged and are now imperfect, and it contains copies of about 220 Wills, but no index. A few of the Wills copied in this volume were proved in 1518; one is dated as early as 1500, and several others will be found dated subsequent to 1533. The alphabetical index which follows has been specially prepared for this publication.

NOTE.—The dates attached to the names of testators are the dates of Wills, except where they are marked with an asterisk, which denotes the date of proof.

SERIES II.
 Transcripts of Wills,
 1500—1558.

FOR an account of the transcripts of Wills extant, see Introduction, p. 83. The chronological calendar which follows is practically a copy of the one in use in the Registry as far as 1558, with a few important alterations added. It must be stated that this calendar does not by any means represent all the Wills proved in the Archdeaconry Court of Leicester during the period which it covers, as nothing can be said about those records which have long since disappeared. Inventories will be found attached to most of the records between 1520 and 1558.

NOTE.—The Wills in this calendar chiefly appear under the year they are dated, but in many instances they will be found placed under the year in which they were proved. Those marked with an asterisk are also in the Register Books of the same period.

Undated Wills.

Transcripts of Wills,

1559—1579.

THESE transcripts are contained in five bundles, viz.: No. 8 to No. 12 inclusive, and follow those already calendared. For convenience, the names are again arranged in alphabetical order for each year. Many of the transcripts in these bundles are not included in this Series, as they are copied into the Register Books of the same period. [Vide Series III.] It should be observed that many of the Wills indexed between 1556 and 1560, and a number of those in the preceding two or three years were proved at subsequent dates.

SERIES III.
Register Books of Wills,
1560—1579.

THIS is a most important series of Register Books, as the date of Probate is attached to nearly every Will registered. The first volume has two old Indexes, one at the beginning, and another at fo. 84. It contains 173 copies of Wills, about 50 of which were proved in 1560, and the remainder in 1561. There is no Register Book for 1562. From 1563 to 1579 inclusive there is a Book for each year with original Indexes arranged according to christian names, excepting the Book for 1568, which has a modern Index.

The covers of several of these Register Books, viz., 1563 to 1567, 1576 and 1579 are unique. They evidently formed part of a beautiful illuminated vellum missal belonging to a Pre-Reformation religious house. It is believed by some that they originally came from the Abbey, but the probability is they were obtained from the Collegiate Church of the Newarke, Leicester, at the dissolution.

The alphabetical arrangement according to surnames, which has been specially prepared for this publication, will facilitate searches in many ways.

SERIES IV.

Wills,

1580—1649.

THE records calendared in this series are quite distinct from the earlier ones. They consist of original Wills and copies mixed, being filed in separate rolls for each year. The roll for 1603 is lost, but the index is preserved. There are good Register Books containing copies of Wills for 1585-6 and for the years 1587-1588, 1589, 1606, 1607, 1608, 1611 and 1639. Inventories are filed with the Wills for the first five years, but from 1585 they are arranged and indexed separately. There is an imperfect Act Book for 1585 and 1586, and Act Books from 1604 to 1649 inclusive are preserved. The calendar from which this copy is taken commences thus: "Testamenta probato Ao. 1580 vnam Inventarijs."

WILLS, 1600, &c.

Attached to the roll of Wills for 1600 is a separate roll containing 66 records of various dates between 1557 and 1605, and labelled "Wills, 1600. &c." Most of these records appear to be duplicate transcripts of Wills proved between 1591 and 1605; a few of an earlier date, and some of them were never proved. The date of Will is given in brackets, where the date of proof is not recorded on the Will. The following is the list arranged in lexicographical order.

SERIES V.
 Administrations.
 1556—1649.

THIS series consists of a calendar of Administration Bonds granted by the Archdeaconry Court of Leicester, between 1556 and 1649, now existing or missing. It is a matter of regret that so many of these records should now be missing, the Bonds not having been so regularly filed as the Wills. In addition to a good number of records dating from 1556 to 1593, found in various mixed bundles and now arranged in calendar order, filed bundles of Bonds exist for the following years:—1585, 1587, 1589, 1591, 1594, 1595, 1601, 1623, 1625, 1633, 1634, 1639, 1648, 1649

In the intermediate years there are no Bonds filed.

The earlier records previous to 1556 have altogether disappeared, and no record of any grants exist, excepting those few mentioned in the earliest Act Book for 1526.

Administration Act Books exist for the years 1526 and 1586, and from 1604 to 1645 inclusive.

The whole of the existing records for the period under notice have been examined and the following lexicographical calendar specially prepared for this publication.

MISSING ADMINISTRATION BONDS, 1556—1583.

The following is a list of Administrations granted during the tenure of office of John Chippingdale, LL.B., Commissary and Official, circa 1556 and 1583. Whilst these Bonds are now missing, it has been thought desirable to print the list for reference. It has been compiled from a 16th Century Index not now in official use.

SERIES VI.
Peculiar Courts.
 (PREVIOUS TO 1800.)

THIS series contains references to the Testamentary records of the several "Peculiar" Courts in Leicestershire, formerly exempt from the Jurisdiction of the Archdeaconry Court. The records of these Courts, four in number, are now deposited separately in the District Probate Registry at Leicester.

CALENDAR OF WILLS PROVED
 AND OF ADMINISTRATIONS GRANTED BY THE COURT OF THE PREBENDARY OF THE PREBENDAL CHURCH OF S. MARGARET, LEICESTER,

1543 — 1800.

NOTE.—The jurisdiction of this court formerly extended over the whole of S. Margaret's Parish, the district at one time known as the "Bishop's Fee," and the Chapelry of Knighton. Like the other Courts, it was abolished when the Probate Act came into operation in 1858.

It has been found necessary to collate and re-calendar the records of this Peculiar, owing to some inaccuracies in the Official Index.* The records are placed in bundles, the first four of which are numbered.

* The Official Index commences with Thomas Tyers, of Leicester, 1596, No. 1.
